ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS AND REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

On March 9, 2004 (the Closing Date ), two of Citizens, Inc. s insurance subsidiaries, Citizens Insurance Company of America and Combined Underwriters Life Insurance Company (the Insurance Companies ), entered into various agreements with Texas International Life Insurance Company ( Texas International ) in connection with the divestiture of nearly all of the Company s Accident and Health insurance policies ( A&H Policies ).

Under the agreements, the divestiture is being accomplished through a 100% coinsurance arrangement until the various insurance regulatory agencies approve an assumption reinsurance agreement. Upon receiving, regulatory approval, Texas International will assume the A&H Policies and succeed the Insurance Companies as the insurer under the policies. In connection with the transaction, the Insurance Companies paid Texas International a settlement fee of $112,500 which will be adjusted during 2004 for any policies or claims improperly or inadvertently omitted or miscalculated in determining the initial settlement amount. Texas International is also entitled to all premiums on the A&H Policies from the Closing Date.

During a transition period not to exceed 120 days, the Insurance Companies will continue to service the A&H policies, although Texas International will be responsible for reimbursing the Insurance Companies for all liabilities with respect to the A&H Policies. Texas International has agreed to pay a fee to the Insurance Companies for their services.

The parties have also agreed to a profit-sharing formula whereby the Insurance Companies may share in profits, if any, on the A&H Policies on a declining balance over a 10 year period. Prior to the regulatory approval and assumption of the A&H Policies by Texas International, the Insurance Companies will remain secondarily liable on the policies if Texas International fails to pay valid claims, and the Insurance Companies may remain secondarily liable after assumption by Texas International depending on state insurance laws in the state in which the policy was sold.

For further information, please see the agreements attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibits 10.8 and 10.9.
