PROXY STATEMENT

CAESARS ENTERTAINMENT, INC.
3930 HOWARD HUGHES PARKWAY
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89109
(702) 699-5000

This Proxy Statement is solicited by the Board of Directors of Caesars Entertainment, Inc. (the "Company" or "Caesars") and is being furnished to the stockholders of the Company in connection with its Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at Caesars Palace, 3570 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109, on June 24, 2005 at 8:00 a.m. (local time), and at any adjournments of that meeting. We commenced mailing this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card to stockholders on or about April 29, 2005. The Company paid the cost of preparing and mailing this proxy statement and proxy card to its stockholders.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

What am I being asked to vote on?

Item One: The election of Stephen F. Bollenbach, Wallace R. Barr, Peter G. Ernaut and William Barron Hilton, who are four nominees for re-election to the Board of Directors for terms of three years.

What if the Company's merger with Harrah's closes before the Annual Meeting?

If the merger of the Company with Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. ("Harrah's") is completed before June 24, 2005, it will not be necessary to have the Caesars Annual Meeting and it will be canceled. The Company expects the merger to be completed in the second quarter of 2005.

What constitutes a quorum for purposes of voting?

A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock, represented either in person or by proxy at the meeting, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The record date is April 25, 2005. On the record date, there were 314,816,793 shares of common stock outstanding, which constitutes all of the outstanding voting securities of the Company.

Abstentions and broker non-votes (shares held by a broker or nominee that are represented at the meeting, but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a proposal) are included in determining the presence of a quorum.

How many votes are needed to approve each item?

Item One: The individuals receiving a plurality of the votes cast by holders of shares of common stock will be elected as directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will not count as a vote for or against any director nominee.

Other Matters: For any other business that properly comes before the meeting, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy is required. Abstentions and broker non-votes (if any) will have the effect of a vote against the matter being considered.

Broker Voting: Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, the election of directors is considered to be a "routine" matter upon which a brokerage firm that holds your shares in its name may vote on your behalf, even if you have not furnished the firm voting instructions within a specified period prior to the annual meeting.

How many votes do I have?

Each share of the Company's common stock that you own entitles you to one vote. The proxy card shows the number of shares that you owned as of the record date for voting.

How does the Board of Directors recommend I vote on the proposals?

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR each of the nominees for the Board of Directors. If you do not make a specific selection, your proxy will vote your shares as recommended by the current Board of Directors FOR the election of these nominees.

How do I vote?

You may vote by proxy card, by telephone, by internet, or in person at the annual meeting. We encourage you to vote in advance by proxy card, telephone, or internet even if you plan to attend the annual meeting.

By Proxy Card: To vote by proxy card, you should complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed pre-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope. One of the individuals named on your proxy card (your "proxy") will vote your shares as you direct on your proxy card.

By Telephone: We have established a toll-free telephone number which is printed on your proxy card. You can use any touch-tone telephone to vote 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

By Internet: We have established a secure website where you can also vote 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The website address is listed on your proxy card.

Can I revoke my proxy after I have sent it in?

Yes. You may revoke your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised in the following ways:

You may attend and vote in person at the annual meeting, which automatically revokes any previously received vote from you; or

You may send in a later-dated proxy card, or vote again by mail or internet. This will automatically revoke your earlier vote; or

You may notify the Secretary of the Company that you wish to revoke your previously mailed proxy card, your telephone or your internet vote. This must be done in writing and sent to his attention at this address:

Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., Secretary
Caesars Entertainment, Inc.
3930 Howard Hughes Parkway
Las Vegas, Nevada 89109

Edgar Filing: CAESARS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form DEF 14A

If your shares are held in a "street name" account, you must contact your broker, bank or other institution to change your vote.

What if my shares are held in the name of my broker, bank, or another institution?

Please vote promptly, following the instructions provided by your broker, bank or other institution. If you want to vote in person at the annual meeting, you must bring to the annual meeting a proxy from the record holder of the shares authorizing you to vote at the annual meeting.

ITEM 1
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our Board of Directors consists of nine members, although the Board has the authority to establish its membership at between one and twenty members. The term of office for Stephen F. Bollenbach, Wallace R. Barr, Peter G. Ernaud and William Barron Hilton expires at this Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The directors are divided into three classes with staggered terms of office. One class has four directors and there are three directors in the second class and two directors in the third class. At each annual meeting, one class of directors is elected to serve three-year terms.

Each director elected at this Annual Meeting of Stockholders will hold office until the Annual Meeting of Stockholders in 2008 or until his successor has been elected. If any director resigns, dies, or is otherwise unable to serve out his/her term, the Board may fill such vacancy.

The Board has nominated Stephen F. Bollenbach, Wallace R. Barr, Peter G. Ernaud and William Barron Hilton for re-election. The nominees have been selected on the basis of their exemplary service as current directors, their integrity and independence, their understanding of our business environment, and their willingness to devote substantial time to Board duties. For biographical information about each of these nominees, please see "Directors and Executive Officers" beginning on page 4. Each of the nominees has consented to serve if elected. If any of them becomes unavailable to serve as a director, the Board may designate a substitute nominee. In that case, the persons named as proxies will vote for the substitute nominee designated by the Board.

