IDEA SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

The following notes to the condensed consolidated financial statements and management's discussion and analysis or plan of operation contain "forward-looking" statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such forward-looking statements may include projections or expectations of future financial or economic performance of the Company, and statements of the Company's plans and objectives for future operations. Words such as "expects", "anticipates", "approximates", "believes", "estimates", "hopes", "intends", and "plans", and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. No assurance can be given that actual results or events will not differ materially from those projected, estimated, assumed or anticipated in any such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could result in such differences, in addition to other factors noted with such forward-looking statements, include those discussed in Exhibit 99.1 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for fiscal year 2002.

Edgar Filing: Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc. - Form 10QSB

NOTE 1--BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc. ("Idea Sports") (formerly Team Sports Entertainment, Inc.) and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Idea Management Group, Inc. ("IMGI"), World Championship Poker, Inc. ("Poker"), Strategic Gaming Consultants, LLC ("Gaming") and Maxx Motorsports, Inc. ("Maxx"), and its wholly owned subsidiary, Team Racing Auto Circuit, LLC ("TRAC") (collectively, the "Company"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. IMGI, Poker and Gaming represent the continuing operations of the Company and the current development stage operations.

Idea Sports acquired IMGI on September 9, 2004 and Gaming on October 27, 2004, both of which are non-operating development stage enterprises within the meaning of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 7, ("SFAS No. 7") "Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises." The Company follows the AICPA SOP 98-5, "Reporting on the Costs of Start-Up Activities" in accounting for its start-up activities. Accordingly, the costs associated with the new development stage activities have a new inception date of September 9, 2004, and all prior development stage costs associated with the discontinued automotive racing league have been transferred to accumulated deficit.

Idea Sports is a company devoted to the creation, development and acquisition of innovative motion pictures and television programming in the sports and family genre. These unique and commercial entertainment properties are designed to appeal to the sports enthusiast and are to be distributed domestically and internationally through both strategic partnerships with film and distribution companies, as well as, growing Internet distribution channels.

As discussed in note 3, Poker was acquired at the end of June 2005 and its principal asset is Vegas Roll'em(TM) Fantasy Football ("Vegas Roll'em"), an internet based proprietary fantasy football format.

On November 8, 2004, the Company changed its name to Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc.

Maxx, through TRAC, planned to own, operate and sanction an automotive racing league designed to provide content for television and tracks while expanding the existing base of racing fans. Accordingly, the operations of the Company were presented as those of a development stage enterprise, from its inception (May 15, 2001), as prescribed by SFAS No. 7. On August 26, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a plan to immediately discontinue its racing operation. Accordingly, all prior operations from this business activity are classified as discontinued operations in the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements.

Edgar Filing: Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc. - Form 10QSB

The condensed consolidated financial statements included in this report have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim reporting and include all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation. These condensed consolidated financial statements have not been audited.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations for interim reporting. The Company believes that the disclosures contained herein are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. However, these condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2004, which is included in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2004. The financial data for the interim periods presented may not necessarily reflect the results to be anticipated for the complete year.

Certain reclassifications of the amounts presented for the comparative period have been made to conform to the current presentation.

NOTE 2--GOING CONCERN

The Company has not established sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business, projected operating expenses and commitments for fiscal year 2005. The Company, which was in the development stage for its planned racing operation since its inception, May 15, 2001, has accumulated a net loss of $15,054,021 through December 31, 2003. The Company has ceased its plans to begin a racing league and all operations have been discontinued. This discontinued operation had a loss of $671,289 during the year ended December 31, 2004.

Since August 26, 2003, the Company attempted to locate and negotiate with a business entity for the merger of that target business into the Company. As discussed below, the Company has acquired new development stage businesses commencing on September 9, 2004. Since September 9, 2004, the Company incurred losses in the amount of $344,616 through December 31, 2004 and a total of $897,977 through June 30, 2005. A group of the note holders have agreed to advance funds on a limited basis to allow the Company to develop a business capable of generating revenues sufficient to fund projected operating expenses and commitments. However, there can be no assurance that the group of note holders will be able to continue to provide sufficient funding to develop the Company's current business plan.

In addition, current liabilities of the Company exceed its assets by approximately $3,612,000, and its convertible promissory notes payable obligations are in default. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The condensed consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that may result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

NOTE 3--ACQUISITIONS AND JOINT VENTURE

On April 19, 2005, the Company entered into a joint development agreement with

Edgar Filing: Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc. - Form 10QSB

InnoZen, Inc. ("InnoZen") to jointly develop a film strip product containing electrolytes to replenish the body while under physical stress (the "P3 strip"). InnoZen has experience in the formulation, development, manufacturing and sale of edible thin strips containing drug active ingredients. The Company has the ability to locate athletes for testing the efficacy of the P3 strips in athletes and to assist in obtaining endorsements for the P3 strips by well-known athletes and coaches. The Company contributed $115,500 in cash and 250,000 shares of its common stock, valued at $19,191 using the Black-Scholes valuation model, for its 50% interest in the joint venture. The Company is required to issue an additional 250,000 shares of its common stock upon completion of the development of a saleable product.

