"Company"). Information in prior amendments and the original Schedule 13D remains in effect except to the extent that it is superseded by subsequently filed information, including the information contained in this Amendment No. 11.

Except as otherwise described herein, the information contained in the Schedule 13D, as amended, remains in effect and all capitalized terms shall have the meaning previously ascribed to them. Information given in response to each item in this Schedule 13D shall be deemed incorporated by reference in all other items.

Item 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND.

The response to Item 2 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and restated as follows.

(a) This Schedule 13D is being filed by (i) Citicorp International Finance Corporation ("Citicorp International Finance"), a Delaware corporation, by virtue of its direct beneficial ownership of the Company's Common Stock; (ii) Citicorp Banking, by virtue of its ownership of all the outstanding common stock of Citicorp International Finance; and (iii) Citigroup, by virtue of its ownership of all the outstanding common stock of Citicorp Banking (each, a "Reporting Person" and collectively, the "Reporting Persons").

Prior to the Merger, (i) Citicorp owned all of the outstanding common stock of Citicorp Banking, (ii) Citigroup Holdings owned all of the outstanding common stock of Citicorp and (iii) Citigroup owned all of the outstanding common stock of Citigroup Holdings. Upon completion of the Merger, Citigroup became the sole stockholder of Citicorp Banking.

Attached as Schedule A is information concerning each executive officer and director of Citicorp International Finance and Citigroup. Schedule A is incorporated into and made a part of this Schedule 13D.

(b) The address of the principal office of each of Citicorp International Finance and Citicorp Banking is One Penn's Way, New Castle, Delaware 19720. The address of the principal office of Citigroup is 399 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10043.

(c) Citicorp International Finance is a company principally engaged in merchant banking investment activities. Citicorp Banking is a holding company principally engaged, through its subsidiaries, in the general financial services business. Citigroup is a diversified holding company providing, through its subsidiaries, a broad range of financial services to consumer and corporate customers worldwide.

(d-e) On November 19, 2001, the SEC instituted public cease-and-desist proceedings against The State Bank of India ("SBI") and Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank"), a subsidiary of Citigroup, related to an unregistered offering of securities in the United States by SBI and Citibank. Citibank was found to have violated Sections 5(a) and (c) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"), by offering and selling securities and was ordered to cease and desist, pursuant to Section 8A of the Securities Act, from committing or causing any violation and any future violation of Sections 5(a) and (c) of the Securities Act.

On December 3, 2002, Salomon Smith Barney Inc. ("Salomon Smith Barney"), now named Citigroup Global Markets Inc. ("CGMI"), a subsidiary of Citigroup, was one of eight respondents to settle SEC, NYSE, and NASD charges of violations of the record-keeping requirements of Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") and Rule 17a-4 thereunder during the period from 1999 to at least 2001. The SEC order found that, during all or part of the relevant period, each Respondent failed to preserve for three years, and/or to preserve in an accessible place for two years, electronic mail communications (including inter-office memoranda and communications) received and sent by its agents and employees that related to its business as a member of an exchange, broker or dealer. The SEC order also found that each of the respondents lacked adequate systems or procedures for the preservation of electronic mail communications. The SEC order required the respondents to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations and any future violations of Section 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 17a-4 promulgated thereunder. Respondents were censured pursuant to Section 15(b)(4) of the Exchange Act. Each respondent was also required to pay the amount of $1,650,000, divided equally between the SEC, NASD, and NYSE.

Edgar Filing: ENOVA SYSTEMS INC - Form SC 13D/A

On April 28, 2003, Salomon Smith Barney announced final agreements with the SEC, the NASD, the NYSE and the New York Attorney General (as lead state among the 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico) to resolve on a civil basis all their outstanding investigations into its research and initial public offering allocation and distribution practices. Salomon Smith Barney paid $300 million for retrospective relief, plus $25 million for investor education, and committed to spend $75 million to provide independent third-party research to its clients at no charge. Salomon Smith Barney adopted new policies and procedures to further ensure the independence of its research and addressed other issues identified in the course of the investigation. Salomon Smith Barney reached these final settlement agreements without admitting or denying any wrongdoing or liability. The settlements did not establish wrongdoing or liability for purposes of any other proceeding.

