Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.
Separation Agreement

On May 20, 2008, Time Warner Cable Inc. (TWC) and its subsidiaries, Time Warner Entertainment Company, L.P. (TWE) and TW NY Cable Holding Inc. (TW NY), entered into a Separation Agreement (the Separation Agreement) with Time Warner Inc. (Time Warner) and its subsidiaries, Warner Communications Inc. (WCI), Historic TW Inc. (Historic TW) and American Television and Communications Corporation (ATC), the terms of which will govern TWC 's separation from Time Warner.

The Separation. TWC 's separation from Time Warner will take place through a series of related transactions, the occurrence of each of which is a condition to the next. First, Time Warner will complete certain restructuring transactions. Next, following the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including those described below, Historic TW will transfer (the TW NY Exchange) its 12.4% non-voting common stock interest in TW NY to TWC in exchange for 80 million newly issued shares of TWC 's Class A common stock, par value $.01 per share. In connection with the TW NY Exchange, Time Warner will complete an internal restructuring that will, among other things, make Time Warner the direct owner of all shares of TWC Class A common stock and TWC 's Class B common stock, par value $.01 per share, previously held by WCI and ATC, including the shares issued in the TW NY Exchange (the TW Internal Restructuring). Upon completion of the TW Internal Restructuring, TWC 's board of directors or a committee thereof will declare a special cash dividend to holders of outstanding TWC Class A common stock and TWC Class B common stock, including Time Warner, in an amount equal to $10.27 per share (aggregating approximately $10.9 billion) (the Special Dividend). The Special Dividend will be paid prior to the completion of the separation from Time Warner. Following the payment of the Special Dividend, TWC will file with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware an amended and restated certificate of incorporation (the Amended Charter), pursuant to which, among other things, each outstanding share of TWC Class A common stock (including any shares of TWC Class A common stock issued in the TW NY Exchange) and TWC Class B common stock will automatically be converted into one share of common stock, par value $.01 per share (the TWC Common Stock), of TWC (the Recapitalization). Once the TW NY Exchange, the TW Internal Restructuring, the payment of the Special Dividend and the Recapitalization have been completed, TWC 's separation from Time Warner will proceed in the form of either a pro rata dividend of all shares of TWC Common Stock held by Time Warner to holders of Time Warner 's common stock or through the consummation by Time Warner of an exchange offer of shares of TWC Common Stock for shares of Time Warner 's common stock (the Separation and, together with the TW NY Exchange, the TW Internal Restructuring, the Special Dividend and the Recapitalization, the Transactions). If the Separation is effected as an exchange offer, after consummation of the exchange offer, Time Warner will distribute to its stockholders, as a pro rata dividend, any TWC Common Stock that it continues to hold.

Time Warner has the sole discretion, after consultation with TWC, to determine whether the Separation will be effected as a dividend or through an exchange offer with its stockholders, which decision will be made at a later date.

Pursuant to the Separation Agreement, WCI, in its capacity as a stockholder of TWC, has consented to the adoption of the Amended Charter, the issuance of shares of TWC Class A common stock in connection with the TW NY Exchange and to certain amendments to TWC's 2006 Stock Incentive Plan, each as more fully described in the Separation Agreement. TWC has agreed to prepare, file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and distribute to its stockholders an Information Statement on Schedule 14C under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, with respect to these consents.

Covenants between TWC and Time Warner. The Separation Agreement contains customary covenants, as well as a covenant that requires TWC to use its best efforts to arrange for one or more credit facilities in an aggregate amount of at least $9.0 billion (which amount may be reduced under certain circumstances) on the terms described below under Financing Commitments, to finance, in part, the Special Dividend.

Conditions to the Separation. The Separation Agreement contains customary closing conditions including conditions related to (i) customary regulatory reviews and local franchise approvals, (ii) the receipt by Time Warner of a private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service indicating that each of the Transactions will generally qualify as tax-free for Time Warner and Time Warner's stockholders and (iii) the entry into the credit facilities contemplated by the commitment letters (discussed below under Financing Commitments) with funds being available thereunder.

Termination. The Separation Agreement may be terminated at any time by the mutual consent of the parties to the Separation Agreement. The Separation Agreement may also be terminated by Time Warner or TWC if, prior to the payment of the Special Dividend, there is a material adverse effect (as defined in the Separation Agreement) on TWC or if, after the TW NY Exchange, there is a permanent injunction or other similar governmental order preventing the consummation of the Transactions and such injunction or governmental order is final and not subject to appeal or review. In addition, subject to certain limited exceptions, if the TW NY Exchange does not occur prior to March 31, 2009, the Separation Agreement will automatically terminate.

Ancillary Agreements

In connection with the Separation Agreement, TWC entered into agreements and amendments to existing agreements between Time Warner and/or its affiliates (other than TWC and its subsidiaries), on the one hand, and TWC and/or its subsidiaries, on the other hand, that provide more detail regarding various aspects of the Separation or set forth the terms of commercial arrangements between TWC and Time Warner or its affiliates, including (i) an amendment to the shareholder agreement between TWC and Time Warner that provides that such agreement will terminate upon the consummation of the Separation, (ii) an amendment to the registration rights agreement between TWC and Time Warner to provide Time Warner with the right to require TWC to file any registration statement necessary to consummate the Separation and (iii) a transition services agreement pursuant to which Time Warner will provide TWC with certain agreed-upon accounting, treasury, tax and employee benefits administrative services for specific periods of time. In addition to the agreements and amendments discussed above, TWC entered into a Second Amended and Restated Tax Matters Agreement (the Tax Matters Agreement) with Time Warner and license agreements providing TWC with long-term rights to continue to use the Time Warner Cable, TWC, TW Cable and Road Runner trademarks.