If the merger is completed, Caesars will merge with Harrah's Operating Company, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's, with Harrah's Operating Company surviving and continuing as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Harrah's. Caesars' directors will not continue as directors of Harrah's Operating Company. However, pursuant to the merger agreement, upon completion of the merger, William Barron Hilton and Stephen F. Bollenbach will be appointed to the Harrah's board of directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS

INFORMATION REGARDING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors

In November 2003, the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") adopted rules requiring that a majority of the Company's directors be "independent." The NYSE rules, which have been effective with respect to the Company as of its 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, require a NYSE listed company to review whether the directors are "independent." The NYSE rules set forth circumstances under which a Board of Directors cannot deem a director to be "independent." In particular, among other standards, the NYSE rules provide that a Board of Directors cannot deem "independent" a director who is an employee. To classify a director as "independent" for purposes of the NYSE rules, the Company also must determine affirmatively that the director has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). To make this determination, the Company, as permitted by the NYSE rules, adopted the following categorical standard: a director has no material relationship with the Company if fees paid to an organization associated with the director do not exceed the greater of (i) $1 million or (ii) 2% of the consolidated gross revenues of the organization associated with the director.

The Board assessed each director against this categorical standard and also considered whether there were any other relationships, direct or indirect, between the Company and each director that would cause each director not to be "independent," as defined by the NYSE rules.

The Board affirmatively determined that a majority of the Board of Directors are "independent," as defined by the NYSE rules. Specifically, the following directors are "independent" pursuant to the categorical standard and the NYSE rules: Barbara Coleman, A. Steven Crown, Eric M. Hilton, William Barron Hilton and Gilbert L. Shelton. Due to employment relationships with the Company, Messrs. Bollenbach, Barr and Cummis did not meet the NYSE's definition of "independent" and because of an employment relationship with a company that does business with the Company, Peter G. Ernaut does not meet the NYSE's definition of "independent."

The Company's directors are expected to regularly attend the annual and any special meetings of the Company's stockholders. All members of the Board of Directors attended the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders in May 2004. The Company's directors are also expected to regularly attend meetings of the Board and Committees on which the directors sit, and to review prior to meetings the material distributed in advance of such meetings. The Board of Directors held twelve meetings during 2004. Each member of the Board of Directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and the Committees of which he or she is a member.

The Board's non-management directors, including directors who are not independent under the NYSE rules, meet in executive sessions, which sessions are chaired by the Chairman of the Board. The Company may also schedule executive sessions consisting only of directors who are independent under the NYSE rules. Since January 2004, the Company's policy is to have an independent director preside over the executive sessions of independent directors. Under the Company's policy, the Chairman of the Board of Directors would preside over such executive sessions of independent directors, except where the Chairman is not an independent director. If the Chairman is not independent, the position of presiding director (the "Rotating Presiding Director") would rotate for each session of the independent directors based on the alphabetical order of the last names of the independent directors. To contact Mr. Bollenbach or the non-management directors as a group, please see the information below on stockholder communications with the Board of Directors.

Stockholder Communications with the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has adopted a process by which the Company's stockholders can send written communication to the directors. Any stockholder desiring to communicate with the Board of Directors, or any one of the directors, may send a letter addressed to the Caesars Entertainment, Inc. Board of Directors, c/o Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., Secretary, Caesars Entertainment, Inc., 3930 Howard Hughes Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109. The Board has instructed the Company's Secretary to promptly forward to the Board, or the individual director, all communications received.

Committees of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors has standing Audit, Compensation, Compliance, Diversity and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees.

Audit Committee

The members of the Audit Committee are Gilbert L. Shelton (Chair), A. Steven Crown, Eric M. Hilton and William Barron Hilton. The Board has determined that Mr. Shelton is the Audit Committee's "audit committee financial expert," as such term is defined in the rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is, along with the other Audit Committee members, "independent," as defined by the NYSE rules. The Audit Committee met eight times in 2004. The Audit Committee provides oversight of the accounting, auditing, internal control and financial reporting practices of the Company. The Audit Committee reviews the independence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, recommends to the Board the engagement and discharge of independent registered public accounting firms, reviews with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm their audit reports, their scope of review and plan, their findings, their recommendations and their fees. The Audit Committee reviews the scope and results of the Company's procedures for internal auditing, sets staffing levels and compensation for internal audit personnel, the adequacy of internal accounting controls, and directs and supervises special investigations. The Audit Committee meets periodically with internal auditors and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee meets both with and without management in attendance. The Board adopted a written Audit Committee charter and it is available on the "Corporate Governance" section of the "About Us" section of Company's website at the internet address of www.caesars.com/corporate/aboutus/corporategovernance. A copy may also be obtained, without cost, by written request submitted to Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., Secretary, Caesars Entertainment, Inc., 3930 Howard Hughes Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109.