As of June 30, 2005, the joint venture had completed a product formulation of an acceptable thin film prototype containing electrolytes and had completed laboratory stability testing for the oral dosage product.

As of August 2, 2005, the joint venture has produced initial P3 strips capable of holding a deliverable load of electrolytes equal to approximately one fluid ounce of most recognized sports drinks. The P3 strips have been produced for flavor testing with initial flavors to be lemon-lime, orange and sour orange.

Management of the Company currently anticipates that P3 strips will be available during the fourth quarter of 2005.

On June 28, 2005, the Company issued 3,850,000 shares of its common stock, which were valued at $295,544 using the Black-Scholes valuation model, to acquire Poker, whose principal asset is the rights to a proprietary fantasy football format, with the working title, Vegas Roll'em(TM) Fantasy Football ("Vegas Roll'em"). In January 2005, the Rules of Competition for Vegas Roll'em received a copyright from the United States Copyright Office. This format allows live filming of the high stakes action as it unfolds. Each player will have a roll of the dice to determine which of his players will make up his team. This will add a unique twist to the game.

According to the Fantasy Sports Trade Association, fantasy football was played by nearly fifteen million participants last year. This internet-based phenomenon has created a four billion dollar industry.

On July 21, 2005, the Company retained the services of veteran poker and fantasy sports executive, Tom Elias, to manage its Las Vegas-based Vegas Roll'em. Mr. Elias has over seventeen years experience producing fantasy sports and poker tournaments.

NOTE 4--DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

The Company, which was in the development stage for its planned racing operations since its inception, May 15, 2001, did not establish sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business and pay operating expenses, resulting in a net loss of $15,054,021 from inception through December 31, 2003. Accordingly, on August 26, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a plan to immediately discontinue its racing operation.

The Company realized a loss from its discontinued operations of $671,289 in 2004. The loss is primarily the interest expense and selling, general and administrative costs associated with attempting to implement the business plan.

In March 2005, the Company and all other parties to the litigation, described in note 9, agreed to dismiss with prejudice all claims and counterclaims. As a result, the Company was relieved of previously recorded liabilities in the amount of $281,181. The Company recorded $210,939 in additional legal fees, which resulted in a net gain from discontinued operations of $70,242.

NOTE 5--STOCK OPTIONS AND WARRANTS

The Company applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25 (APB No. 25), "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations, in accounting for its stock option plan. As such, compensation expense would be recorded on the date of grant only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price.

SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation" (SFAS No. 123), requires the Company to disclose pro forma information regarding option grants made to its employees. SFAS No. 123 specifies certain valuation techniques that produce estimated compensation charges that would be included in pro forma results. These amounts would not be reflected in the Company's consolidated statement of operations, because APB No. 25 specifies that no compensation charge arises when the price of the employees' stock options equal the market value of the underlying stock at the grant date, as in the case of previous options granted to the Company employees, board of directors, advisory committee members, and consultants.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS 123 (revised 2004), "Share-Based Payment" (SFAS 123(R)). Among other things, SFAS 123(R) requires expensing the fair value of stock options, previously optional accounting. For transition, upon adoption on January 1, 2006, SFAS 123(R) would require expensing any unvested options and will also require the Company to change the classification of certain tax benefits from option deductions to financing rather than operating cash flows. As of June 30, 2005, the Company did not have any unvested options which would require adjustment upon adoption of SFAS 123(R). Adoption should have the same impact as the pro forma disclosure required by SFAS No 123.

SFAS No. 123 pro forma numbers are the same for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, and for the period from inception (September 9, 2004) through June 30, 2005 as the historical net loss reported. Accordingly, no proforma disclosure is required.

The Black-Scholes option valuation model was developed for use in estimating the fair value of traded options that have no vesting restrictions and are fully transferable. In addition, option valuation models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. Because the Company employee stock options have characteristics significantly different from those of traded options, and because changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate, it is management's opinion that the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company options.

At June 30, 2005, there were options and warrants outstanding which would allow the holders to acquire 2,250,000 shares of the Company's common stock at $1.00 per share. The options generally expire in 2006.

At June 30, 2005, there were warrants outstanding which would allow the holder to acquire 17,500,000 shares of the Company's common stock at $.10 pr share, which expire in 2007. In the event the revenues of certain associated operations of the Company achieve certain revenue goals before the warrants expire, the holders are entitled to double the number of their existing warrants.

