PROSPECTUS

Ryder System, Inc.
243,700 Shares
Common Stock
Rescission Offer

We are offering, under the terms and conditions described in this prospectus, to rescind (the Rescission Offer) the previous purchase of 243,700 shares of our common stock, par value $0.50 per share, by persons who acquired such shares as part of units (the Units) through the Ryder System, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan) between June 1, 2005 and May 12, 2006 (the Purchase Period). A Plan participant's investment in our common stock is made through the purchase of Units in the Ryder System, Inc. Common Stock Fund (the Ryder Stock Fund). Each Unit represents shares of our common stock plus a varying amount of short-term liquid investments.

The Rescission Offer applies to shares of our common stock included in Units purchased during the Purchase Period at prices ranging from $11.63 per Unit to $20.33 per Unit.

If you purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period and accept the Rescission Offer, you will receive:

In the event you sold such Units at a loss, an amount equal to the excess of the amount you paid for such Units over the proceeds from the sale of the Units, plus interest.

In the event you currently hold such Units, the amount you paid for such Units, plus interest from the date of the purchase. However, we will not repurchase the Units if the amount you paid for the Units, plus interest, is less than the current value of the Units.

The Rescission Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on July 6, 2006 (the Expiration Date).

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the trading symbol R. The last reported sale price of our common stock (as reported on the New York Stock Exchange) on May 30, 2006 was $53.08 per share. The value of a Unit on such date was $19.50. Our principal executive offices are located at 11690 NW 105th Street, Miami, Florida 33178-1103. Our telephone number is (305) 500-3726.

YOU MAY ELECT TO ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER BY SUBMITTING A RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM TO US ON OR BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE AS SET FORTH IN THIS PROSPECTUS. YOU DO NOT NEED TO TAKE ANY ACTION TO REJECT THE RESCISSION OFFER. IF YOU FAIL TO RETURN THE RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM BY THE EXPIRATION DATE, YOU WILL BE DEEMED BY US TO HAVE REJECTED THE RESCISSION OFFER. ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF THE RESCISSION OFFER MAY PREVENT YOU FROM MAINTAINING AN ACTION AGAINST US IN CONNECTION WITH SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK INCLUDED IN THE UNITS PURCHASED PURSUANT TO THE PLAN DURING THE PURCHASE PERIOD.

Investing in our common stock involves risks. See Risk Factors on page 9.

The shares of our common stock included in the Units and subject to the Rescission Offer have not been properly registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), because we inadvertently exceeded the number of shares of our common stock registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) for offer and sale to participants under the Plan. These shares have now been registered by means of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 of which this prospectus forms a part. Accordingly, whether or not you accept the Rescission Offer, shares of our common stock subject to the Rescission Offer will be properly registered under the Securities Act, effective as of the date of this prospectus.

NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THESE SECURITIES OR PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

The date of this prospectus is May 31, 2006

We caution readers that certain important factors could cause actual results and events to differ significantly from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. These risk factors include, but are not limited to, the following:

Market Conditions:

- o Changes in general economic conditions in the U.S. and worldwide leading to decreased demand for our services, lower profit margins and increased levels of bad debt;
- o Changes in our customers' operations, financial condition or business environment that may limit their need for, or ability to purchase, our services;
- o Changes in market conditions affecting the commercial rental market or the sale of used vehicles;
- o Less than anticipated growth rates in the markets in which we operate; and
- o Changes in current financial, tax or regulatory requirements that could negatively impact the leasing market.

Competition:

- o Competition from other service providers, some of which have greater capital resources or lower capital costs;
- o Continued consolidation in the markets in which we operate which may create large competitors with greater financial resources;
- o Competition from vehicle manufacturers in our foreign FMS business operations; and
- o Our inability to maintain current pricing levels due to customer acceptance or competition.

Profitability:

- o Our inability to obtain adequate profit margins for our services;
- o Lower than expected customer retention levels;
- o Loss of key customers in our SCS business segment;
- o Our inability to adapt our product offerings to meet changing consumer preferences on a cost-effective basis;
- o The inability of our business segments to create operating efficiencies;
- o Availability of heavy-duty and medium-duty vehicles;
- o Sudden changes in fuel prices and fuel shortages;
- o Our inability to successfully implement our asset management initiatives;
- o An increase in the cost of, or shortages in the availability of, qualified drivers;
- o Labor strikes and work stoppages;

- o Our inability to manage our cost structure; and
- o Our inability to limit our exposure for customer claims.

Financing Concerns:

- o Higher borrowing costs and possible decreases in available funding sources caused by an adverse change in our debt ratings;
- o Unanticipated interest rate and currency exchange rate fluctuations; and
- o Negative funding status of our pension plans caused by lower than expected returns on invested assets and unanticipated changes in interest rates.

Accounting Matters:

- o Impact of unusual items resulting from on-going evaluations of business strategies, asset valuations, acquisitions, divestitures and organizational structure;
- o Reductions in residual values or useful lives of revenue earning equipment;

Table of Contents

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE RESCISSION OFFER

Why are you making the Rescission Offer?