Compensation Committee

The members of the Compensation Committee are A. Steven Crown (Chair), Barbara Coleman, Eric M. Hilton and William Barron Hilton. The Board has determined that all Compensation Committee members are "independent," as defined by the NYSE rules. The Compensation Committee met six times in 2004. The Compensation Committee is comprised of outside directors and determines salary, bonus, stock option, and other compensation for executive officers of the Company, as well as overall employment and compensation practices of the Company in general. It administers the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, Supplemental Retention Plan and the 2004 Long Term Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee reports to the Board of Directors regarding all its decisions concerning such plans. The Compensation Committee prepares an annual report in which it discusses the compensation of the Company executives and the philosophy behind that compensation. The Compensation Committee Charter is available on the "Corporate Governance" section of the "About Us" section of the Company's website at www.caesars.com/corporate/aboutus/corporategovernance. A copy may also be obtained, without cost, by written request submitted to Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., Secretary, Caesars Entertainment, Inc., 3930 Howard Hughes Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee ("Committee") of the Board of Directors is composed entirely of independent outside directors. The Committee is responsible for establishing and administering the compensation philosophy, policies, and programs applicable to the executive officers of the Company, including specific decisions regarding each executive officer's compensation and the overall compensation practices of the Company.

The Company is largely dependent upon the judgment, initiative, and effort of its executive officers for the successful conduct of its business. Therefore, the Committee's primary objective is to establish plans that will attract, retain, and motivate highly skilled and talented executives in a dynamic and competitive industry. This is accomplished through implementation of the following policies:

Ensuring that executive compensation is competitive within the gaming industry as well as within the realm of other public companies of similar size, scope and revenues;

Providing incentives to executives to increase stockholder value, both in the short-term and in the long term;

Providing executives with a personal financial interest in the Company similar to the interest of our stockholders;

Linking executive compensation to Company performance; and Reflecting the performance and contribution of each executive officer in the Committee's compensation determinations.

Our executive officers are compensated through a combination of salary, performance bonuses, equity grants, and a deferred compensation program. The Company also pays benefits upon certain executive officers' deaths through an executive death benefit plan.

In 2004, the Committee continued to retain the services of one of the nation's leading Human Resource and executive compensation consulting firms, to advise it on matters related to executive compensation.

Salaries

The Company entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Barr, DeLury, and Allison. The employment agreements establish minimum annual base salaries for each executive. In setting salaries, we compare our salaries with those of other public companies, gaming and non-gaming, of similar size, scope of operations, and revenues. We also consider each officer's performance and responsibility level, as well as the Company's current financial condition and performance during the past fiscal year, such as growth in revenues, earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"), earning per share, and strategic acquisition or disposition of assets.

Performance Bonuses

At the beginning of each year, the Committee establishes performance objectives and the target potential bonus award for each executive officer, including the Chief Executive Officer. At the end of the performance period, the Committee determines the results achieved relative to such objectives, and establishes each executive officer's annual bonus.

In May 2000, stockholders approved the Company's Executive Incentive Plan, which is intended to qualify certain compensation paid to executive officers for deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Code, which otherwise limits deductibility to $1 million for the Chief Executive Officer and each of the four other most highly compensated officers. In making compensation decisions, the Committee will take into account the effect of Section 162(m) and the Executive Incentive Plan, while retaining the flexibility to approve compensation that it deems to be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders, but which may not always qualify for full tax deductibility.

The Committee established criteria for 2004 bonus awards that were based on the Company reaching certain targeted profitability and efficiency objectives, including EBITDA and earnings per share objectives.

Stock Options

Annual stock option grants are a critical component of the Company's long-term executive compensation program by linking a major portion of executive financial interests to the performance of our stock. Options increase the executive's motivation and incentive to continue with the company and grow the value of its stock by providing the executive with the same opportunity to benefit from appreciation in the stock price as do other stockholders. Pursuant to their employment agreements, we awarded options to purchase shares of common stock to Messrs. Barr, DeLury, and Allison. The size of the option grants to the executive officers reflects the Committee's judgment as to current and potential contribution of the individual executive officer to the present and future growth and profitability of the Company and to the creation of stockholder value.

Restricted Stock Units

In accordance with the stockholder approved 2004 Long Term Incentive Plan, the Company granted Messrs. Barr, DeLury, and Allison restricted stock units. The size of the grants to the executive officers is based on competitive practice, and reflects the Committee's judgment as to current and potential contribution of the individual executive officer to the present and future growth and profitability of the Company and to the creation of stockholder value.

