Form 425
August 13, 2007

Filed by Flextronics International Ltd. pursuant to Rule 425
Under the Securities Act of 1933 and deemed filed pursuant to Rule 14a-12 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended Subject Company: Solectron Corp.
Commission File No. of Subject Company: 001-11098

The following election form and related communications were sent to shareholders of Solectron Corporation beginning on August 13, 2007.

August 13, 2007

Dear Solectron Corporation Stockholder:

We are sending you the enclosed Election Form in connection with the expected merger of Solectron Corporation (Solectron) with Saturn Merger Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Flextronics International Ltd. (Flextronics), pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated June 4, 2007, by and among Solectron, Flextronics and Saturn Merger Corp. (the merger agreement). The merger will be considered at a special meeting of Solectron stockholders to be held on September 27, 2007. On the same day, Flextronics will hold its annual general meeting at which Flextronics shareholders will consider, among other items, a proposal to approve the issuance of Flextronics ordinary shares in the merger. Pending receipt of Solectron stockholder approval, Flextronics shareholder approval and all necessary regulatory approvals, we currently expect the closing of the merger to occur in October 2007.

As outlined in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 7, 2007 and mailed to you under separate cover on or about August 13, 2007 (the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus), the merger agreement provides that each Solectron stockholder may elect to receive, for each share of Solectron common stock it owns, either, but not a combination of, 0.3450 of a Flextronics ordinary share (the stock consideration) or $3.89 in cash, without interest (the cash consideration).

Solectron stockholders must make an election for either stock consideration or cash consideration with respect to all of their Solectron shares. However, under the merger agreement, Solectron and Flextronics have agreed that, regardless of the elections made by Solectron stockholders, all elections are subject to the limitation that at least 50%, but no more than 70%, of the shares of Solectron common stock outstanding immediately prior to completion of the merger will be converted into the right to receive Flextronics ordinary shares, and at least 30% but no more than 50%, of the shares of Solectron common stock outstanding immediately prior to completion of the merger will be converted into the right to receive cash. As a result, the cash and stock elections made by Solectron stockholders will be subject to proration based on these limits and Solectron stockholders that have elected to receive either cash or Flextronics ordinary shares could in certain circumstances receive a combination of both cash and Flextronics ordinary shares.

The following documents which are necessary to complete your election are included in this package:

an Election Form, which enables you to make your election;

the instructions for completing the Election Form; and a return envelope for mailing items to the Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc.

We make no recommendations as to whether you should elect to receive Flextronics ordinary shares or cash. You must make your own decision with respect to this election, bearing in mind the tax consequences of the consideration you may receive based on your election. You also should note that, if you elect to receive Flextronics ordinary shares, the value of the shares you receive will depend on the market value of Flextronics ordinary shares as they trade over time, which may decrease between the time you make your election and the time you receive the Flextronics ordinary shares following the closing of the merger. We urge you to read carefully the entire Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including the merger agreement attached thereto, the Election Form and the instructions accompanying the Election Form before making your election.

Please complete the Election Form and deliver your duly completed Election Form to Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc. as described in the instructions that accompany the Election Form. Your Election Form must be RECEIVED no later than the election deadline, which is 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the later of (i) the date of the Soletron special meeting, and (ii) a date mutually agreed to by Flextronics and Soletron that is as near as practicable to 10 business days prior to the expected closing date of the merger (the Election Deadline). The Soletron special meeting will be held on September 27, 2007, and the closing of the merger is expected to occur in October 2007. Flextronics and Soletron will issue a press release announcing the date of the Election Deadline not more than 15, but at least 10, business days prior to the Election Deadline.

If you do not make a valid election, you will have no control over the type of consideration that you will receive, and your shares will be exchanged for cash, Flextronics ordinary shares or a combination of both according to the allocation rules set forth in the merger agreement and described in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Please do not return your share certificates with the Election Form.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, shares of Solectron common stock that are unvested or subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other similar condition under a restricted stock purchase agreement or other similar arrangement will be converted into cash or Flextronics ordinary shares as a result of the merger on the same terms as shares that are not subject to such restrictions, and holders of such restricted stock have the same right to elect to receive cash consideration or stock consideration as other Solectron stockholders. The Election Form and related material are therefore being sent to holders of Solectron restricted stock. The cash consideration or stock consideration payable in exchange for Solectron restricted stock will be subject to the same terms and conditions that were applicable to the restricted stock prior to the effective time of the merger (including the same vesting requirements).

