Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 17, 2013, we received a demand letter from two of our stockholders, Special Situations Fund III QP, L.P. and Special Situations Private Equity Fund, L.P. (along with Special Situations Fund III QP, L.P. (“Special Situations”). The letter alleges that we failed to maintain a current registration statement for the sale of stock purchased by Special Situations pursuant to purchase agreements entered into with us in 2007 and 2008, and seeks prompt payment of $719,000 as liquidated damages and an amendment to the terms of certain warrants purchased in 2008. A registration statement covering the shares in question is currently effective.

If Special Situations commenced litigation and we were required to pay cash liquidated damages, the amount of liquidated damages as claimed by Special Situations would likely have a material adverse effect on our cash position and operations. While we dispute the claims, we believe it is in the best interests of all stockholders to reach a non-cash settlement, if possible, in order to preserve our cash for operations and growing our business while avoiding the expense of litigation. We intend to negotiate with Special Situations to reach a mutually acceptable outcome, and we believe we already have an agreement in principal for a non-cash settlement of these claims. The specific details of this non-cash settlement are in the process of being finalized and are subject to approval by our Board of Directors.

This report contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements that express our intentions, beliefs, expectations, strategies, predictions or any other statements related to our future activities or future events or conditions. These statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about our business based, in part, on assumptions made by our management. These statements are not guarantees of future performances and involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in the forward-looking statements due to numerous factors, including those risks discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and in other documents that we file from time to time with the SEC. Any forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and we do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this report, except as required by law.