Performance Awards

Consistent with grants of restricted stock units, the Company also granted Messrs. Barr, DeLury, and Allison performance awards, under the stockholder approved 2004 Long Term Incentive Plan. The size of the grants to the executive officers is based on competitive practice, and reflects the Committee's judgment as to current and potential contribution of the individual executive officer to the present and future growth and profitability of the Company and to the creation of stockholder value. These awards are valued based on achievement of three-year performance goals related to Return on Invested Capital ("ROIC") and relative Total Shareholder Return ("TSR"). Adopting such performance-based long-term incentive vehicles allows the Company to continue to attract and retain the high caliber of executive talent necessary to continue to drive the Company to success, while ensuring a close alignment with stockholder interests.

Executive Deferred Compensation Plan

Executive officers also may participate in a plan under which they may elect to defer any portion of their compensation in accordance with plan provisions. The Company provides a matching contribution of 50 percent of the first 10 percent of compensation deferred by the executive. The executive's interest in the Company's match vests at the rate of one-third per annum, with 100 percent acceleration in the event of death, permanent disability, change of control, or retirement at age 55 or thereafter.

Executive Death Benefit Plan

The Company adopted an Executive Death Benefit Plan in fiscal year 2000 for the purpose of providing benefits to a select group of management employees. Each of the five most highly compensated executive officers qualifies for this plan. The plan provides, in the event of the executive's death, for the Company to pay a benefit equal to 150 percent of the sum of (a) the executive's base salary at the time of death plus (b) the bonus paid for the fiscal year in which the death occurs, with a maximum cap of $5 million, plus an amount to reimburse the executive's estate for taxes on the amount of the benefit paid.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

In 2004, Mr. Barr's annual base salary was $1.0 million. The Committee determined the size of Mr. Barr's salary based on the compensation levels of comparable positions at other public companies, gaming and non-gaming, of similar size, scope of operations, and revenues. In determining Mr. Barr's salary, we also considered his performance and responsibility level, as well as the Company's current financial condition and performance, such as growth in revenues, EBITDA, earning per share, and strategic acquisition or disposition of assets.

With regard to Mr. Barr's annual bonus, at the beginning of the 2004 fiscal year, the Committee established performance objectives and the target potential bonus award for Mr. Barr. These objectives and targets were based on the Company reaching certain targeted profitability and efficiency objectives, including EBITDA and earnings per share objectives. In setting these objectives, we also took into account the effect of Section 162(m) of the Code which otherwise limits the deductibility of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation. At the end of the performance period, we determined the results achieved relative to such objectives, and established Mr. Barr's annual bonus.

With regard to Mr. Barr's long term incentive compensation, under the stockholder approved 2004 Long Term Incentive Plan, the Committee granted to Mr. Barr restricted stock units and options to purchase shares of common stock. The Committee determined the size of these grants based on competitive practice, and it reflects our judgment as to Mr. Barr's current and potential contribution to the present and future growth and profitability of the Company and to the creation of stockholder value taking into consideration, among other factors, the pending merger with Harrah's.

Edgar Filing: CAESARS ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form DEF 14A

The Committee continues to monitor the compensation and benefits paid to our executive officers to ensure that they are effective, appropriate, competitive and tax efficient.

It reviews information and reports regarding the suitability of potential key employees of the Company as well as persons and entities proposed to be involved in material transactions or relationships with the Company. The Company believes that the involvement of the Board in this endeavor creates an environment in which integrity and honesty are clearly identified as a critical component of our corporate culture.

Diversity Committee

The members of the Diversity Committee are Barbara Coleman (Chair), Wallace R. Barr, Stephen F. Bollenbach and Peter G. Ernaut. The Diversity Committee met three times in 2004. The Diversity Committee is dedicated to the development and implementation of policies and programs that promote equality of opportunity in all facets of the Company's business. The Diversity Committee's goals are to increase diversity in the Company's workforce, management, and in its dealings with vendors, with special emphasis on identifying qualified females and ethnic minorities.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are A. Steven Crown (Chair), William Barron Hilton and Gilbert L. Shelton. The Board has determined that all members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are "independent," as defined by the NYSE rules. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met two times in 2004. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee evaluates and recommends candidates to the Board of Directors to fill positions on the Board of Directors and reviews matters that concern corporate governance. It reviews on a continuing basis, and at least once a year, the structure of the Board to assure its continuity and to assure that the proper skills and experience are represented on the Board, and reviews any potential conflicts of Board members when a prospective Board member is being considered for election to the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter is available on the "Corporate Governance" section of the "About Us" section of the Company's website at www.caesars.com/corporate/aboutus/corporategovernance. A copy may also be obtained, without cost, by written request submitted to Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., Secretary, Caesars Entertainment, Inc., 3930 Howard Hughes Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109.

Stockholder Nominations of Candidates to the Board of Directors. Stockholders may recommend to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee candidates for the Board of Directors if the Company receives such recommendations 120 days before the anniversary date of the Company's most recent annual meeting. In considering the candidates submitted by stockholders, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider the needs of the Board of Directors and the qualifications of the candidates.