The merger agreement also provides that exchangeable shares of Solectron Global Services Canada Inc., other than exchangeable shares owned by Solectron, any of its subsidiaries or their affiliates (exchangeable shares), will be automatically exchanged for shares of Solectron common stock, on a one-for-one basis, prior to the effective time of the merger, and that the holders will be entitled to elect to receive the same consideration in the merger, and to participate directly in the merger, as a holder of shares of Solectron common stock. A separate election package, including a separate Election Form and related instructions, are being sent to holders of exchangeable shares. Holders of exchangeable shares should complete that separate Election Form. If you hold both Solectron common stock and exchangeable shares, you must make the same election for both.

You can find additional information on the merger and related transactions in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and in the merger agreement attached to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex A-1, which is available through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's website at www.sec.gov, as well as in the enclosed instructions for completing the Election Form . The information contained in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus speaks as of August 7, 2007, and does not reflect subsequent developments. However, it incorporates by reference subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Flextronics and Solectron. You should rely only on the information contained or expressly incorporated by reference in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with information that is different from what is contained or incorporated by reference in that document.

If you have any questions regarding the merger or the election process, please contact Innisfree M&A Incorporated toll free from within the United States and Canada at (877) 825-8971. Banks and Brokers may call collect at 212-750-5833.

On August 7, 2007, Flextronics filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4/A (SEC File No. 333-14486) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) that contains a definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Before making any voting or investment decision with respect to the proposed merger, investors and security holders are urged to read carefully the Registration Statement and the definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and related materials, because they contain important information about Flextronics, Solectron and the proposed merger. The joint proxy statement/prospectus has been mailed to Flextronics shareholders and stockholders of Solectron.

Documents filed with the SEC, including the definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and other relevant materials, may be obtained free of charge at the SEC's web site www.sec.gov. In addition, investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of any documents that Flextronics and Solectron have filed with the SEC by directing a written request to, with respect to information relating to Flextronics, Flextronics International Ltd., 2090 Fortune Drive, San Jose, CA 95131, Attention: Investor Relations, and with respect to information relating to Solectron, Solectron Corporation, 847 Gibraltar Drive, Milpitas, CA 95035, Attention: Investor Relations.

Flextronics, Solectron and their respective directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in connection with the proposed merger. Information regarding the interests of these directors and executive officers in the proposed transaction is included in the definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus referred to above.

SOLECTRON CORPORATION ELECTION FORM
For Holders of Shares of Solectron Corporation Common Stock

This Election Form is being sent to holders of Solectron Corporation (Solectron) common stock in connection with the expected merger of Solectron with Saturn Merger Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Flextronics International Ltd. (Flextronics), pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated June 4, 2007, by and among Solectron, Flextronics and Saturn Merger Corp. (the merger agreement). A joint proxy statement/prospectus relating to the merger was filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on August 7, 2007 and was mailed to you under separate cover on or about August 13, 2007. Before completing this Election Form, you are urged to read the accompanying instructions to this form together with the joint proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement, which is attached to the joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A-1, in their entirety.

Your election is subject to certain terms and conditions which are set forth in the merger agreement and described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The right to make an election expires at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Election Deadline (as defined in Instruction B.1. to this Election Form).

- 1. DESCRIPTION OF SHARES: (See Instruction C.1.) If all of your shares are held in book-entry form, for this Item 1, you only need to fill in the right-hand column in the boxes below. Your election will apply to all shares in the account to which this Election Form applies as of the effective time of the merger, even if you do not include information in the boxes below for all those shares.

Certificate Number(s), if shares are held in certificated form:

Number of shares (List number of shares represented by each certificate listed in the left-hand column and/or the number of shares held in book-entry form):

TOTAL SHARES \hat{e}

- 2. ELECTION: (See Instruction C.2.) You must elect either cash consideration or stock consideration for all of your Solectron shares. All cash or stock elections are subject to proration as provided under the merger agreement and described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. Choose ONE of the following options. If you do not check a box or if you check more than one box, your election will not be effective, and you will be considered to have made NO ELECTION and will receive cash, Flextronics ordinary shares or a combination of both according to the allocation rules set forth in the merger agreement and described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

- A. Mark this box to elect CASH consideration of $3.89, without interest, for each Solectron share for ALL of your Solectron shares, subject to possible proration;

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SOLECTRON CORPORATION ELECTION FORM
For Holders of Shares of Solectron Corporation Common Stock

