Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 27, 2006, Graham Corporation (the Company) entered into an Employment Agreement with James R. Lines, the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer. The agreement, which has an effective date of August 1, 2006, provides that Mr. Lines will receive a minimum base salary of $220,000 as well as other customary benefits. Mr. Lines is also eligible under the agreement to receive discretionary bonuses. The agreement automatically renews such that it always has a one-year term remaining, unless Mr. Lines or the Company elects not to extend the term further, in which case the term will end on the first anniversary of the date on which notice of such election not to extend is given. If not terminated sooner, the agreement will end on the last day of the month in which Mr. Lines turns 65. The Employment Agreement also provides that upon the occurrence of certain events within three years after a change in control of the Company, Mr. Lines would be entitled to certain payments, including among other things, a payment equal to one dollar less than three times his average tax-includable compensation (including bonus) for the five most recent taxable years ending before the date of such change in control. In addition, in such an event all unvested stock options held by Mr. Lines would accelerate. The Employment Agreement supercedes all prior employment agreements between the parties. A copy of the Employment Agreement is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.

On July 27, 2006, the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors approved the grant of 3,000 stock options to Mr. Lines under the 2000 Graham Corporation Incentive Plan to Increase Shareholder Value. Such stock options have an exercise price of $17.10 (that being the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the American Stock Exchange on the date of grant), vest 25% per year over four years and expire ten years from the date of grant.