Stockholders who want to recommend a person as a candidate for the Board of Directors of the Company may do so by sending the following information to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, c/o Bernard E. DeLury, Jr., Secretary, Caesars Entertainment, Inc., 3930 Howard Hughes Parkway, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109: (1) name and address of the candidate; (2) a brief biographical sketch and resume of the candidate; (3) contact information for the candidate; (4) a document evidencing the candidate's willingness to serve as a director if elected and to submit to the necessary regulatory approvals; and (5) a signed statement as to the submitting stockholder's current status as a stockholder and the number of shares currently held.

Qualifications and Evaluations of Nominees to the Board of Directors. The Board shall be responsible for nominating members for election to the Board, and the Board shall be responsible for filling vacancies on the Board that may occur between Annual Meetings of Stockholders. In selecting nominees, the Board of Directors considers, among other factors, a nominee's reputation for integrity and ethical dealings and willingness to devote adequate time and effort to the responsibilities of serving on the Board of Directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying, evaluating and recommending candidates to the Board for Board membership.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee identifies potential nominees by asking current directors and executive officers to notify the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee if such directors and executive officers become aware of persons, meeting the general criteria described below, who have had a change in circumstances that might make such persons available to serve on the Board for example, retirement of a person as a chief executive officer of a public company or from government or military service. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may also periodically engage firms that specialize in identifying candidates for director. Currently, the Company does not pay a fee to any third party to identify or evaluate or assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees. As described above, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider candidates recommended by stockholders.

Once a person has been identified by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee as a potential candidate, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may collect and review publicly available information regarding the person to assess whether the person should be considered further. If the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee determines that a potential candidate warrants further consideration, the Chair or another member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee would contact the person. Generally, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee would review the person's accomplishments and qualifications in light of the accomplishments and qualifications of any other candidates that the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may be considering and conduct one or more interviews with the candidate. In certain instances, a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may contact one or more references provided by the candidates or may contact other members of the business community or other persons that may have first-hand knowledge of the candidate's accomplishments.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee does not set specific, minimum qualifications for nominees for the position of director. Candidates, however, should show leadership in their particular fields and have the ability to exercise sound business judgment. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will select candidates to recommend to the Board of Directors with the goal of enhancing the Board's ability to manage and direct the affairs and business of the Company on the basis of, among other things, experience, knowledge, skills, expertise, integrity, diversity, ability to make independent analytical inquiries, and understanding of the Company's business environment. When applicable, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will select a candidate with the potential to enhance the ability of committees of the Board to fulfill their duties and/or to satisfy any independence requirements imposed by law, regulation or listing standards.

There are no differences in how a nominee recommended by a stockholder would be evaluated as compared to any other nominee recommended by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

The Company may satisfy any disclosure requirements regarding waivers for executive officers and directors from the Code of Conduct or Ethics Statement by posting such information on the Company's website at www.caesars.com/corporate/aboutus/corporategovernance.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Annual Retainer. Directors who are not officers of the Company or its subsidiaries earn an annual retainer fee of $45,000. The directors who chair committees of the Board receive an additional annual retainer of $3,500 except for the Audit Committee Chair who receives an additional annual retainer of $25,000.

Options. The Company grants each non-executive director an option to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock on the date of the director's initial election to the Board. The first 10,000 options vest on the date of grant and the remainder vest in equal installments over a four-year period, provided the director remains on the Board.

Meeting Fees. The Company compensates non-executive directors with a fee of $1,500 for attendance at each board, committee, and meeting of stockholders. We provide or reimburse all directors for travel and other related expenses related to their attendance at board meetings, committee meetings, meetings of stockholders, and other Company business functions.

Independent Directors' Retirement Plan. Any independent director who retires after reaching age 65, and who has completed ten years of service as a director, is entitled to an annual retirement benefit. The benefit is equal to the director's average annual fees, including meeting and committee attendance fees, during the 36 consecutive calendar months for which the director's fees were the highest. The benefits under this plan are payable for a maximum of ten years. If a director dies prior to retirement, but after reaching age 65, the director's surviving spouse is entitled to an annual spouse's benefit equal to one-half the benefit the director would have received had the director retired on the date of death. In the event a retired director dies prior to receiving ten annual payments, one-half of the annual benefit the director was receiving will be paid to the director's surviving spouse for the balance of the ten-year period.

EXECUTIVE OFFICER EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS AND ARRANGEMENTS

The Company has entered into certain employment agreements with the named executive officers and directors. The agreements currently in effect are with Stephen F. Bollenbach, Wallace R. Barr, Bernard E. DeLury, Jr. and Wesley D. Allison. The key provisions of these agreements are summarized below.