A. Introduction

These instructions accompany the Election Form being delivered to holders of Solectron Corporation common stock in connection with the expected merger of Solectron Corporation (Solectron) with Saturn Merger Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Flextronics International Ltd. (Flextronics), pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated June 4, 2007, by and among Solectron, Flextronics and Saturn Merger Corp. (the merger agreement). A joint proxy statement/prospectus relating to the merger was filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on August 7, 2007 and was mailed to you under separate cover on or about August 13, 2007.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Solectron stockholders (including holders of outstanding restricted shares) may elect to receive upon consummation of the merger, for each share of Solectron common stock they own and at the election of the stockholder, either, but not a combination of: (i) 0.3450 of a Flextronics ordinary share, or (ii) a cash payment of $3.89, without interest. Your election is subject to certain terms, conditions and limitations, which are set forth in the merger agreement and are described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. You are encouraged to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement which is attached as Annex A-1 to the joint proxy statement/prospectus, in its entirety and to discuss the contents thereof and the Election Form with your personal financial or tax advisors prior to deciding which election to make. The tax consequences to a holder of shares of Solectron common stock will vary depending upon whether such holder receives cash and/or Flextronics ordinary shares in the merger and a number of other factors. For information regarding the federal income tax consequences of the merger, see the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Your submission of an Election Form does NOT constitute a vote on the merger. In order to vote your Solectron shares, you must follow the instructions for voting contained in the joint proxy statement/prospectus and the accompanying proxy materials. Do not return your proxy materials with this Election Form.

You will not receive your merger consideration until after the merger is effective and Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc. (Computershare or the Exchange Agent) has received all additional documents and deliveries it may require, including a completed letter of transmittal (the form of which will be sent to you after the merger is effective) and certificates representing, or book-entry delivery of, your shares. Do not return your share certificates with your Election Form.

IF, AFTER SUBMITTING YOUR ELECTION, YOU WISH TO SELL OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER SOME OR ALL OF THE SHARES COVERED BY YOUR ELECTION, YOU WILL HAVE TO REVOKE YOUR ELECTION IN ORDER TO DELIVER THE SHARES TO THE PURCHASER OR OTHER TRANSFEREE. SEE INSTRUCTION B.4. BELOW.

Please read and follow carefully the instructions regarding completion of the Election Form set forth below. The terms and conditions set forth in these instructions are considered part of the Election Form.

If you hold your shares through a broker, bank or other nominee, you will have to make your election through that broker, bank or other nominee. You should contact your broker, bank or other nominee promptly for information on how and when you must give them instructions for your election.

Holders of Restricted Shares Pursuant to the merger agreement, shares of Solectron common stock that are unvested or subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other similar condition under a restricted stock purchase agreement or other similar arrangement will be converted into cash or Flextronics ordinary shares as a result of the merger on the same terms as shares that are not subject to such restrictions, and holders of such restricted stock have the same right to elect to receive cash or Flextronics ordinary shares as other Solectron stockholders. The Flextronics ordinary shares or cash payable in exchange for such restricted stock will, however, be subject to the same terms and conditions that were applicable to the restricted stock prior to the effective time of the merger (including the same vesting requirements).

Holders of Exchangeable Shares. Pursuant to the merger agreement, exchangeable shares of Solectron Global Services Canada Inc., other than exchangeable shares owned by Solectron, any of its subsidiaries or their affiliates (exchangeable shares), will be automatically exchanged for shares of Solectron common stock, on a one-for-one basis, prior to the effective time of the merger. The merger agreement provides that holders of exchangeable shares will be entitled to elect to receive the same consideration in the merger, and to participate directly in the merger, as a holder of shares of Solectron common stock. A separate Solectron Corporation Election Form for Holders of Exchangeable Shares and related instructions are being sent to holders of exchangeable shares. Holders of exchangeable shares should complete that separate Election Form.

B. General Instructions

- 1. Election Deadline. In order for your election to be effective, Computershare must receive a properly completed Election Form in respect of your shares of Solectron common stock no later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the later of (i) the date of the Solectron special meeting, and (ii) a date mutually agreed to by Flextronics and Solectron that is as near as practicable to 10 business days prior to the expected closing date of the merger (the Election Deadline). The Solectron special meeting will be held on September 27, 2007, and the closing of the merger is expected to occur in October 2007. Flextronics and Solectron will issue a press release announcing the date of the Election Deadline not more than 15, but at least 10, business days prior to the Election Deadline.

Please allow ample time for delivery of your Election Form. If you hold your Solectron shares through a broker, bank or other nominee, you may have to allow additional time in order to make a timely election.

