99.1 News Release dated August 18, 2003

ITEM 9. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

The information in this document includes forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the Safe Harbor Provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements, and the business prospects of Pioneer Natural Resources Company (the "Company"), are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties which may cause the Company's actual results in future periods to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, among other things, volatility of oil and gas prices, product supply and demand, competition, international operations and associated international political and economic instability, government regulation or action, litigation, the costs and results of drilling and operations, the Company's ability to replace reserves or implement its business plans, access to and cost of capital, uncertainties about estimates of reserves, quality of technical data, environmental and weather risks, acts of war or terrorism. These and other risks are described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q that are available from the Company or the Securities and Exchange Commission.

On August 18, 2003, the Company issued a news release that is attached hereto as exhibit 99.1. In the news release, the Company announced, together with other related information, (i) that oil production has commenced from the Sable field offshore South Africa and that the Company's first oil sales from South Africa are anticipated in September or October 2003; (ii) a discovery on the Company's Tomahawk prospect in the Falcon Corridor in the East Breaks area of the deepwater Gulf of Mexico; and (iii) that the Company participated in a successful development well in the Adam field in Tunisia.
