NOTE 1 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ORGANIZATION

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all the information necessary for a comprehensive presentation of financial position and results of operations.

It is management's opinion, however that all material adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) have been made which are necessary for a fair financial statements presentation. The results for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year.

The September 30, 2000 statement of operations has been reclassified to reflect an offset of related media revenues and media purchases to reflect the proper accounting financial statement presentation under EITF 99-19 and SAB 101. The effect of this reclassification was to decrease gross revenues and cost of revenues by $2,279,802 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000 and $784,165 for the three months ended September 30, 2000.

For further information, refer to the financial statements and footnotes for the year ended December 31, 2000 included in the Company's Form 10-KSB filed April 16, 2001.

NOTE 2 STOCK ISSUANCES

During the nine months ended September 30, 2001 the Company issued 311,633,286 shares of common stock (of which 239,714,286 shares were issued during the three months ended September 30, 2001) with an aggregate fair value of $17,384,040 for current and future services to be performed by consultants with contracts having various terms. The Company has charged $2,326,875 to operations during the nine months ended September 30, 2001 for the expense portion of these contracts and has deferred $15,057,165 at September 30, 2001, which is classified as a contra to equity on the balance sheet.

The deferred amounts will be expensed to operations over the next 21/4 years ending as follows:

For the three months ending December 31, 2001	$ 1,245,241
For the twelve months ending December 31, 2002
$4,980,962
For the twelve months ending December 31, 2003

NOTE 3 NEW SUBSIDIARY

On February 28, 2001, the Company incorporated a wholly owned subsidiary, Blagman USA, Inc., for the purpose of initiating future mergers. The subsidiary has had no activity for the period ended September 30, 2001.

NOTE 4 LONG-TERM DEBT

Long-term debt consists of three promissory notes aggregating $445,000, bearing interest at 6% per annum and due five years from their original dates of March 30 to April 9, 2001.

NOTE 5 CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK SERIES B

During July 2001 the Company issued 100 Series B super convertible preferred shares (the preferred shares). Each Preferred Share shall have a par value of $.001 and a stated value of $10,000 per share. Among the rights attendant to the preferred shares are:

1. The preferred shares have a mandatory conversion right into common shares based upon a formula contained in the certificate of designation. If any Series B preferred shares remain outstanding on June 30, 2003, then such shares shall be converted as of such date.
2. The preferred shares have a liquidation preference, upon the liquidation of Blagman Media or its bankruptcy or certain other events, equal to their face value plus accrued amount equal to 6% from the date of their issuance.

NOTE 6 DEPOSIT ON INVESTMENT

The Company has entered in to a letter of intent to acquire 100 percent of the issued and outstanding stock of Century Media, Inc (Century) for stock and cash. The original agreement was scheduled to close on October 15, 2001. As of this date, the agreement has not been finalized and the companies are renegotiating the agreement. The Company has advanced a $150,000 towards the closing of the agreement, $100,000 of which is non-refundable.

NOTE 7 SUBSEQUENT EVENT

During November 2001, the Company amended the articles of incorporation to increase the aggregate number of common shares which the Company shall have authority to issue to 2,000,000,000 shares.

ITEM 2. Management's Discussion And Analysis Or Plan Of Operations

General

Blagman Media International, Inc. (established in 1994) (the Company) was incorporated on January 29, 1999 as a successor to a sole proprietorship. The Company is a global direct response marketing and advertising agency that produces response-driven infomercials, and provides product placement, media buying, medical marketing, production and syndication of television programming, and other associated transactional media business products.

On August 2, 1999, the Company completed a reverse acquisition with Unisat, Inc., an inactive, public non-reporting company, founded in 1962 and formerly known as Combined Companies, Inc. On the same date, Unisat, Inc. changed its name to Blagman Media International, Inc. The transaction was structured as a share exchange, in which Robert Blagman exchanged all of his shares in Blagman Media International, Inc., a privately-held entity with the same name owned by Robert Blagman for 8,200,000 common shares of Unisat, Inc. In April 2000, the Company entered into a share exchange agreement with MNS Eagle Equity Group I (MNS), an inactive, reporting Nevada corporation, which resulted in the Company becoming the parent entity. After the filing of a Report on Form 8-K, the Company became the successor reporting entity. The corporate relationships are the result of transactions in 1999 and 2000, through which the Company became the reporting, trading, development stage Nevada corporation with shares publicly traded on the NASDAQ Bulletin Board Exchange.

Results Of Operations: Three Months Ended September 30, 2001 Compared To Three Months Ended September 30, 2000

Net revenues (principally from advertising placements, commissions and revenue sharing arrangements) for the three month period ended September 30, 2001 were $396,520 compared to $20,231 for the same period in 2000, an increase of $376,289 (1,860%). The increase was principally the result of the Company's business rebounding from a temporary, substantial decline in business in the prior period when the Company was seeking to replace a principal client, and would have been greater except for the effects on the Company of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. After the events of September 11, 2001, substantially all of the Company's clients requested that their media schedules be suspended and rebooked to a later date in consideration of the tragedy. The increase in revenues was reflected in gross profits, which increased from $20,231 in the third quarter of 2000 to $386,865 in the third quarter of 2001, an increase of $366,634 (1,812%).