Plan participants can purchase Units which include Ryder common stock through the Plan. Although the shares of Ryder common stock included in the Units sold to Plan participants are purchased in the open market by Fidelity Management Trust Company (the Trustee), the Trustee of the Plan, we are required to register the sale and issuance of these shares to Plan participants with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We recently discovered that we inadvertently exceeded the number of shares of our common stock registered with the Commission for sale and issuance to participants in the Plan.

On May 15, 2006, we filed a registration statement on Form S-8 covering the sale and issuance of an additional 2,500,000 shares of our common stock included in Units sold through the Plan. In addition, we are making the Rescission Offer with regard to 243,700 unregistered shares of our common stock included in the Units sold pursuant to the Plan from June 1, 2005 to May 12, 2006. We are making the Rescission Offer to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and to limit any contingent liability we may have as a result of noncompliance with applicable federal registration requirements in connection with the purchase of such shares of our common stock by Plan participants. Members of our Board of Directors did not participate in the Plan and therefore are not eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer. Our current executive officers who purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period do not intend to participate in the Rescission Offer.

What will I receive if I accept the Rescission Offer?

The answer to this question depends on whether you still hold the Units purchased pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period:

If you have sold such Units at a loss, we will pay you an amount equal to the excess of the amount you paid for such Units over the proceeds from the sale of the Units, plus interest at a rate of 11% per year. Interest will be paid on the amount originally paid for the Units during the period from the date of purchase of the Units until the date of the sale of the Units and on the loss realized from the sale of the Units from the date of sale through the date that payment is made by us.

If you currently hold such Units, we will repurchase such Units for the amount you paid for such Units, plus interest at a rate of 11% per year, from the date you purchased the Units through the date that payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase the Units if the amount you paid for the Units, plus interest, is less than the value of the Units as of the Expiration Date, as it is not economically beneficial to you.

When and how will I receive payment for my Units if I properly accept the Rescission Offer?

If we receive a properly completed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form from you on or before the Expiration Date and we determine that you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer, we expect that any proceeds to which you are entitled will be credited to your Plan account on or before July 14, 2006.

If you still have a 401(k) Plan account, we will credit all proceeds resulting from acceptance of the Rescission Offer to your Plan account in accordance with your current investment elections for new contributions in the Plan. If you no longer have a 401(k) Plan account, proceeds will be invested in the age-appropriate Fidelity Freedom Fund until you instruct the Trustee to distribute the proceeds to you, or into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement account in a direct rollover. Payment of proceeds directly to you may result in adverse tax consequences. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations.

How did you determine the interest rate to use in calculating any amounts owed to me?

Federal law does not provide a specific interest rate to be used in the Rescission Offer. Approximately sixty-five percent (65%) of the persons that may be eligible to accept the Rescission Offer reside in ten states. In the absence of a required federal rate of interest and based on the large concentration of offerees residing in these ten states, we used an interest rate of 11% which is the highest of the statutory interest rates mandated by these ten states as of the date of this prospectus. The states and the relevant statutory interest rates are as follows: California (10%), Florida (9%), Georgia (11%), Indiana (8%), Michigan (5.221%), New York (9%), Ohio (6%), Pennsylvania (6%), Tennessee (10%) and Texas (8%).

What effect do dividends paid on Ryder common stock during the Purchase Period have on the value of my Units?

Cash dividends paid by us with respect to shares of common stock included in the Units purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period are credited to the Ryder Stock Fund and result in an equivalent increase in the value of the Unit.

During the Purchase Period, we paid a cash dividend of $0.18 per share to holders of record of our common stock on February 20, 2006 and cash dividends of $0.16 per share to holders of record of our common stock on each of November 22, 2005, August 23, 2005, and May 20, 2005. We will pay a cash dividend of $0.18 per share on June 16, 2006 to shareholders of record on May 22, 2006. The amount and timing of future dividends are determined by our Board of Directors based on business considerations at the time.

Does it matter whether I purchased the Units through salary deferrals, rollover contributions, loan repayments, company contributions or fund exchanges?

No. All purchases of Units made pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period will be considered when determining whether you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer.

Am I required to accept the Rescission Offer?

No. You are not required to accept the Rescission Offer. Your decision to accept or reject the Rescission Offer is completely voluntary and should be based on your assessment as to whether or not it would be economically beneficial to you. Acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer will not have any bearing or effect on your employment with Ryder.

What considerations should I take into account in deciding whether to accept the Rescission Offer?

The answer to this question depends on whether you still hold the Units purchased pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period.

If you sold the Units, you should determine whether any of the Units were sold for less than the amount you paid for them. You may retrieve detailed information regarding your transactions in the Ryder Stock Fund during the Purchase Period as follows: go to www.netbenefits.com, go to the Saving and Retirement page, click on History and then click on Transaction History which allows you to enter a Custom Date Range to retrieve account activity during the Purchase Period. You can also call the Ryder Benefits Service Center directly at 1-800-373-7300, Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) to obtain account information.

