Audit Committee Financial Expert

Price Legacy's Board of Directors has determined that none of the directors serving on its Audit Committee qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert," as that term is defined in the rules and regulations established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and that Price Legacy does not have an "audit committee financial expert" at this time. Since October 2003, Price Legacy has undergone significant corporate changes, including the resignation of its senior management, the resignation of four members of its Board of Directors and the completion of a major recapitalization transaction. Two new directors were appointed to the Board of Directors in connection with completing the recapitalization transaction. The Board of Directors is actively engaged in a search for an appropriate candidate who would qualify as an "audit committee financial expert" to serve on Price Legacy's Audit Committee.

Code of Ethics

Price Legacy has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to its directors, officers and employees. The full text of Price Legacy's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is available on its website at www.pricelegacy.com.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of ten percent or more of Price Legacy's common stock, Series A preferred stock and/or Series 1 preferred stock are required to report to the SEC on a timely basis the initiation of their status as a reporting person and any changes with respect to their beneficial ownership of Price Legacy's common stock, Series A preferred stock and/or Series 1 preferred stock. Based solely on its review of the forms received by it, Price Legacy believes that its executive officers, directors and beneficial owners of more than ten percent of its common stock, Series A preferred stock and/or Series 1 preferred stock complied with all applicable filing requirements during 2003, except that Messrs. Cahill, Galinson and Wolcott reported on Form 4s filed in January 2004 stock options granted in connection with Price Legacy's Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on December 16, 2003.

Compensation Plans

Price Legacy Stock Option Plans. The Amended and Restated Price Legacy Corporation 2001 Stock Option and Incentive Plan (Price Legacy Option Plan) provides for the grant to executive officers, other key employees, consultants and directors of Price Legacy of a broad variety of stock-based compensation alternatives such as nonqualified stock options, incentive stock options, restricted stock, dividend equivalent awards, deferred stock awards, stock payment awards, stock appreciation rights and performance awards. The Price Legacy Option Plan currently provides for aggregate award grants of up to 998,250 shares of common stock, after giving effect to Price Legacy's recently completed 1-for-4 reverse stock split. This aggregate limit automatically increases on January 1 of each calendar year by 10% of the aggregate limit in effect for the immediately preceding calendar year, up to a maximum of 1,250,000 shares of common stock, after giving effect to Price Legacy's recently completed 1-for-4 reverse stock split. In connection with the Merger in September 2001, Price Legacy assumed Excel Legacy's stock option plan, which provided for the grant of a broad variety of stock-based compensation alternatives. The number of shares of common stock and the exercise price underlying each option granted under this plan prior to the Merger were adjusted to reflect the exchange ratio in the Merger. No future grants will be made under this plan. As of April 18, 2004 and after giving effect to Price Legacy's recently completed 1-for-4 reverse stock split, options to purchase an aggregate of 713,351 shares of Price Legacy common stock, at prices ranging from $12.40 to $27.60 were outstanding under the Price Legacy Option Plan and the Excel Legacy stock option plan assumed by Price Legacy in the Merger.

401(k) Retirement Plan and Trust. Price Legacy has established a tax-qualified employee savings and retirement plan (401(k) Plan) covering all employees who have been employed by Price Legacy for at least six months and who are at least 21 years of age. Pursuant to the 401(k) Plan, eligible employees may elect to reduce their current compensation by up to the maximum amount determined by the federal government each year and have the amount of such reduction contributed to the 401(k) Plan. Price Legacy contributes three percent of each eligible employee's base salary to the 401(k) Plan. The 401(k) Plan permits, but does not require, additional cash contributions to the 401(k) Plan by Price Legacy. The 401(k) Plan is intended to qualify under the Internal Revenue Code so that contributions to the 401(k) Plan, and income earned on plan contributions, are not taxable to employees until withdrawn, and so that contributions by Price Legacy are deductible by Price Legacy when made for income tax purposes.