Tax Matters Agreement. Under the Tax Matters Agreement, for any taxable year (or portion thereof) in which TWC and its subsidiaries are included in the Time Warner consolidated group for federal income tax purposes, TWC has agreed to make periodic payments, subject to specified adjustments, to Time Warner based on a pro forma tax return reflecting the applicable federal income tax liability that TWC would have had for each taxable period if TWC had never been included in the Time Warner consolidated group. Similar provisions apply to foreign, state and local taxes.

The Tax Matters Agreement also requires TWC to indemnify Time Warner for any taxes resulting from the failure of any of the Transactions to qualify as tax-free (Transaction Taxes) as a result of (i) certain actions taken, or the failure to take actions, by TWC or (ii) the failure of certain representations to be made by TWC to be true. The Tax Matters Agreement further requires Time Warner to indemnify TWC for all other Transaction Taxes.

Agreements Related to Intellectual Property. In connection with the Separation Agreement, TWC entered into a license agreement (the TWX License Agreement) with Time Warner pursuant to which Time Warner granted TWC and its subsidiaries a royalty-free, exclusive, worldwide, non-transferable license to use the Time Warner Cable, TWC and TW Cable marks and specified related marks in connection with the delivery of residential and commercial video, data, phone, networking and security services. The license also covers related equipment and software, promotional products, other ancillary services and certain naming rights agreements. The license is perpetual, subject to Time Warner's right to terminate under certain circumstances, as more fully described in the TWX License Agreement, including in connection with certain changes of control of TWC as described in the TWX License Agreement.

In connection with the Separation Agreement, TWC entered into a license agreement (the Road Runner License Agreement) with Warner Bros. Consumer Products Inc. (Warner Bros.) pursuant to which Warner Bros. granted TWC and its subsidiaries an exclusive, non-transferable license in the United States and Canada to use the Road Runner mark and copyright and certain related marks in connection with TWC's provision of high-speed data, wireless broadband, related equipment and software and other ancillary services (including non-exclusive rights for promotional products), subject to TWC's payment of an annual license fee. The initial term of the license is for a period of ten years, with the right to renew for additional ten year terms. Warner Bros. has the right to terminate under certain circumstances, as more fully described in the Road Runner License Agreement, including in connection with certain changes of control of TWC as described in the Road Runner License Agreement. The foregoing descriptions do not purport to be complete and provide only a summary of the significant terms of these agreements.

Financing Commitments

To finance, in part, the Special Dividend, TWC and certain financial lending institutions have executed commitment papers with related term sheets for a 364-day senior unsecured bridge term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $9.0 billion (a portion of which may be extended at TWC's option by an additional year) (the Bridge Facility). Amounts outstanding under the Bridge Facility will bear interest, at TWC's option, at a rate equal to LIBOR or an alternate base rate plus, in each case, an applicable margin based on TWC's credit rating. In addition, the interest rate under the Bridge Facility will increase every six months until all amounts outstanding under the Bridge Facility are repaid.

TWC may prepay amounts outstanding under the Bridge Facility at any time without penalty or premium. Subject to certain limited exceptions, TWC is required to use the net cash proceeds from any incurrence of debt (other than an incurrence under its existing revolving credit facility and commercial paper program), certain issuances of equity securities and certain asset sales to prepay amounts outstanding under the Bridge Facility. In addition, to the extent TWC incurs debt, issues equity securities or completes certain asset sales prior to drawing on the Bridge Facility, the commitment of the lenders under the Bridge Facility or the commitment papers, as applicable, will be reduced by an amount equal to the net cash proceeds from any such incurrence, issuance or sale. As contemplated by the commitment letters, the Bridge Facility will contain conditions, covenants, representations and warranties and events of default substantially identical to those contained in TWC's existing Five-Year Term Loan Facility maturing on February 21, 2011. See Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition Financial Condition and Liquidity Outstanding Debt and Mandatorily Redeemable Preferred Equity and Available Financial Capacity in TWC's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007.

TWC has also received a commitment from Time Warner pursuant to which Time Warner will lend TWC up to $3.5 billion in a two-year senior unsecured supplemental term loan facility to repay amounts outstanding under the Bridge Facility upon the final maturity of the Bridge Facility (the Supplemental Facility). The commitments under the Supplemental Facility will be reduced by (i) 50% of the amount in excess of $3.0 billion by which the commitments under the Bridge Facility are reduced by the net cash proceeds of issuances of debt or equity or certain assets sales by TWC between the signing of the Separation Agreement and TWC's borrowing under the Bridge Facility and (ii) the amount by which borrowing availability (as defined in the Supplemental Facility) under TWC's $6.0 billion revolving credit facility exceeds $2.0 billion on the date of borrowing under the Supplemental Facility.