For purposes of determining whether there was a gain or loss, Units are deemed sold in the order in which they are purchased. You are not entitled to accept the Rescission Offer with respect to any Units you sold at a price equal to or greater than the price you paid for them. If any of the Units you purchased during the Purchase Period were sold at a loss, it is likely that acceptance of the Rescission Offer is economically beneficial to you. If you are not sure whether the Units were sold at a loss, you may accept the Rescission Offer by returning the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form and, if based on the terms of the Rescission Offer you are entitled to any payment, we will credit any amounts owed to you to your Plan account as described in this prospectus.

If you currently hold Units purchased during the Purchase Period, acceptance of the Rescission Offer is not economically beneficial to you unless the value of the Units, as of the Expiration Date, is less than the amount you paid for such Units, plus interest. Our records indicate that the Units subject to the Rescission Offer were purchased at prices ranging from $11.63 per Unit to $20.33 per Unit. The value of a Unit as of May 30, 2006 was $19.50.

Table of Contents

In order to ensure smooth processing of the Rescission Offer, if you accept the Rescission Offer and as of the Expiration Date you hold Units in the Ryder Stock Fund, all transactions relating to the Ryder Stock Fund in your Plan account, other than contributions from salary deferrals and loan repayments, will be temporarily suspended whether or not we repurchase your Units. This temporary suspension is called a blackout period. As a result, if you accept the Rescission Offer you will be subject to the risk that due to events in the securities markets, the value of your Plan account could significantly decline during this period and you would not be able to transfer funds in and out of the Ryder Stock Fund to avert this result.

What is the effect of the Rescission Offer on my ability to assert claims?

The rights remaining to the recipients of a rescission offer are not clearly delineated under the federal or certain state securities laws. The staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission takes the position that a person's federal right of rescission may survive a rescission offer. For a more detailed description of the effect of the Rescission Offer on any applicable federal securities law claims, see Risk Factors. The Rescission Offer may not bar claims relating to our non-compliance with securities laws and we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages in an indeterminate amount and Risk Factors. Your right of rescission under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer.

May I accept the Rescission Offer in part?

No. If you accept the Rescission Offer, then you must accept it for all Units that were purchased during the Purchase Period that you still hold, as well as all Units that you purchased during the Purchase Period that were sold at a loss. As described above, however, if you accept the Rescission Offer, we will only repurchase those Units that, as of the Expiration Date, have a value less than the price you paid for the Units, plus interest.

If you do not accept the Rescission Offer in full, you will retain ownership of the Units and will not receive any payment for the Units subject to the Rescission Offer.

What will happen if I elect to accept the Rescission Offer for Units purchased during the Purchase Period that I currently hold in my account but the amount I would receive for the Units is less than the current value of the Units?

If you submit a Rescission Offer Acceptance Form, we will not repurchase those Units for which the price per Unit that you paid, plus interest, is less than the value of a Unit as of the Expiration Date. The Units will remain in your Plan account, and except as set forth below, the Rescission Offer will not affect your ability to sell such Units.

YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THE RESCISSION OFFER, WHETHER OR NOT YOUR UNITS ARE ACTUALLY REPURCHASED BY US, WILL CAUSE YOUR PLAN ACCOUNT TO BE SUBJECT TO THE BLACKOUT PERIOD IMPOSED ON THE ACCOUNTS OF ALL PARTICIPANTS WHO ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER WHILE WE DETERMINE WHETHER YOU ARE ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE A PAYMENT UNDER THE TERMS OF THE RESCISSION OFFER. FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE BLACKOUT PERIOD, SEE THE CAPTION TITLED NOTICE OF BLACKOUT PERIOD.

When does the Rescission Offer expire?

The Rescission Offer expires at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on July 6, 2006.

What do I need to do now to accept the Rescission Offer?

In order to accept the Rescission Offer, you must complete, sign and date the accompanying Rescission Offer Acceptance Form, included as Appendix A, and return it in the enclosed pre-addressed envelope to the following address on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on July 6, 2006:

The Company recommends that you send the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Date to ensure its receipt by the Expiration Date.

WE MUST RECEIVE YOUR PROPERLY COMPLETED RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM ON OR BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE. OTHERWISE, YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REJECTED THE RESCISSION OFFER. WE WILL, IN OUR SOLE DISCRETION, DETERMINE WHETHER YOUR RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM HAS BEEN PROPERLY COMPLETED AND WHETHER YOU ARE ELIGIBLE TO ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER.

What do I need to do now to reject the Rescission Offer?

You do not need to take any action to reject the Rescission Offer.

What happens if I do not return the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form?

If you do not return the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form on or before the Expiration Date, you will be deemed to have rejected the Rescission Offer.

If you reject the Rescission Offer, you will not receive any payment with respect to the shares included in the Units subject to the Rescission Offer. In addition, the shares included in the Units that you now own and that are subject to the Rescission Offer, for purposes of applicable federal securities law, will be registered securities as of the date of this prospectus and, unless you are deemed to be an affiliate (as defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act) of us, such shares will be freely tradeable in the public market as of the Expiration Date.

Can I change my mind after I have mailed my signed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form?

Yes. You can change your decision about accepting or rejecting the Rescission Offer at any time on or before the Expiration Date.

