ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

As previously reported, on December 15, 2003, FASTNET Corporation and its debtor subsidiaries (the "Companies") completed the sale of substantially all of their assets, including their Broadband and Dial Up Internet Access, Co-location, and Managed Hosting business units, to US LEC Corp. for an estimated $8.5 million, plus the assumption of certain liabilities. The $8.5 million consisted of $6.0 million in cash, $1.5 million in a promissory note and $1.0 million in Class A Common Stock of US LEC Corp. This sale was completed pursuant to the provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code, and the sale procedures established by the Bankruptcy Court, including an auction process. An order approving such sale was issued by of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, Case No. 03-23143, on December 4, 2003. This transaction did not include assets associated with the Companies' Web Development business, upstate New York wireless business, certain wireline operations in upstate New York, certain non-operating fixed assets and receivables from former customers. As a result of this sale, Fastnet Corporation, Inc. changed its name to FN Estate, Inc.

On January 15, 2004, the Companies completed the sale of substantially all of their assets associated with their Web Development business to a group of noteholders of NetReach, Inc., a subsidiary of FASTNET Corporation, in exchange for the surrender and transfer to FASTNET Corporation of promissory notes of NetReach, Inc. in the aggregate principal amount of $760,000 and in consideration of the assumption of certain liabilities. This sale was completed pursuant to the provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

The Companies hope to sell their remaining assets in the next 60 days. Following the sale of such assets, the Companies anticipate filing a plan of liquidation with the Bankruptcy Court and winding up their affairs. It is not anticipated that there will be any funds available for distribution to shareholders of FASTNET Corporation.

This report contains comments or information that constitute "forward-looking" statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements inherently involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements in this report include, among others, statements relating to the timing of the remaining asset sales and liquidation of the Companies, as well as the anticipated results thereof. The risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the uncertainties related to the bankruptcy proceedings and whether the Companies will be successful in completing the remaining asset sales, followed by a plan of liquidation, possible objections to such transactions or plan of liquidation from parties in interest in the Companies' Chapter 11 proceedings, any loss of customer or vendor support relating to their remaining operations during the Chapter 11 proceedings, competition, and economic and other factors set forth in FASTNET Corporation's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, as amended, and Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2003.

The forward-looking statements included in this report are based on information available to FASTNET Corporation as of the date of this report, and FASTNET Corporation assumes no obligation to update any of these statements.
