Item 8.01. Other Events.

CIGNA Corporation (together with its consolidated subsidiaries, the “Company”) has a high quality, well-diversified investment portfolio, including investments in the financial services industry. At June 30, 2008, the Company reported total invested assets of approximately $18.3 billion and shareholders’ equity of $4.8 billion. As of September 19, 2008, the book (amortized cost) value of the Company’s investment in debt securities of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and its affiliates (“Lehman”) and American International Group, Inc. and its affiliates (“AIG”) was approximately $10 million and $30 million, respectively. None of the AIG debt securities the Company currently holds is debt of the parent holding company, American International Group, Inc. The Company is continuing to assess the recoverability of these investments.

The Company’s invested assets as of September 19, 2008, do not include any common stock or preferred stock investments in AIG or Lehman and the Company is not engaged in any derivative transactions with AIG or Lehman as counterparties. In addition, the Company’s invested assets as of September 19, 2008 do not include any common stock investments in the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (“Freddie Mac”) and the Federal National Mortgage Association (“Fannie Mae”) and include a total of approximately $13 million of preferred stock investments in Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac.

The Company has various insurance and reinsurance arrangements in place with regulated insurance affiliates of AIG with recoverable amounts estimated to be $20 million based on the most recently available information. The Company does not have any reinsurance arrangements in place with Lehman.