If you change your decision and want to reject the Rescission Offer after having submitted the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form, then you may reject the Rescission Offer by sending a notice that includes your name, signature, address, social security number or taxpayer identification number and a clear indication that you are rejecting the Rescission Offer to the attention of:

THIS NOTICE OF REJECTION MUST BE RECEIVED AT THE ABOVE ADDRESS ON OR BEFORE THE EXPIRATION DATE. OTHERWISE YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE ACCEPTED THE RESCISSION OFFER PURSUANT TO YOUR ELECTIONS ON THE ORIGINAL RESCISSION OFFER ACCEPTANCE FORM(S).

Does the Rescission Offer effect any loan repayments I am currently making to the Plan?

If you have an outstanding loan from the Plan, the amount that you are required to repay will not change as a result of your acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer.

If I accept the Rescission Offer, will access to my Plan account be blacked out for any period?

Yes. If you accept the Rescission Offer, then all transactions related to the Ryder Stock Fund in your Plan account, other than contributions from salary deferrals and loan repayments, will be temporarily suspended so that we can determine if you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer and, if so, credit your Plan account with any amounts due under the Rescission Offer. This temporary suspension is called a blackout period, which will begin at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on July 6, 2006, and will end when the proceeds from the Rescission Offer are credited to your Plan account. We currently anticipate the blackout period to end on or before July 14, 2006. You will be notified in the event that the blackout period is extended past such date. The blackout period will not affect transactions related to other investments in your Plan account. You may continue to direct such other investments in the ordinary course.

You may call the Ryder Benefits Service Center, without charge, for information about the actual end date of the blackout period, at 1-800-373-7300 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. (Eastern Time), Monday through Friday. For more information about the blackout period, please see the caption titled NOTICE OF BLACKOUT PERIOD.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves risks. You should carefully consider the following risk factors relating to the Rescission Offer in addition to the risks identified in Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements above and the risks identified in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, including those risks identified under the caption Risk Factors.

The Rescission Offer may not bar claims relating to our non-compliance with securities laws and we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages in an indeterminate amount.

It is not certain that the Rescission Offer will have the effect of barring claims relating to our non-compliance with applicable federal securities laws. If a person accepts the Rescission Offer, we believe our potential liability to that person will be eliminated. Should the Rescission Offer be rejected, we may continue to be contingently liable for rescission or damages, which could result in an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition. In addition, the Rescission Offer will not prevent regulators from pursuing enforcement actions or imposing penalties and fines against us with respect to any violations of securities laws. In any event, we do not expect the Rescission Offer to have a material impact on our financial condition or liquidity.

Your right of rescission under federal and state law may not survive if you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer.

The rights remaining to the recipients of a rescission offer are not clearly delineated under the federal or certain state securities laws. If you affirmatively reject or fail to accept the Rescission Offer, it is unclear whether your federal right of rescission will remain preserved. The staff of the Commission takes the position that a person's federal right of rescission may survive a rescission offer. However, federal courts in the past have ruled that a person who rejects or fails to accept a rescission offer is precluded from later seeking similar relief. Generally, the statute of limitations for enforcement of such statutory rights by a stockholder is one year commencing on the date of the sale of common stock sold in violation of the federal registration requirements, but in no event later than three years after the common stock was bona fide offered to the public.

The Rescission Offer may also affect your right of rescission and your right to damages under state law. We believe that the sale and issuance of shares of our common stock included in the Units that are the subject of the Rescission Offer were exempt from registration under state laws. Furthermore, we believe that the Rescission Offer is exempt from registration under the laws of such states and thus need not comply with the laws of such states regulating such offers. We, however, do not make any representation as to the compliance of this Rescission Offer with applicable state law. Under most state law, acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer may preclude you from maintaining an action against us in connection with the shares of our common stock included in the Units purchased during the Purchase Period. We may assert, among other defenses, in any litigation initiated by a person eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer who accepts or rejects the Rescission Offer, that such person is estopped from asserting such claims as a result of the Rescission Offer. Statutes of limitations under state laws vary by state, with the limitation time period under many state statutes not typically beginning until the facts giving rise to a violation are known. Our Rescission Offer is not an admission that we did not comply with any federal and state disclosure requirements nor is it a waiver by us of any applicable statute of limitations or any potential defenses that we may have.

If you accept the Rescission Offer, you will not be permitted to conduct any transactions in the Ryder Stock Fund within your Plan account for a period of time following the Expiration Date.

Since you will not be permitted to conduct any transactions with respect to Ryder common stock in your Plan account, other than contributions from salary deferrals and loan repayments, during this period, you will be subject to the risk that due to events in the securities markets, the value of your account could significantly decline during this period and you would not be able to make transfers to avert this result. In addition, any funds you receive for the sale of Units in the Rescission Offer will not be deposited into your Plan account for a period of time following the Expiration Date. These funds will be allocated to your Plan account in accordance with your current investment instructions. If your instructions include an allocation to the Ryder Stock Fund, you will be subject to the risk that the Units could increase in value prior to the reinvestment of funds in your account, resulting in a loss of value in your Plan account. See NOTICE OF BLACKOUT PERIOD for additional information.