NOTE 6--NOTES PAYABLE

a) The Company has funded operations since September 2002, with convertible notes. Since March 1, 2004, all of these notes have been in default. All were convertible into the Company's common stock at the rate of $.20 per share and all bear interest at the default rate of 12%, since the event of default. In March 2005, the Company reduced the exchange rate from $.20 per share to $.10 per share. The following summarizes the activity of the convertible notes during fiscal 2005:

	Convertible Notes (1) -----	Accrued Interest -----
Balance, January 1, 2005	$ 3,271,675	$ 355,7
New loan proceeds/interest accrued	441,499	192,5
Issued 36,066,570 shares of common stock for payment of convertible notes and accrued interest	(472,301)	(97,2
	-----	-----
Convertible notes balance, June 30, 2005	3,240,873	451,1
Other note	7,500	2
Total	$ 3,248,373	$ 451,3

(1) Includes one note in the principal amount of $37,500 which is convertible into the Company's common stock at the rate of $.04 per share.

b) In March 2005, the Company issued a note payable in the amount of $7,500 which is due on demand and is accruing interest at 8%.

NOTE 7--COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

On August 26, 2003, when the Company discontinued its racing operations, the Company was a party to the following agreements:

- o Racing Car Design and Construction Agreement
- o Team Sales Brokerage Agreement
- o Broadcasting Agreement
- o Office Lease

Management of the Company does not believe the Company has any remaining liability under these agreements. Additional detail regarding these agreements can be found in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003.

12

NOTE 8--RELATED PARTIES

Edgar Filing: Idea Sports Entertainment Group, Inc. - Form 10QSB

The Company has had transaction with and received loans from certain individuals considered to be related parties. The amount due to these parties is as follows:

	Convertible Notes -----	Accrued Interest -----
Charles W. Clark, Interim CEO	$249,377	$ 24,904
William C. Morris, Former CEO and Director(1)	646,276	116,264
	-----	-----
Total	$895,653	$141,168

(1) Includes company controlled by Mr. Morris.

Included in accounts payable is $1,500 for rent owed to Godley Morris Group LLC, which is controlled by Mr. Morris and $8,868 owed to Mr. Morris for travel expense reimbursements.

Godley Morris Group LLC, also received $9,000 for rent during the six months ended June 30, 2005.

NOTE 9--LEGAL

On February 18, 2004, four Georgia shareholders filed suit in the Superior Court of Fulton County against the Company's former CEO, William G. Miller of Alpharetta, Georgia. Also named in the action was Jon Pritchett, who was president of the Company while Miller was CEO. The suit alleges breach of contract, wrongful conversion of company monies, mismanagement, breach of fiduciary duty and fraud on the part of the defendants while serving the Company in 2001 and 2002. The suit contends Idea Sport's shareholders suffered market losses in excess of $50 million.

On May 3, 2004, Miller, Pritchett and three other individuals filed several derivative and individual claims against the Company, its Directors and certain of its shareholders in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware in and for New Castle County, C.A. No. 413-N. The Company filed a counterclaim against Miller and Pritchett on November 24, 2004.

On March 15, 2005, all parties to both of the matters described above agreed to dismiss with prejudice all claims and counterclaims. The final settlement is subject to court approval, which management expects to be granted.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

The Company, which was in the development stage for its planned racing operation since its inception, May 15, 2001, did not establish sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business and pay operating expenses, resulting in a net loss of $15,054,021 from inception through December 31, 2003. On August 26, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a plan to immediately discontinue its racing operation. Since August 26, 2003 and until September 9, 2004, the Company has been attempting to find a suitable acquisition candidate. On September 9, 2004, with the acquisition of IMGI, the

Company ceased one development stage and commenced a new development stage operation.

IMGI, a development stage company with no prior operations, is a company devoted to the creation, development and acquisition of innovative motion pictures and television programming in the sports and family genre. These unique and commercial entertainment properties are designed to appeal to the sports enthusiast and are to be distributed domestically and internationally through both strategic partnerships with film and distribution companies, as well as, growing Internet distribution channels.

On April 19, 2005, the Company entered into a joint development agreement with InnoZen, Inc. ("InnoZen") to jointly develop a film strip product containing electrolytes to replenish the body while under physical stress (the "P3 strip"). InnoZen has experience in the formulation, development, manufacturing and sale of edible thin strips containing drug active ingredients. The Company has the ability to locate athletes for testing the efficacy of the P3 strips in athletes and to assist in obtaining endorsements for the P3 strips by well-known athletes and coaches. The Company contributed $115,500 in cash and 250,000 shares of its common stock, valued at $19,191 using the Black-Scholes valuation model, for its 50% interest in the joint venture. The Company is required to issue an additional 250,000 shares of its common stock upon completion of the development of a saleable product.