- 2. Multiple Elections. If you submit multiple Election Forms for different forms of consideration for shares in the same account to which your Election Form applies, you will be treated as a non-electing stockholder (unless you expressly indicate on your later Election Form that it is a revocation of your previous election), and you will receive stock consideration, cash consideration or a combination of both stock consideration and cash consideration according to the allocation rules set forth in the merger agreement and described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.
- 3. Voluntary Revocation or Change of Election. Any election may be revoked or changed by written notice duly executed and received by Computershare prior to the Election Deadline. Such notice must specify the person in whose name the election to be revoked had been submitted, the name of the registered holder thereof, the account to which such election applied, and the serial numbers shown on the certificate(s) or book-entry transfer representing the shares subject to the election being revoked. If an election is revoked, unless a properly completed Election Form is thereafter submitted to Computershare prior to the Election Deadline, you will be treated as a non-electing stockholder, and you will receive stock consideration, cash consideration or a combination of both stock consideration and cash consideration according to the allocation rules set forth in the merger agreement and described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

4. Mandatory Revocation of Election. If, after submitting your election, you wish to sell or otherwise transfer some or all of the shares covered by your election, you will have to revoke your election in order to deliver the shares to the purchaser or other transferee. Such revocation must be received by Computershare prior to the Election Deadline and must otherwise comply with Instruction B.3. above. You may submit a new election for shares that you do not sell or otherwise transfer. Such election must be received by Computershare prior to the Election Deadline and must otherwise comply with, and will be subject to the terms and conditions of, the Election Form and these Instructions. Because you can revoke your election only prior to the Election Deadline, after the Election Deadline and prior to the effective time of the merger you will not be able to sell or otherwise transfer shares for which an election is effective as of the Election Deadline.

5. Delivery of Election Form. The properly completed and duly executed and dated Election Form and any other documents required by the Election Form must be delivered to Computershare at the address set forth on the Election Form no later than the Election Deadline. A return envelope is enclosed. Please do not send your Election Form directly to Solectron. Do not return your share certificate or proxy materials with this Election Form.

The method of delivery of the Election Form and any other required documents is at the discretion and risk of the owner. However, if the Election Form is sent by mail, it is recommended that it be sent by registered mail with return receipt requested.

6. Validity of Elections. All questions as to validity, form and effectiveness of the elections hereunder will be determined by Computershare and such determination shall be final and binding. Computershare will have the right to waive any irregularities or defects in any election. An election will not be deemed to have been made until all irregularities have been cured or waived. Neither Flextronics, Solectron nor Computershare will be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in an Election Form submitted to Computershare.

If a holder of Solectron common stock does not properly follow the instructions for making an effective election or if a Solectron stockholder's election is otherwise not effective, such stockholder will be treated as a non-electing stockholder, and will receive stock consideration, cash consideration or a combination of both stock consideration and cash consideration according to the allocation rules set forth in the merger agreement and described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus.

You will be deemed not to have made any election if:

no election choice is indicated in Item 2 of the Election Form;

more than one election choice is indicated in Item 2 of the Election Form;

you submit multiple Election Forms electing different forms of consideration for shares in the same account to which your Election Form applies (unless you expressly indicate on your later Election Form that it is a revocation of your previous election);

you otherwise fail to follow the instructions on the Election Form or fail to properly make an election; or a completed Election Form is not actually received by Computershare prior to the Election Deadline.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Election Form, Computershare will have the right to waive any flaws in a completed Election Form but shall be under no obligation to do so.

- 7. Elections Void if Merger Not Completed. All Election Forms will be void and of no effect if the merger agreement is terminated for any reason. In such event, shares of Solectron common stock are expected to be available for sale or transfer promptly following such termination.
- 8. Cash in lieu of Fractional Interests. No fractional Flextronics ordinary shares will be issued in the merger. Instead, each Solectron stockholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive Flextronics fractional shares will receive an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the product of (1) such fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled (after aggregating all fractional interests of Flextronics ordinary shares such holder would be entitled to receive as stock consideration) and (2) the average of the per share closing prices of Flextronics ordinary shares reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market during the five (5) consecutive trading days ending on the trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger.

- 9. Multiple Accounts. If you hold Solectron shares in multiple accounts and you wish to make elections for all of your shares, you must submit an election for each account, even if they are registered in the same name. An election for one account will not apply to shares you hold in or through other accounts.

C. Specific Instructions

- 1. Description of Shares. In Item 1 of the Election Form, you should list the certificate number(s) for all of the Solectron shares you own, along with the number of shares represented by each certificate. If the space is inadequate, use a separate sheet and attach it to the Election Form. If you hold shares of Solectron common stock in book-entry form and wish to make an election, you do not need to complete the left-hand column Certificate No.(s) in Item 1 for those book-entry shares. Simply fill in the number of shares in the right-hand column Number of Shares.

Your election will apply to all shares that are in the same account to which such election applies as of the effective time of the merger, even if you do not include information for all those shares.