THE RESCISSION OFFER

Background and Reasons for the Rescission Offer

The Plan is a qualified defined contribution plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The purpose of the Plan is to provide a voluntary, systematic method for participants to save a specified percentage of the participant's compensation for retirement and to defer federal income tax and, where allowed, state, city and county income tax, on such compensation. Fidelity Management Trust Company is the Trustee of the Plan.

Amounts in participants' accounts are held in a trust fund maintained for the benefit of participants in the Plan. There are currently 15 investment choices available to participants under the Plan. All contributions to the participant's Plan account are invested in accordance with the participant's investment elections.

One of the investment choices in the Plan is the Ryder Stock Fund, which gives participants the opportunity to invest amounts deposited in their Plan account in Ryder common stock. A participant's investment in the Ryder Stock Fund is measured in Units. Each Unit represents shares of our common stock plus a varying amount of short-term liquid investments. To effectuate purchases and sales of Units, the Trustee will from time to time purchase and sell our common stock in the open market at market prices.

We are required to register the sale and issuance of shares of Ryder common stock to Plan participants through the Plan. We recently discovered that we inadvertently exceeded the number of shares of our common stock registered with the Commission for offer and sale to participants in the Plan. On May 15, 2006, we filed a registration statement on Form S-8 covering the sale and issuance of an additional 2,500,000 shares of our common stock included in Units sold through the Plan.

We are making this Rescission Offer with regard to 243,700 unregistered shares of our common stock included in the Units sold pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period. We are making the Rescission Offer to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and to limit any contingent liability we may have as a result of noncompliance with applicable federal registration requirements in connection with the purchase of such shares of our common stock by Plan participants. Members of our Board of Directors did not participate in the Plan and therefore are not eligible to participate in the Rescission Offer. Our current executive officers who purchased Units pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period do not intend to participate in the Rescission Offer.

Effect of the Rescission Offer

If you reject, or fail to accept in full, the Rescission Offer by the Expiration Date (or, if you accept the Rescission Offer but we determine that you are not eligible to accept the Rescission Offer under the terms set forth in this prospectus), you will retain ownership of the Units and will not receive any payment for the Units subject to the Rescission Offer. In addition, the shares of common stock included in the Units that you now own that are subject to the Rescission Offer, for purposes of applicable federal securities law, will be registered securities as of the date of this prospectus and, unless you are deemed to be an affiliate (as defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act) of us, such shares will be freely tradable in the public market as of the Expiration Date. Those shares owned by our affiliates will be subject to the restrictions on resale provided in Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

We believe that your acceptance of the Rescission Offer will, under general theories of estoppel, preclude you from later seeking similar relief. For federal securities law purposes, nonacceptance of the Rescission Offer may not terminate your right to bring a civil action against us for failure to register the shares under the Securities Act before expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. The staff of the Commission takes the position that a person's federal right of rescission may survive a rescission offer. However, federal courts in the past have ruled that a person who rejects or fails to accept a rescission offer is precluded from later seeking similar relief. Generally, the federal statute of limitations for enforcement of such statutory rights by a stockholder is one year commencing on the date of the sale of common stock sold in violation of the federal registration requirements, but in no event later than three years after the common stock was bona fide offered to the public.

Table of Contents

The above discussion relates primarily to your potential rescission rights and does not address in detail the antifraud provisions of applicable securities laws or rights under state securities laws, common law or equity. We believe that the sale and issuance of shares of our common stock included in the Units that are the subject of the Rescission Offer were exempt from registration under state laws. Furthermore, we believe that the Rescission Offer is exempt from registration under the laws of such states and thus need not comply with the laws of such states regulating such offers. We, however, do not make any representation as to the compliance of this Rescission Offer with applicable state law. Under most state law, acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer may preclude you from maintaining an action against us in connection with the shares of our common stock included in the Units purchased during the Purchase Period. You may wish to consult with an attorney regarding all of your legal rights and remedies before deciding whether or not to accept the Rescission Offer.

Terms of the Rescission Offer

If you purchased Units through the Plan during the Purchase Period and have already sold such Units at a loss, you may accept the Rescission Offer, in which case you will receive an amount equal to the amount you paid for the Units less the proceeds of the sale of the Units, plus interest at a rate of 11% per year. Interest will be paid on the amount originally paid for the Units from the date you purchased the Units until the date you sold the Units. Interest will also be paid on the loss realized from the date of sale of the Units through the date that payment is made by us.

If you currently hold Units purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period, you may accept the Rescission Offer, in which case the Trustee will sell the shares included in the Units and credit your Plan account with the amount you paid for the Units, plus interest at a rate of 11% per year for the period from the date you purchased the Units to the date payment is made by us. However, we will not repurchase any Unit if the price you paid for the Unit plus interest is less than the value of the Unit as of the Expiration Date, as it is not economically beneficial to you.

Units are deemed sold in the order in which you purchased them. In order to determine which Units are eligible for repurchase and which, if any, Units were sold at a loss, all Units acquired on your behalf pursuant to the Plan during the Purchase Period will be matched against all sales of Units during or after the Purchase Period by matching the first Unit acquired with the first Unit sold.

