Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 11, 2008, Antares Pharma, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into Indemnification Agreements (each, an "Indemnification Agreement") with each of its current directors and executive officers. The Indemnification Agreements replace existing indemnification agreements and reflect an updated form approved by the Company's Board of Directors to conform the same to prevailing practices in consultation with legal counsel. The Company may also enter into Indemnification Agreements from time to time based on this updated form of Indemnification Agreement with each future director of the Company and future executive officer of the Company and the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries and certain other officers of the Company and its subsidiaries (together with the current directors and executive officers, each an "Indemnitee").

Each Indemnification Agreement generally provides that, subject to certain conditions, limitations and exceptions, (i) the Company will indemnify and hold harmless an Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware from expenses and liabilities incurred by such Indemnitee in connection with third party and derivative legal actions brought against such Indemnitee as a result of his or her service to the Company, (ii) the Company is required to advance all covered expenses incurred by an Indemnitee in a proceeding covered by the Indemnification Agreement, and (iii) the Company will provide contribution of liabilities in certain circumstances where indemnification is not available but the Indemnitee would otherwise be entitled to indemnification. This summary of the terms of the Indemnification Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of Indemnification Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