Compensation of Directors

During 2003, each non-employee director of Price Legacy received cash compensation of $15,000 for serving on Price Legacy's Board of Directors. In addition, each non-employee director received $1,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended in person. Each director who sits on a committee of the Board of Directors also received $500 for each committee meeting attended in person. The Chairman of the Audit Committee received additional annual compensation in the amount of $15,000 for service as Chairman of that committee. In addition to directors fees, each non-employee director of Price Legacy is granted an option to purchase 2,500 shares of Price Legacy common stock on the date the director is first elected to the Board of Directors. At each subsequent annual meeting of stockholders at which the non-employee director is re-elected, the director receives an option to purchase 1,250 shares of Price Legacy common stock.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee, established by the Board of Directors in accordance with the requirements of Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Exchange Act, consists of Messrs. Wolcott (Chairman), Goldberg and Goodman. During 2003, the Audit Committee consisted of Messrs. Melvin L. Keating, Jack McGrory and Keene Wolcott and held seven meetings. Pursuant to the terms of a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee reviews the annual audits of Price Legacy's independent public accountants, reviews and evaluates internal accounting controls, selects Price Legacy's independent public accountants, reviews and passes upon (or ratifies) related party transactions and conducts the reviews and examinations as it deems necessary with respect to the practices and policies of, and the relationship between, Price Legacy and its independent public accountants. All current members of the Audit Committee are independent, as defined in Nasdaq Stock Market qualification standards.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee consists of Messrs. Cahill (Chairman) and Galinson. During 2003, the Compensation Committee consisted of Messrs. Reuben S. Leibowitz, James F. Cahill and Murray Galinson and held one meeting. The Compensation Committee reviews compensation of senior officers of Price Legacy and administers its executive compensation policies and stock based compensation plans. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent, as defined in the Nasdaq Stock Market qualification standards.

Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee was formed in February 2004 and currently consists of Messrs. Wolcott (Chairman), Goldberg and Goodman. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee identifies and recommends to the Board of Directors qualified candidates for nomination as directors, develops and recommends to the Board of Directors Price Legacy's corporate governance principles and oversees the evaluation of the Board of Directors and management of Price Legacy. All members of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee are independent, as defined in the Nasdaq Stock Market qualification standards.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

No interlocking relationship existed during 2003 or currently exists between any member of the Compensation Committee and any member of any other company's Board of Directors or compensation committee.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Set forth below in full is the Report of Price Legacy's Compensation Committee regarding the compensation paid by Price Legacy to its executive officers during 2003:

The philosophy of Price Legacy's compensation program is to employ, retain and reward executives capable of leading Price Legacy in achieving its business objectives. These objectives include:

enhancing stockholder value;

maximizing financial performance;

preserving a strong financial posture;

increasing Price Legacy's assets;

attracting and retaining highly qualified executive management; and positioning its assets and business in geographic markets offering long-term growth opportunities.

The accomplishment of these objectives is measured against the conditions characterizing the industry within which Price Legacy operates. Price Legacy and the Compensation Committee believe this philosophy will properly motivate the executives, and thereby promote achievement of Price Legacy's business objectives.

Components of Executive Compensation

Base Salary. Base salary is established by Price Legacy's Compensation Committee based on each executive's job responsibilities, level of experience, individual performance and contribution to the business, with reference to the competitive marketplace for executive officers at other similar companies. The Compensation Committee believes that the base salaries paid to executive officers of Price Legacy are at competitive levels relative to the various markets from which Price Legacy attracts its executive talent. The base salary and other employment benefits for Price Legacy's executive officers are provided pursuant to employment agreements with the executive officers.

Annual Cash Incentive Bonus. Annual cash incentive bonuses are established by the Compensation Committee at the end of the fiscal year and are based on Price Legacy's performance, individual performance and compensation surveys. Bonuses awarded in prior years are also taken into consideration. While executive officers of Price Legacy with employment agreements historically were able to receive up to 100% of their base salary in the form of a bonus, in connection with the execution of amended and restated employment agreements with these executive officers, the Compensation Committee established a Performance Based Incentive Plan intended to provide cash bonus awards to these executive officers if Price Legacy achieves strategic objectives established by the Compensation Committee.