Federal law does not provide a specific interest rate to be used in the Rescission Offer. Approximately sixty-five percent (65%) of the persons that may be eligible to accept the Rescission Offer reside in ten states. In the absence of a required federal rate of interest and based on the large concentration of offerees residing in these ten states, we used an interest rate of 11% which is the highest of the statutory interest rates mandated by these ten states as of the date of this prospectus. The states and the relevant statutory interest rates are as follows: California (10%), Florida (9%), Georgia (11%), Indiana (8%), Michigan (5.221%), New York (9%), Ohio (6%), Pennsylvania (6%), Tennessee (10%) and Texas (8%).

During the Purchase Period, we paid a cash dividend of $0.18 per share to holders of record of our common stock on February 20, 2006 and cash dividends of $0.16 per share to holders of record of our common stock on each of November 22, 2005, August 23, 2005, and May 20, 2005. We will pay a cash dividend of $0.18 per share on June 16, 2006 to shareholders of record on May 22, 2006. The amount and timing of future dividends are determined by our Board of Directors based on business considerations at the time. Cash dividends paid by us with respect to shares of common stock included in the Units purchased through the Plan during the Purchase Period are credited to the Ryder Stock Fund and result in an equivalent increase in the value of the Unit.

The Rescission Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on July 6, 2006.

Table of Contents

If we receive a properly completed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form from you on or before the Expiration Date and we determine that you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer, we expect any proceeds to which you are entitled will be credited to your Plan account on or before July 14, 2006.

If you still have a Plan account, we will credit all proceeds resulting from acceptance of the Rescission Offer to your Plan account in accordance with your current investment elections for new contributions in the Plan. If you no longer have a Plan account, proceeds will be invested in the age-appropriate Fidelity Freedom Fund until you instruct the Trustee to distribute the proceeds to you, or into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement account in a direct rollover. Payment of proceeds directly to you may result in adverse tax consequences. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations.

As of May 30, 2006, the closing sale price of our common stock (as reported on the New York Stock Exchange) was $ 53.08 per share. The value of a Unit on such date was $19.50.

How to Accept or Reject the Rescission Offer

YOU ARE NOT LEGALLY REQUIRED TO ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER.

How to accept the Rescission Offer

Acceptance of the Rescission Offer is optional. Generally, acceptance of the Rescission Offer is economically beneficial only if you have sold Units purchased during the Purchase Period at a loss, or if you currently hold Units purchased during the Purchase Period and the value of a Unit on the Expiration Date is less than the price you paid for the Unit during the Purchase Period, plus interest.

In the event you elect to accept the Rescission Offer, you must complete the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form and return it to the attention of Ryder System, Inc. Rescission Offer, P.O. Box 1245, Westboro, MA 01581 in the enclosed pre-addressed envelope.

We must receive your properly completed Rescission Offer Acceptance Form on or before the Expiration Date. Otherwise, you will be deemed to have rejected the Rescission Offer. We will, in our sole discretion, determine whether your Rescission Offer Acceptance Form has been properly completed and whether you are eligible to accept the Rescission Offer.

How to reject the Rescission Offer

You do not need to take any action to reject the Rescission Offer. If you change your decision and want to reject the Rescission Offer after having submitted the Rescission Offer Acceptance Form then you may reject the Rescission Offer by sending a notice that includes your name, signature, address, social security number or taxpayer identification number and a clear indication that you are rejecting the Rescission Offer to the attention of Ryder System, Inc. Rescission Offer, P.O. Box 1245, Westboro, MA 01581. We must receive this notice of rejection on or before the Expiration Date. Otherwise, you will be deemed to have accepted the Rescission Offer pursuant to your original Rescission Offer Acceptance Form(s).

IF YOU FAIL TO NOTIFY US IN WRITING OF YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THE RESCISSION OFFER ON OR PRIOR TO THE EXPIRATION DATE (OR ONLY ACCEPT THE RESCISSION OFFER IN PART), YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE REJECTED THE RESCISSION OFFER. ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF THE RESCISSION OFFER MAY NOT TERMINATE YOUR RIGHT TO BRING A CIVIL ACTION AGAINST US FOR FAILURE TO REGISTER THE SHARES INCLUDED IN THE UNITS UNDER FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS. HOWEVER, FEDERAL LAW DOES PROVIDE THAT YOU MAY LOSE ANY RESCISSION RIGHTS UNDER FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS ONE YEAR FROM THE DATE OF PURCHASE OF SUCH SHARES AND THREE YEARS FROM THE DATE SUCH SHARES WERE BONA FIDE OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

Accounting for the Rescission Offer

We intend to account for the Rescission Offer by recording the fair market value of the shares of our common stock included in the Units purchased by us as a charge to additional paid-in-capital based on the quoted market price of our common stock at the close of business on the Expiration Date. Any amounts paid by us pursuant to the Rescission Offer in excess of the fair market value of such Units, and any amounts paid by us with respect to shares of our common stock included in the Units that were sold at a loss, will be recorded as salaries and employee-related costs in our consolidated statement of earnings.