Cost of revenues before commissions generally are non-material cost to the Company and principally consist of production costs that are not funded by clients. Media acquisition and airtime costs are not reflected as revenues in the current period and have been restated for the prior periods to eliminate the costs and to record as revenues only the commissions and margins being retained by the Company but before commissions payable to co-agents. The Company intends to report only its internal margins and commissions (before any payments to co-agents) during future periods and to comment with respect to media costs since, as a general matter, the Company incurs media costs in direct proportion to operating revenues. The cost of revenues, net of media costs, increased to $9,655 for the three months ended September 30, 2001 from $0 for the three months ended September 30, 2000.

Total operating expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2001 were $1,948,885, an increase of $1,077,457 (124%) over the $871,428 for the three months ended September 30, 2000. A substantial portion of this increase was professional and consulting fees, which were $1,312,327 for the three months ended September 30, 2001 compared to $547,632 for the three months ended September 30, 2000, an increase of $764,695 (140%). During the three months ended September 30, 2001, the Company issued 239,714,286 common shares with an aggregate fair value of $6,647,766 for current and future services to various consultants. Under GAAP, the Company is required to record the current portion of these amounts as a compensation expense based on the market price of the Company's common shares on the date of issuance, even though no cash payments were made. The Company has charged $1,205,976 to operations during the three months ended September 30, 2001 for the expense portion of these contracts and has deferred $5,442,790 at September 30, 2001, which is classified as a contra to equity on the balance sheet. The deferred amounts will be expensed to operations over approximately the next two years.

Another significant element of the increase in operating expenses was other general and administrative expenses, which were $247,422 for the three months ended September 30, 2001 compared to $59,020 for the three months ended September 30, 2000 or an increase of $187,790 (315%). This increase was due primarily to the legal, accounting and other costs incurred when the Company was pursuing acquisition and merger transactions and financings during 2001 to a greater extent than in 2000.

The increase in operating costs also resulted from an increase in officers' compensation. Such compensation totaled $179,166 for the three months ended September 30, 2001, compared to $109,920 for the three months ended September 30, 2000, an increase of $69,246 (63%). This increase was due primarily to accounting for stock issuances to management of the Company.

Other income increased to $37,639 for the three months ended September 30, 2001 compared to $213 for the three months ended September 30, 2000, due primarily to interest income from funds obtained in the third quarter of 2001 from the sale of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock.

Results Of Operations: Nine Months Ended September 30, 2001 Compared To Nine Months Ended September 30, 2000

Net revenues for the nine month period ended September 30, 2001 were $589,114 compared to $260,171 for the same period in 2000, an increase of $328,943 (126%). The increase was principally the result of the rebound of the Company's business from a temporary, substantial decline in the prior period when the Company was seeking to replace a principal client, and would have been greater except for the effects on the Company of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. The increase in revenues was reflected in gross profits, which increased from $263,235 for the first nine months of 2000 to $574,908 for the first nine months of 2001, an increase of $311,673 (118%).

The cost of revenues, net of media costs, increased to $14,206 for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 from ($3,064) for the nine months ended September 30, 2000.

Total operating expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 were $4,369,006, an increase of $1,249,111 (40%) over the $3,119,895 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000. A substantial portion of this increase was professional and consulting fees, which were $2,889,718 for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 compared to $1,578,717 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000, an increase of $1,311,001 (83%). Another significant element of the increase in operating expenses was other general and administrative expenses, which were $358,599 for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 compared to $161,126 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000 or an increase of $197,473 (123%). This increase was due primarily to the legal, accounting and other costs incurred when the Company was pursuing acquisition and merger transactions and financings during 2001 to a greater extent than in 2000.

Officers' compensation decreased to $537,500 for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 from $696,420 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000, a decrease of $158,920 (23%). This increase was due primarily to the elimination of an officer. Travel and entertainment for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 was $59,917 compared to $156,462 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000, a decrease of $96,545 (62%). Advertising for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 was $101,380 compared to $148,538 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000, a decrease of $47,158 (32%). The decrease in both travel and entertainment and advertising are due primarily to the Company's efforts during 2001 to reduce cash operating expenses.

Other income (expense) increased to $19,605 for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 compared to ($182,256) for the nine months ended September 30, 2000, due primarily to a one-time subsidiary acquisition cost of $179,220 in 2000.

Liquidity And Capital Resources

As of September 30, 2001 and December 31, 2000, the Company's available cash was $554,406 and $179,744, respectively, an increase of $374,662. Current assets increased by $530,493, from $326,938 on December 31, 2000 to $857,431 on September 30, 2001. Such increases were due primarily to the sale of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and the proceeds from $445,000 in loans during the first nine months of 2001.