Stephen F. Bollenbach. The Company has an employment agreement with Mr. Bollenbach in which he has agreed to serve as Chairman and advisor to the Board of Directors for the period from December 31, 1998 to July 1, 2005. Under the agreement, Mr. Bollenbach is paid an annual base salary of $100,000 per year, is not entitled to receive a bonus, and is not entitled to receive any benefits provided to the Company employees other than an annual vacation and reimbursement of expenses he may incur in providing his services under the agreement. The agreement provides that, upon termination of his employment following a "change of control" (as defined in the agreement) of the Company either by the Company without cause or by Mr. Bollenbach for good reason, he is entitled to: (i) a lump-sum payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of base salary and the higher of the annual bonus paid for the year in which the change of control occurs or for the immediately preceding year (fifty percent of which is consideration for certain restrictive covenants, including confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions); (ii) payment of any compensation previously deferred but not yet paid; and (iii) full vesting of outstanding options, which will remain exercisable until December 31, 2008. Following a change of control, Mr. Bollenbach may terminate his employment for no reason or any reason during the 30-day period immediately following the first anniversary of the change of control and receive the same severance he would receive if he terminated his employment for good reason. Under the agreement, Mr. Bollenbach is entitled to a "gross-up" payment to compensate him for any excise tax on excess parachute payments.

Wallace R. Barr. The Company has an employment agreement with Mr. Barr as President and Chief Executive Officer for the period from November 19, 2002 to March 31, 2006, which term automatically renews for successive one year periods unless either the Company or Mr. Barr elects not to renew. Mr. Barr's minimum annual base salary is $1.0 million, with an annual bonus depending upon the performance of the Company and Mr. Barr and subject to the criteria established by the Board of Directors. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Barr is entitled to a supplemental retirement benefit equal to 3% of total cash compensation for each year of service through December 31, 2005 and the Company maintains a $2.2 million term life insurance policy for the benefit of Mr. Barr's designated beneficiary during the term of Mr. Barr's employment. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Barr was granted 1.45 million stock options under the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and 635,000 rights under the Company's Supplemental Retention Plan, which options and rights vest over four years. If Mr. Barr is terminated without cause, Mr. Barr shall be entitled to his base salary for the balance of the term of the employment agreement or twenty-four months, whichever is greater, plus (a) his annual bonus for the same period; (b) any remaining unvested stock options and rights would immediately vest and become exercisable; and (c) health and dental benefits will be continued as provided in the employment agreement. Mr. Barr's employment agreement also provides for certain severance payments and benefits in the event that his employment is terminated under certain circumstances in connection with a change in control of Caesars (as defined in the employment agreement). Such payments and benefits include: (i) a lump-sum cash payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of his base salary and the greater of his annual bonus in respect of fiscal 2003 or 2004; (ii) a lump-sum cash payment representing his accrued obligations; (iii) payment of brokerage commissions and other costs on the sale of his Las Vegas, Nevada residence and, in certain circumstances, the fair market value of such residence; (iv) continued benefits through March 31, 2006; (v) retiree benefits pursuant to health and life insurance benefit plans, assuming for this purpose that Mr. Barr was employed through March 31, 2006 and retired on such date; and (vi) a gross-up payment, if necessary.

Bernard E. DeLury, Jr. The Company has an employment agreement with Mr. DeLury as Executive Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel for the period from February 1, 2003 to January 31, 2006, which term automatically renews for successive one year periods unless either the Company or Mr. DeLury elects not to renew. Mr. DeLury's minimum annual base salary is $600,000, with an annual bonus depending upon the performance of the Company and Mr. DeLury and subject to the criteria established by the Chief Executive Officer and the Board of Directors. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. DeLury was granted stock options under the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, which options vest over time. If Mr. DeLury is terminated without cause, Mr. DeLury shall be entitled to his base salary for the balance of the term of the employment agreement or twelve months, whichever is greater, plus the average of the annual bonuses paid for the last three years or the annual bonus paid in the prior year, whichever is greater. In the event of a change of control of the Company and the successor terminates Mr. DeLury, without cause, he shall be paid 24 months of salary or the remaining balance of the term of the employment agreement, whichever is greater, plus the average of the annual bonuses paid for the last three years or the annual bonus paid in the prior year, whichever is greater.

Wesley D. Allison. The Company has an employment agreement with Mr. Allison as Senior Vice President, Controller and Interim Chief Financial Officer for a period from May 2004 to December 2007. Mr. Allison's minimum annual base salary is $500,000, with an annual bonus depending upon the performance of the Company and Mr. Allison and subject to the criteria established by the Chief Executive Officer and the Board of Directors. Mr. Allison has been granted options under the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and options and restricted stock units under the Company's 2004 Long-Term Incentive Plan, which equity grants vest over time. If Mr. Allison is terminated without cause, Mr. Allison shall be entitled to his base salary for the balance of the term of the employment agreement or twelve months, whichever is greater, plus a bonus pro-rated for the amount of time during the year which Mr. Allison was employed.