Funding the Rescission Offer

We have sufficient funds available to pay for the purchase of any shares of common stock included in the Units that may be tendered to us as a result of the Rescission Offer.

Questions about the Rescission Offer

If you have questions about the Rescission Offer, you may call the Ryder Benefits Service Center, at 1-800-373-7300, Monday through Friday, between 8:30 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the Rescission Offer. This discussion is based on current law. The following discussion is not exhaustive of all possible tax consequences. It does not give a detailed discussion of any state, local or foreign tax consequences, nor does it discuss all of the aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances and only applies if you are an individual citizen or resident of the United States.

You are urged to consult with your own tax advisor regarding the specific consequences to you of the Rescission Offer, including the U.S. federal, state, local, foreign and other tax consequences and the potential changes in applicable tax laws.

Your acceptance or rejection of the Rescission Offer, or the sale of the Units comprised of our common stock and short-term liquid investments to us pursuant to the Rescission Offer or the receipt of the specified payment if you had previously sold your Units at a loss, is not considered to be a taxable event before withdrawal or distribution of funds from your Plan account. All funds paid by us as a result of the Rescission Offer will be credited to your Plan account and will be invested in accordance with your current investment elections in the Plan. Upon any later withdrawal or distribution, any gain resulting from the Rescission Offer will generally be taxable as ordinary income. An additional ten percent income tax may be imposed in cases of early withdrawal.

If you have directed and caused a full distribution from the Plan and no longer have an individual account in the Plan, any amounts paid in respect of the Rescission Offer will be invested in the age-appropriate Fidelity Freedom Fund for you under the Plan until you instruct the Trustee to distribute the proceeds to you, or into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement plan in a direct rollover. A direct rollover into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement plan is not considered to be a taxable event. If the proceeds from the Rescission Offer are not rolled over, however, and you receive a distribution from the Plan, such distribution will generally be taxable as ordinary income to you as described above. An additional ten percent income tax may be imposed depending on your age.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will receive no proceeds from the Rescission Offer.

NOTICE OF BLACKOUT PERIOD

This notice is intended to comply with the requirements of Department of Labor Final Regulation Relating to Notice of Blackout Periods to Participants and Beneficiaries, 29 C.F.R. Section 2520, to the extent such requirements apply to the Rescission Offer. Accordingly, this notice is intended to inform affected participants (and beneficiaries) of the Plan of a blackout period during which their right to direct or diversify certain investments may be temporarily suspended if they accept the Rescission Offer.

If you accept the Rescission Offer and on the Expiration Date you hold Units in the Ryder Stock Fund in your Plan account, all transactions related to the Ryder Stock Fund in your Plan account, other than contributions from salary deferrals and loan repayments, will be temporarily suspended. The temporary suspension is called a blackout period. The blackout period will begin at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on July 6, 2006 and will end on the date that the proceeds for the Rescission Offer are credited to your Plan account, which we expect to be on or before July 14, 2006. You will be notified in the event that the blackout period is extended past July 14, 2006.

The blackout period is required to ensure smooth processing of the Rescission Offer. During the blackout period, the Trustee will not permit any transactions related to the Ryder Stock Fund in your Plan account. This means:
certain requests for loans and distributions (including hardship distributions) will be delayed until after the blackout period ends; and requests to sell or exchange Units made during the blackout period will need to be remade following the blackout period.

It is very important that you review and consider the appropriateness of your current investments in light of your inability to sell Units during the blackout period. You should also consider making any changes you feel appropriate to your automatic contributions from salary deferrals or loan repayments in advance of the blackout period as you will not be permitted to sell or exchange Units purchased through such salary deferrals or loan repayments during the blackout period. For your long term retirement security, you should give careful consideration to the importance of a well-balanced and diversified investment portfolio, taking into account all our assets, income and investments. You should be aware that there is a risk to holding substantial portions of your assets in the securities of any one company, as individual securities tend to have wider price swings, up and down, in short periods of time, than investments in diversified funds. Our common stock may have a wide price swing during the blackout period resulting in a large loss, and you will not be able to direct the sale of Units from your Plan account during the blackout period.

If you have any questions concerning this notice or the blackout period, including whether the blackout period has ended, you should contact the Ryder Benefits Service Center at 1-800-373-7300. Whether or not you are planning retirement in the near future, we encourage you to consider how this blackout period may affect your retirement planning, as well as your overall financial plan.

For additional information and limitations on Plan investments and how to direct investment of your Plan account, see the Plan Summary Plan Description. To obtain a copy of the Plan Summary Plan Description, contact our Ryder Benefits Service Center at 1-800-373-7300.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned acknowledges receipt of a prospectus dated May 31, 2006 (the Prospectus), of Ryder System, Inc. (the Company), pursuant to which the Company offers to rescind (the Rescission Offer) the purchase of shares of common stock of the Company included in units (the Units) in the Ryder System, Inc. Common Stock Fund (the Ryder Stock Fund) purchased by the undersigned between June 1, 2005 and May 12, 2006 (the Purchase Period). The Ryder Stock Fund is an investment alternative under the Ryder System, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan (the 401(k) Plan), and Fidelity Management Trust Company (the Trustee) is the Trustee of the 401(k) Plan. A participant's investment in our common stock through the 401(k) Plan is measured in Units. Each Unit represents shares of common stock of the Company plus a varying amount of short-term liquid investments.

