Dear [Name],

We are pleased to confirm that on December 16, United Rentals reached an agreement to acquire RSC Holdings, the second largest equipment rental provider in North America. RSC is known for its operational excellence and, like United Rentals, it has a strong culture of customer service.

We are extremely excited to combine these two companies to create a best-in-class United Rentals that will bring new opportunities to our employees, customers, business partners, stockholders and the communities we serve. I'd like to share some of the details with you.

This merger is about strategic growth and investment in creating long-term opportunities for the business. The new United Rentals will have an even greater presence across North America, with nearly 1,000 branches in the U.S. and Canada and the largest, most versatile fleet in the equipment rental industry. We will have access to a wealth of complementary strengths, talent and best practices. The transaction comes at a time when demand for our services is growing, and it meets all of the criteria we set for financial and operational benefit to the business.

We will retain the United Rental name when we close the transaction, which we expect will be in the first half of 2012. I will remain as chief executive, and our headquarters will stay in Greenwich, Connecticut. We do not foresee any immediate changes to our operations, but we anticipate substantial enhancements once the integration is underway.

We appreciate the support you have shown United Rentals in the past, and look forward to our continued relationship, which we see as vital to our success. We hope to speak to you personally about our plans in the days ahead. In the meantime, should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Fred Bratman, Senior Vice President of Corporate Communications and Investor Relations, at 203-618-7318, fbratman@ur.com.

Sincerely,

Michael Kneeland
Chief Executive Officer