Clive S. Cummis. Mr. Cummis is party to an agreement with the Company under which he began transitioning out of his employment duties beginning on January 1, 2002 and ending with his retirement on December 31, 2004. The agreement provides for compensation of $1,000 per month through December 31, 2004 and $1,464,000 paid in equal bi-weekly installments from January 1, 2002 through December 31, 2004. The agreement also provides for continued vesting of options through December 31, 2004, at which time his options will expire and no longer be exercisable. In connection with the Company's merger with Harrah's, the Company and Mr. Cummis have agreed to amend Mr. Cummis' transition agreement with the Company to extend the term (and his continued ability to exercise vested stock options) until the earlier of (i) December 31, 2005 and (ii) 180 days after completion of the Caesars/Harrah's merger.

Change of Control Agreements. The Company's Board of Directors has approved a Change of Control Agreement ("Control Agreement") which has been entered into with Messrs. Barr and DeLury.

Mr. Barr's change of control agreement entitles him to receive, upon termination of his employment following a change of control by Caesars other than for cause, death or disability: (i) a lump-sum severance payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of base salary and the higher of the annual bonus paid for the last full fiscal year ending during the employment period or for the last full fiscal year prior to the change of control (fifty percent of which is consideration for certain restrictive covenants in Mr. Barr's employment agreement, including confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions); (ii) a pro rata bonus for the year of termination (based on the annual bonus as determined according to clause (i)); (iii) a lump-sum payment equal to unpaid compensation previously deferred and accrued vacation; (iv) continued health and life insurance benefits through March 31, 2006; and (v) a lump-sum payment equal to the amount which Caesars would have credited to his account under the deferred compensation plan from the date of termination through March 31, 2006, if he had deferred the average amount deferred in the prior 12 months. Mr. Barr will be entitled to a "gross-up" payment to compensate him for any excise tax on excess parachute payments. Completion of the Company's merger with Harrah's will constitute a change of control under Mr. Barr's change of control agreement. For purposes of Mr. Barr's change of control agreement, good reason includes, generally: (i) assignment of duties inconsistent with his position or material diminution in position, authority or reporting requirements; (ii) failure of Caesars to pay his compensation; (iii) relocation further than 35 miles from Las Vegas, Nevada; (iv) any purported termination of his employment other than as permitted in the agreement; and (v) failure to require a successor to assume the agreement. Additionally, Mr. Barr may terminate his employment for no reason or any reason during the 30-day period immediately following the first anniversary of the change of control and receive the same severance he would receive if he terminated his employment for good reason.

Under Mr. DeLury's change of control agreement, upon termination of his employment following a change of control by Mr. DeLury for good reason or by Caesars other than for cause, disability or death, he is entitled to receive: (i) a lump-sum severance payment equal to two times the sum of base salary plus the higher of the annual bonus paid for the last full fiscal year ending during the employment period or for the last full fiscal year prior to the change of control (fifty percent of which is consideration for certain restrictive covenants in Mr. DeLury's employment agreement, including confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions); (ii) a pro rata bonus for the year of termination (based on the annual bonus as determined according to clause (i)); (iii) a lump-sum payment equal to unpaid compensation previously deferred and accrued vacation; (iv) a lump-sum payment equal to the amount which Caesars would have credited to his account under the deferred compensation plan from the date of termination through the date that is three years following the change of control if he had deferred the average amount deferred in the prior 12 months; and (v) continued health and life insurance benefits through the date that is three years following the change of control date or such longer period provided in the employment agreement or any plan, program, practice or policy. Mr. DeLury will be entitled to a "gross-up" payment to compensate him for any excise tax on excess parachute payments. Completion of the Company's merger with Harrah's will constitute a change of control under Mr. DeLury's change of control agreement. For purposes of Mr. DeLury's change of control agreement, "good reason" includes, generally: (i) assignment of duties inconsistent with his position or material diminution in position, authority or reporting requirements; (ii) failure of the Company to pay his compensation; (iii) relocation further than 35 miles from Las Vegas, Nevada, or Atlantic City, New Jersey; (iv) any purported termination of his employment other than as permitted in the agreement; and (v) failure to require a successor to assume the agreement. On October 6, 2004, Mr. DeLury entered into a letter agreement, described on page 22, which addresses certain of the provisions of the change in control agreement.

Letter Agreements with Messrs. Barr and DeLury

In connection with the Company's merger with Harrah's, Caesars, Harrah's and Mr. Barr entered into a letter agreement as of October 6, 2004, which provides that, in the event Mr. Barr's employment is terminated following a change of control by Caesars (or its successor) without cause or by Mr. Barr for Good Reason (as defined in his employment agreement), he will generally be entitled to receive the compensation and benefits pursuant to his employment agreement rather than pursuant to his change of control agreement. Such compensation and benefits include: (i) a lump-sum cash payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of his base salary and the greater of his annual bonus in respect of fiscal 2003 or 2004; (ii) a lump-sum cash payment representing his accrued obligations; (iii) payment of brokerage commission and, in certain circumstances, payment equal to the fair market value of his Las Vegas, Nevada residence; (iv) continued benefits through March 31, 2006; (v) continued lifetime health, medical, prescription and dental benefits for Mr. Barr and his family; (vi) indemnification coverage and insurance benefits for three years; (vii) a fully-vested supplemental benefit (as described in his employment agreement) and (viii) a gross-up payment, if necessary. The letter agreement also provides for a one-year non-competition restrictive covenant in respect to certain enumerated gaming companies and their affiliates.