Effective as of the Expiration Date, the undersigned hereby accepts the Rescission Offer for shares of common stock of the Company included in the Units purchased by the undersigned during the Purchase Period upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Prospectus. To the extent that the undersigned still holds such Units, the undersigned directs the Trustee to sell the shares included in the Units held in the undersigned's 401(k) Plan account that are being repurchased effective as of the Expiration Date. The undersigned directs the Trustee to credit all proceeds pursuant to the Rescission Offer to the undersigned's 401(k) Plan account for investment or distribution in accordance with the terms of the Prospectus. The undersigned acknowledges that he or she will not be eligible to accept the Rescission Offer if, by accepting the Rescission Offer, the undersigned would receive an amount per Unit that is less than the value per Unit on the Expiration Date.

If the undersigned is a current participant in the 401(k) Plan, the undersigned acknowledges that payments to the undersigned pursuant to the Rescission Offer will be reinvested in accordance with the undersigned's current investment elections for new contributions in the 401(k) Plan. The undersigned further acknowledges that activity in the undersigned's 401(k) Plan account related to the Ryder Stock Fund, other than contributions from salary deferrals and loan repayments, will be temporarily suspended during the blackout period that begins at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on July 6, 2006 and ends on the date that the proceeds of the Rescission Offer are credited to the undersigned's 401(k) Plan account, which we expect to be on or before July 14, 2006. You will be notified in the event that the blackout period is extended past July 14, 2006.

If the undersigned has previously directed and caused a prior distribution of all of his or her investment in the 401(k) Plan and no longer holds an individual account in the 401(k) Plan, proceeds will be invested in the age-appropriate Fidelity Freedom Fund until the undersigned instructs the Trustee to distribute the proceeds to the undersigned, or into an individual retirement account or other qualified retirement account in a direct rollover. The undersigned acknowledges that if payments pursuant to the Rescission Offer are not rolled over into an individual retirement account or a qualified retirement plan, and the undersigned receives a distribution from the 401(k) Plan, such distribution will generally be taxable as ordinary income to the undersigned. The undersigned further acknowledges that an additional ten percent income tax may be imposed on such distribution depending on the undersigned's age.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Under Section 607.0831 of the Florida Business Corporation Act (the "FBCA"), a director is not personally liable for monetary damages to the corporation or any other person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act regarding corporate management or policy unless (1) the director breached or failed to perform his or her duties as a director and (2) the director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties constitutes: (a) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful, (b) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, either directly or indirectly, (c) a circumstance under which the liability provisions of Section 607.0834 are applicable, (d) in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or by or in the right of a shareholder, conscious disregard for the best interest of the corporation, or willful misconduct, or (e) in a proceeding by or in the right of someone other than the corporation or a shareholder, recklessness or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property. A judgment or other final adjudication against a director in any criminal proceeding for a violation of the criminal law estops that director from contesting the fact that his or her breach, or failure to perform, constitutes a violation of the criminal law; but does not estop the director from establishing that he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Under Section 607.0850 of the FBCA, a corporation has power to indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding (other than an action by, or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, has reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

In addition, under Section 607.0850 of the FBCA, a corporation has the power to indemnify any person, who was or is a party to any proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of the board of directors, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made under this subsection in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Under Section 607.0850 of the FBCA, the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided pursuant to Section 607.0850 of the FBCA are not exclusive, and a corporation may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses of any of its directors, officers, employees, or agents, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. However, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any director, officer, employee or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his or her actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (a) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director, officer, employee or agent had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (b) a transaction from which the director, officer, employee or agent derived an improper personal benefit; (c) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the above liability provisions of Section 607.0834 are applicable; or (d) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.

Article VIII of the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation provides that the Company has the power to indemnify its directors, officers, and other employees to the fullest extent permitted by law. Article XII of the Company's By-Laws further provides that the Company shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by current or future legislation or current or future judicial or administrative decisions (to the extent such future legislation or decisions permit the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior to such legislation or decisions), each person who is a party or witness to any proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative) against any liability (including any judgment, settlement, penalty or fine) or cost, charge or expense (including attorneys fees) by reason of the fact that such indemnified person is or was a director, officer or employee of the Company, or is or was an agent as to whom the Company has agreed to grant such indemnification, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or is or was serving as an agent of such corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

The Company maintains a directors and officers liability insurance policy which, within the limits and subject to the limitations of the policy, insures the directors and officers of the Company against certain expenses in connection with the defense of certain claims, actions, suits or proceedings, and certain liabilities which might be imposed as a result of such claims, actions, suits or proceedings, which may be brought against them by reason of their being or having been directors or officers of the Company. The coverage extends to wrongful acts such as breach of duty and negligence, but does not extend to acts proven to be dishonest. The Company pays the premiums for this policy.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a) (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of the securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (ii) and (iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registration relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) That, for purposes of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) That insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