Total current liabilities increased from $810,121 on December 31, 2000 to $1,042,959, and long-term liabilities increased from $0 on December 31, 2000 to $445,500.

Net cash used in operating activities was $866,568 in the nine months ended September 30, 2001, compared to $1,017,867 in the nine months ended September 30, 2000. The decrease primarily reflected the Company's efforts to reduce cash expenses during 2001.

Cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 was $147,799 compared to $151,776 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000. Substantially all of the cash used in investing activities during the nine months ended September 30, 2001 was a $150,000 deposit on an investment in connection with the proposed acquisition of Century Media Inc.

Net cash provided by financing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2001 of $1,389,029 was comprised of proceeds from the private sale of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and from the proceeds of notes payable. Net cash provided by financing activities in the nine months ended September 30, 2000 of $1,197,453 was comprised from the proceeds of a stock issuance.

During the first nine months of 2001, the Company has focused on resolving various equity issues, the underlying preferred stock offering, acquiring debt financing, deciding whether to pursue acquisitions and mergers and on acquiring and servicing new business accounts.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2001, the Company issued 311,633,286 common shares with an aggregate fair value of $17,384,040 as con-cash compensation, of which $2,326,875 was charged to operations during the first nine months of 2001 and the balance has been deferred based on the service terms under the contracts. These transactions and the private sale of stock for cash resulted in 334,036,736 common shares and 100 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock outstanding at September 30, 2001 and a total shareholders deficit of $414,064 at September 30, 2001 compared to a deficit of $406,990 at December 31, 2000.

Management is currently pursuing various initiatives to expand the Company's operations internally and through strategic alliances with other industry partners. These endeavors may require additional capital funding which the Company expects to fund, as necessary, from the credit facilities and preferred stock issuances and other financings. The Company intends to focus on operations and new business and clients and these funding sources to meet its operating requirements, to retire the accumulated accounts payable from the acquisition and mergers that are not being pursued at this time and to provide further capital for expansion, acquisitions or strategic alliances with businesses that are complementary to the Company's long term business objectives. While the Company believes that additional capital will be needed to maintain the growth plans of the Company, management believes that the working capital now available to it, its increased client base and funds generated from operations and from the Company's equity line of credit agreement will be sufficient to meet capital requirements for the next 12 months even if other substantial additional working capital does not become available. The Company estimates that $1,000,000 from the equity line of credit agreement during the next 12 months will be sufficient for it to meet its capital requirements for such period, when combined with anticipated operating revenues. The Company has sought and will continue to pay expenses with stock rather than cash where possible to reduce capital requirement. At September 30, 2001, $670,314 (64%) of the $1,042,959 in total current liabilities was accrued compensation, most of which the Company believes can be paid in stock. In the long term, the Company must expand its operations to generate sufficient working capital to meet its ongoing capital requirements. Acquisitions to further the Company's growth plans probably will require either the issuance of significant equity in the Company or obtaining additional capital through loans or the sale of stock. The Company may not be able to complete acquisitions for stock and may not be able to obtain sufficient cash for such acquisitions, in which event the Company's growth plans will not be able to be achieved and the Company will be forced to rely on internal growth.

New Accounting Pronouncements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has adopted several notices with regard to the treatment of interim financial statements. These issues are presented in the Company's interim financial statements. As discussed in the notes to the interim financial statements, the implementation of these new pronouncements is not expected to have a material effect on the financial statements.

ITEM 2. CHANGES IN SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

In July 2001, the Company issued 100 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock valued at $10,000 per share to a group of investors in connection with a private placement of $1,000,000 to the Company. The Company believes that the offering was exempt from registration under the Securities Act by reason of Section 4(2) thereof and/or Regulation D under the Securities Act as a non-public sale of securities due to the absence of a general solicitation, the general nature and circumstances of the sale, including the qualifications of the purchasers, and the restrictions on resales of the securities acquired.

In July 2001, the Company issued an aggregate of 7,714,286 shares of common stock to 4 individuals who aided in the process of locating and finalizing a $15 million equity line of credit for the Company. The Company believes that the offering was exempt from registration under the Securities Act by reason of Section 4(2) thereof and/or Regulation D under the Securities Act as a non-public sale of securities due to the absence of a general solicitation, the general nature and circumstances of the sale, including the qualifications of the purchasers, and the restrictions on resales of the securities acquired.

In August 2001 the Company issued 25,000,000 shares of common stock to an individual who has worked with the Company for 6 years as a consultant, 100,000,000 shares of common stock to the CEO for monies owed and back pay due, 175,000 shares to an attorney for legal assistance, and a total of 145,000,000 shares to consultants for services to be rendered over the next five years. The reason the amount of stock increased to these levels was due to the actual share price for July and August. The Company believes that the offering was exempt from registration under the Securities Act by reason of Section 4(2) thereof and/or Regulation D under the Securities Act as a non-public sale of securities due to the absence of a general solicitation, the general nature and circumstances of the sale, including the qualifications of the purchasers, and the restrictions on resales of the securities acquired.