In connection with the Company's merger with Harrah's, Caesars, Harrah's and Mr. DeLury entered into a letter agreement as of October 6, 2004, which provides that, in the event Mr. DeLury's employment is terminated following a change of control by Caesars (or its successor) without cause or by Mr. DeLury for Good Reason (as defined in his change of control agreement), he will generally be entitled to receive the compensation and benefits pursuant to his change of control agreement, described on page 21, rather than pursuant to his employment agreement, described on page 20. The compensation and benefits under the letter agreement include: (i) a lump-sum cash payment equal to the sum of 3 times his base salary plus 2 times his annual bonus in respect of fiscal 2004; (ii) a lump-sum cash payment representing a pro-rata bonus for the year of termination; (iii) a lump-sum cash payment representing the accrued obligations; (iv) continued health and life insurance benefits for three years following the change of control date; (v) a lump-sum cash payment equal to the amount which Caesars would have credited to his account under the deferred compensation plan from the date of termination through the date that is three years following the change of control date if he had deferred the average amount deferred in the prior 12 months; and (vi) a gross-up payment, if necessary. The letter agreement also provides for a one-year non-competition restrictive covenant in respect to certain enumerated gaming companies and their affiliates.

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Deloitte & Touche LLP ("Deloitte & Touche") was the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2004. Deloitte & Touche is expected to have representatives present at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders who will have the opportunity to make a statement if such representatives desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. In light of the pending merger between the Company and Harrah's Entertainment, Inc., the Company has not engaged an independent, registered public accounting firm to audit our financial statements for the entire year ending December 31, 2005. Rather, the Company has chosen to engage Deloitte & Touche as our independent registered public accounting firm on a quarter-by-quarter basis.

The following table shows the aggregate fees paid or accrued by the Company for the audit and other services provided by Deloitte & Touche for the fiscal years ended December 31:

	2004	2003
Audit Fees	$ 2,319,436	$ 1,086,450
Audit-Related Fees	$ 274,782	$ 67,997
Tax Fees	$ 41,019	$ 26,331
All Other Fees	$ 0	$ 138,783

The services comprising the fees disclosed under "Audit Fees" consist of fees for the Company's annual audit and quarterly reviews, attestation services related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, Section 404, and services related to SEC filings. The services comprising the fees disclosed under "Audit-Related Fees" are for advisory services related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, Section 404, the audits of the Company's 401(k) employee benefit plans and consulting on financial accounting and reporting matters not arising as a part of the annual audit. The services comprising the fees disclosed under "Tax Fees" are for consulting on various tax-related matters.

Deloitte & Touche may not perform services, whether associated with audit or non-audit functions, unless the services have been approved prior to their performance by the Company's Audit Committee. As part of the Company's pre-approval policy, the Audit Committee must be notified of all services that Deloitte & Touche performs. Each fiscal year, the Audit Committee negotiates and pre-approves the annual fee for the annual audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements. Each fiscal year, the Audit Committee also pre-approves the performance of the following services provided the fees for each category do not exceed 10% of the annual fees for the annual audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements: (i) services related to implementation of new accounting standards; (ii) audits of opening balance sheets of acquired companies and accounting consultations on acquisitions and proposed acquisitions where such services would otherwise be performed in the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements; (iii) services related to procedures used to support the calculation of the gain or loss from dispositions and discontinued operations; (iv) compliance letters, agreed upon procedures, reviews and similar reports related to audited financial statements; (v) audits of financial statements and transactions included in consolidated financial statements that are used by lenders, filed with government and regulatory bodies and similar reports, including affiliate transaction audits; (vi) services that result from the role of Deloitte & Touche as independent auditor such as reviews of Securities and Exchange Commission filings, consents, letters to underwriters and other services related to financings that include audited financial statements; (vii) assistance in reviews and tests of internal controls and internal control reporting requirements; (viii) financial statement audits of employee benefit plans; (ix) SAS 70 attestation reports; (x) electronic accounting research services; (xi) foreign statutory audits and other regulatory reports; (xii) assistance with tax accrual related issues; (xiii) assistance with tax accounting for specific transactions; (xiv) merger and acquisition due diligence services; and (xv) tax services consisting of tax return preparation, review, consulting and assistance, tax planning services; expatriate tax services, transfer pricing tax services, employee benefit tax services and tax co-sourcing.

Since the effectiveness of section 202 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, one hundred percent of the Audit-Related Fees, Tax Fees and All Other Fees for 2004 were either approved in advance by the Audit Committee or within the pre-approval authorization granted by the Audit Committee.
