Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 28, 2011, Advanced Energy Industries, Inc. (Advanced Energy) entered into an amendment to the Global Supply Agreement dated August 29, 2005 with Applied Materials, Inc. (the Amendment). Under the Amendment, the parties:

- (a) extended the term of the Global Supply Agreement indefinitely, provided that either party may terminate any time after 36 months from January 28, 2011, upon providing 9 months notice to the other party,
- (b) clarified that Applied may designate third parties to purchase product from Advanced Energy,
- (c) clarified and limited Advanced Energy's liability and obligations with regard to delivery delays and warranty breaches,
- (d) granted Applied certain audit and inspection rights with regard to confidentiality and intellectual property obligations,
- (e) clarified Advanced Energy's right to make changes to product specifications and manufacturing process, and Applied's right to request changes to product specifications,
- (f) agreed to comply with Applied's environmental, health and safety requirements, as posted on Applied's website,
- (g) agreed to a forecasting and inventory management and liability program which, among other features, permits Applied to provide a non-binding forecast to Advanced Energy of the inventory Applied expects to need and sets forth procedures for reimbursement of Advanced Energy for certain excess or obsolete items,
- (h) agreed to restrictions on Advanced Energy's replacement of sub-tier suppliers,
- (i) agreed that Advanced Energy will not provide a sub-tier supplier confidential information unless the sub-tier supplier has entered into a confidentiality agreement,
- (j) clarified the parties termination rights and obligations and liability upon termination or expiration of the agreement,
- (k) agreed to a limitation of liability structure,
- (l) agreed to obligations for each party with regard to compliance with import and export rules and regulations, and
- (m) agreed to mutual obligations with regard to compliance with laws, governing law, codes of conduct, and dispute resolution process.

The above summary is qualified by reference to the text of the Amendment that the Company expects to file as an exhibit to its Form 10-Q for the three months to end March 31, 2011.