Long-Term Incentives. Long-term incentives generally include awards of stock options, however under Price Legacy's stock option and incentive plan they may also include a variety of stock-based compensation alternatives such as restricted stock, dividend equivalent awards, deferred stock awards, stock payment awards, stock appreciation rights and performance awards. The objective for the awards is to closely align executive interests with the longer term interests of stockholders. These awards, which are at risk and dependent on the creation of incremental stockholder value or the attainment of cumulative financial targets over several years, represent a portion of the total compensation opportunity provided for the executive officers. Award sizes are based on individual performance, level of responsibility, the individual's potential to make significant contributions to Price Legacy and award levels at other similar companies.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

During 2003, Gary B. Sabin served as Price Legacy's Chief Executive Officer until October 15, 2003, and Jack McGrory served as Price Legacy's Chief Executive Officer beginning October 15, 2003. During 2003, prior to his resignation, Mr. Sabin was compensated pursuant to an employment agreement with Price Legacy at an annual rate of $325,000. Mr. Sabin was eligible to participate in Price Legacy's stock option and incentive plan. Mr. McGrory receives no salary from and is not party to any employment agreement with Price Legacy in connection with serving as Price Legacy's Chief Executive Officer. Mr. McGrory is eligible to participate in Price Legacy's stock option and incentive plan.

Tax Considerations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally limits the tax deductions a public corporation may take for compensation paid to its Chief Executive Officer and its other four most highly compensated executive officers to $1 million per executive per year. Price Legacy does not presently anticipate that any of its executive officers will exceed the non-performance based compensation threshold of Section 162(m). The Compensation Committee intends to evaluate Price Legacy's executive compensation policies and benefit plans during the coming year to determine whether any actions to maintain the tax deductibility of executive compensation are in the best interest of Price Legacy's stockholders.

The foregoing report has been furnished by the Compensation Committee.

Messrs. Indebtedness of Management

In 1998, Excel Legacy loaned to some of its officers, including certain of the Named Executive Officers, an aggregate amount of approximately $10.9 million representing approximately 50% of the purchase price of shares of Excel Legacy common stock purchased by the officers at that time. Price Legacy assumed the loans receivable from these officers in the Merger. Following the Merger, the loans were secured by shares of Price Legacy common stock owned by the officers. Loans to some of the officers were recourse against the officers in the amount of any deficiency between the value of the pledged shares of Price Legacy common stock and the outstanding balance of the loan. The remaining loans were non-recourse, but were secured by the pledged shares of Price Legacy common stock. One of the officers used personal funds to repay his loan in its entirety prior to maturity. The remaining loans matured on March 31, 2003. On that date, Price Legacy acquired from the officers with non-recourse loans the common stock pledged as collateral and cancelled the officers' remaining obligations under the loans. In the case of the recourse loans, Price Legacy acquired from the officers the common stock pledged as collateral, and the officers repaid the remaining balance of their loans.

The following table provides, with respect to each executive officer who had a loan from Price Legacy described above, the outstanding balance of the loan at maturity, the number of pledged shares surrendered to Price Legacy, and the recourse payment from the officer to Price Legacy (if any).

Name	Outstanding Loan Balance at Maturity	Pledged Shares Surrendered at Maturity	Recourse Payment (if any)
Gary B. Sabin	$ 4,586,188	1,016,899
Richard. B. Muir	1,472,394	305,666
Graham R. Bullick, Ph.D.	1,542,394	306,027	$ 62,782
Mark T. Burton	1,542,394	322,754

(1) Mr. Nakagawa repaid his loan with personal funds prior to maturity. Mr. Nakagawa's outstanding loan balance was $40,331 at the time of repayment.

(2) Ronald H. Sabin is a former officer of Excel Legacy who resigned prior to the merger, and the brother of Gary B. Sabin, former Co-Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Price Legacy. Ronald H. Sabin's loan was secured by 341,413 shares of Price Legacy common stock and recourse against Mr. Ronald Sabin in the amount of $122,281. Upon maturity, Price Legacy acquired the 341,413 pledged shares and cancelled the remaining obligations under his loan, including the recourse amount.

- (3) David A. Lund is a former officer of Excel Legacy who resigned prior to the merger. Mr. Lund's loan was unsecured and recourse against Mr. Lund in the full amount of the loan.