On June 28, 2005, the Company issued 3,850,000 shares of its common stock, which were valued at $295,544 using the Black-Scholes valuation model, to acquire Poker, whose principal asset is the rights to a proprietary fantasy football format, with the working title, Vegas Roll'em(TM) Fantasy Football ("Vegas Roll'em"). In January 2005, the Rules of Competition for Vegas Roll'em received a copyright from the United States Copyright Office. This format allows live filming of the high stakes action as it unfolds. Each player will have a roll of the dice to determine which of his players will make up his team. This will add a unique twist to the game.

GOING CONCERN FACTORS--LIQUIDITY

The Company has not established sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business, projected operating expenses and commitments for fiscal year 2005. The Company, which was in the development stage for its planned racing operation since its inception, May 15, 2001, has accumulated a net loss of $15,054,021 through December 31, 2003. The Company has ceased its plans to begin a racing league and all operations have been discontinued. This discontinued operation had a loss of $671,289 during the year ended December 31, 2004.

Since August 26, 2003, the Company attempted to locate and negotiate with a business entity for the merger of that target business into the Company. As discussed below, the Company has acquired new development stage businesses commencing on September 9, 2004. Since September 9, 2004, the Company incurred losses in the amount of $344,616 through December 31, 2004 and a total of $897,977 through June 30, 2005. A group of the note holders have agreed to advance funds on a limited basis to allow the Company to develop a business capable of generating revenues sufficient to fund projected operating expenses and commitments. However, there can be no assurance that the group of note holders will be able to continue to provide sufficient funding to develop the Company's current business plan.

In addition, current liabilities of the Company exceed its assets by approximately $3,612,000, and its convertible promissory notes payable obligations are in default. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that may result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

The Company, which was in the development stage for its planned racing operation since its inception, May 15, 2001, did not establish sources of revenue sufficient to fund the development of business and pay operating expenses, resulting in a net loss of $15,054,021 from inception through December 31, 2003. As a result of the continuing losses, on August 26, 2003, the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously approved a plan to immediately discontinue its racing operation. This discontinued operation had a loss of $671,289 during the year ended December 31, 2004. While the Company does not expect any additional liability, the following agreements were in place when the Company discontinued its racing operation:

- o Racing Car Design and Construction Agreement
- o Team Sales Brokerage Agreement
- o Broadcasting Agreement
- o Office Lease

Management of the Company does not believe the Company has any remaining liability under these agreements. Additional detail regarding these agreements can be found in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2004 and 2003.

The Company recognized income of none and $70,242 during the three and six months ended June 30, 2005, respectively, and a loss of $118,542 and $330,290 during the three and six months ended June 30, 2004, respectively, from its discontinued operations. The income in 2005 was a result of the Company being relieved of certain previously recorded liabilities when all parties agreed to dismiss with prejudice all claims and counterclaims in the litigation discussed in note 9.

CURRENT OPERATIONS

The Company is a concept development company that internally creates projects in the fields of professional sports, motor sports, motion pictures, animated films, publishing, television, radio, licensed merchandise, direct-to-retail videos and international entertainment for distribution into the global marketplace.

Through various exclusive partnerships and wholly-owned subsidiaries, the Company develops unique content through its internal creative team and then partners with individuals and corporations already established in the respective field or industry for which the project was created which increases the viability that the project will be successful and profitable. The Company's business model involves negotiating a revenue share agreement with its individual and corporate partners to minimize the up front development costs associated with each project that has been created which minimizes the risk associated with developing a profitable business unit for the Company.

IMGI commenced operations on September 9, 2004, and has not generated any revenue to date.

On September 9, 2004, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding common stock of IMGI; on October 15, 2004, the Company acquired two television programs entitled "America's Top Drivers" and "Women's Racing League"; and on October 27, 2004, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding memberships of Gaming. IMG I has been involved in the subsequent acquisitions discussed below, the development of the two television programs is in process and Gaming is still inactive.

As of June 30, 2005, the joint venture with InnoZen had completed a product formulation of an acceptable thin film prototype containing electrolytes and had completed laboratory stability testing for the oral dosage product.

As of August 2, 2005, the joint venture has produced initial P3 strips capable of holding a deliverable load of electrolytes equal to approximately one fluid ounce of most recognized sports drinks. The P3 strips have been produced for flavor testing with initial flavors to be lemon-lime, orange and sour orange.

Management of the Company currently anticipates that P3 strips will be available during the fourth quarter of 2005.

On June 28, 2005, the Company issued 3,850,000 shares of its common stock, which were valued at $295,544 using the Black-Scholes valuation model, to acquire Poker, whose principal asset is the rights to a proprietary fantasy football format, Vegas Roll'em. In January 2005, the Rules of Competition for Vegas Roll'em received a copyright from the United States Copyright Office. This format allows live filming of the high stakes action as it unfolds.