- 2. Election. In Item 2 of the Election Form, you should:

mark Box A if you wish to elect cash consideration; or mark Box B if you wish to elect stock consideration.

You must elect either cash consideration or stock consideration for all of your Solectron shares. You cannot elect both cash consideration and stock consideration. You should remember, however, that because there are limits on the percentage of Solectron shares that will be converted into cash consideration and stock consideration, all elections are subject to proration as set forth in the merger agreement and described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. Therefore, depending on the elections and non-elections made by other Solectron stockholders, the actual merger consideration you receive could be different from what you elect to receive.

- 3. Signatures on Election Form. The Election Form must be signed in the signature block.

Registered Holders. If the Election Form is signed by the registered holder(s) of the shares of Solectron common stock covered thereby, the signature(s) must correspond with the name(s) of the registered holder(s) on the books of the transfer agent for Solectron's common stock without any alteration, enlargement or change whatsoever. If the shares subject to an election are owned of record by two or more persons, all such persons must sign the Election Form.

Person(s) other than Registered Holders. If the Election Form is signed by a person other than the registered holder(s) of the shares covered thereby, the Election Form must be accompanied by appropriate stock powers signed exactly as the name(s) of the record holder(s) appears on the stock certificate(s) subject to the election, in which case the signatures on such stock powers must be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution (as described below).

Fiduciaries. If the Election Form is signed by a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney-in-fact, officer of a corporation or other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, such person should so indicate when signing, must give his or her full title in such capacity, and must submit proper evidence of his or her authority to so act. Stockholders with any questions regarding what constitutes proper evidence should call Innisfree M&A Incorporated at (877) 825-8971.

Correction of or Change in Name. For a correction of name or for a change in name which does not involve a change in ownership, you may proceed as follows: (a) for a change in name by marriage, etc.,

the Election Form should be signed, e.g., Mary Doe, now by marriage Mary Jones and (b) for a correction in name, the Election Form should be signed, e.g., James E. Brown, incorrectly inscribed as J.E. Brown . In such case, the signature on the Election Form must, however, be guaranteed by an Eligible Institution (as described below). The signature of a notary public is not sufficient for this purpose.

Guarantee of Signatures. A signature guarantee is required on the Election Form if the name(s) of the person(s) executing the Election Form are different from the name(s) of the registered holder(s) of the shares of Solectron common stock covered by the Election Form. A signature guarantee must be completed by an eligible guarantor institution such as a commercial bank, trust company, securities broker/dealer, credit union, or savings association participating in a Medallion Program approved by the Securities Transfer Association, Inc. (each of the foregoing being an Eligible Institution). If you have any questions regarding the need for a signature guarantee, please call Innisfree M&A Incorporated at (877) 825-8971.

Safe Harbor Statement

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws relating to both Flextronics and Solectron. These forward-looking statements include statements related to expectations as to the closing of the acquisition of Solectron by Flextronics. These forward-looking statements are based on current assumptions and expectations and involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements. These risks include the ability of Flextronics and Solectron to satisfy the conditions to closing (including obtaining required regulatory approvals, Solectron stockholder approval and Flextronics shareholder approval); if and when the acquisition occurs, the revenues, cost savings, growth prospects and any other synergies expected from the acquisition may not be fully realized due to difficulties integrating the businesses, operations and product lines of Flextronics and Solectron or may take longer to realize than expected; any delay in completing the acquisition (including any delay in obtaining the required clearances and approvals or resulting from any litigation or similar proceedings) may significantly reduce the benefits expected to be obtained from the acquisition; a failure to complete the acquisition could materially and adversely affect Flextronics' results of operations and stock price; and Flextronics may incur significant costs associated with the acquisition, including charges to operations to reflect costs associated with integrating the businesses and operations of Flextronics and Solectron. Additional information concerning these and other risks is described under "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Flextronics' reports on Form 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K that Flextronics has filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and under "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward Looking Information" and "Risk Factors" included in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus which forms a part of Flextronics' registration statement on Form S-4/A, filed by Flextronics with the SEC on August 7, 2007. The forward-looking statements in this communication are based on current expectations and Flextronics assumes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements.

Additional Information and Where to Find it:

On August 7, 2007, Flextronics filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4/A (SEC File No. 333-14486) with the SEC that contains a definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Before making any voting or investment decision with respect to the proposed merger, investors and security holders are urged to read carefully the Registration Statement and the definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and related materials, because they contain important information about Flextronics, Solectron and the proposed merger. Documents filed with the SEC, including the preliminary Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, when it is made available, and other relevant materials, may be obtained free of charge at the SEC's web site www.sec.gov.