On July 28, 2003, Citigroup settled enforcement proceedings related to the manipulation of Enron's and Dynegy's financial statements. The Commission found that Citigroup knew or should have known that the acts or omissions described in the Order would contribute to Enron's and Dynegy's violations of Exchange Act Section 10(b) and Exchange Act Rule 10b-5. Consequently, Citigroup was found to be a cause of Enron's and Dynegy's violations within the meaning of Exchange Act Section 21C. Citigroup consented to an order to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, and agreed to pay $120 million as disgorgement, interest and penalty.

On March 23, 2005, the SEC entered an administrative and cease-and-desist order against CGMI. The SEC order found that CGMI willfully violated Section 17(a)(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-10 promulgated under the Exchange Act. Specifically, the order found that there were two distinct disclosure failures by CGMI in the offer and sale of mutual fund shares to its customers. Based on these findings, the Order censured CGMI, required that CGMI cease and desist from committing or causing violations and future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Exchange Act Rule 10b-10, and required that CGMI pay a $20 million civil money penalty.

In a related proceeding on March 22, 2005, the NASD accepted a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent dated March 18, 2005 (the "AWC") that had been submitted by CGMI. Without admitting or denying the findings, CGMI accepted and consented, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of findings by NASD. Based on its findings and with CGMI's consent, the NASD censured CGMI and fined it $6.25 million. In the AWC, CGMI also agreed to complete certain undertakings, including retaining an Independent Consultant, among other things, to conduct a comprehensive review of the completeness of its disclosures regarding the differences in mutual fund share classes and the policies and procedures relating to CGMI's recommendations to its customers of different class shares of mutual funds.

On May 31, 2005, the SEC issued an order in connection with the settlement of an administrative proceeding against Smith Barney Fund Management LLC ("SBFM"), a former subsidiary of Citigroup, and CGMI relating to the appointment of an affiliated transfer agent for the Smith Barney family of mutual funds ("Smith Barney Funds"). The SEC order found that SBFM and CGMI willfully violated Section 206(1) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act"). Specifically, the order found that SBFM and CGMI knowingly or recklessly failed to disclose to the Boards of the Smith Barney Funds in 1999 when proposing a new transfer agent arrangement with an affiliated transfer agent that: First Data Investors Services Group ("First Data"), the Smith Barney Funds' then-existing transfer agent, had offered to continue as transfer agent and do the same work for substantially less money than before; and that the Citigroup Asset Management business unit ("CAM"), the former Citigroup business unit that included the Smith Barney Fund's investment manager and other investment advisory companies, had entered into a side letter with First Data under which CAM agreed to recommend the appointment of First Data as sub-transfer agent to the affiliated transfer agent in exchange, among other things, for a guarantee by First Data of specified amounts of asset management and investment banking fees to CAM and CGMI. The order also found that SBFM and CGMI willfully violated Section 206(2) of the Advisers Act by virtue of the omissions discussed above and other misrepresentations and omissions in the materials provided to the Smith Barney Funds' Boards, including the failure to make clear that the affiliated transfer agent would earn a high profit for performing limited functions while First Data continued to perform almost all of the transfer agent functions, and the suggestion that the proposed arrangement was in the Smith Barney Funds' best interests and that no viable alternatives existed. SBFM and CGMI did not admit or deny any wrongdoing or liability. The settlement did not establish wrongdoing or liability for purposes of any other proceeding. The SEC censured SBFM and CGMI and ordered them to cease and desist from violations of Sections 206(1) and 206(2) of the Advisers Act. The order required Citigroup to pay $208.1 million, including $109 million in disgorgement of profits, $19.1 million in interest, and a civil money penalty of $80 million. The order also required that transfer agency fees received from the Smith Barney Funds since December 1, 2004 less certain expenses be placed in escrow and provided that a portion of such fees may be subsequently distributed in accordance with the terms of the order. The order required SBFM to recommend a new transfer agent contract to the Smith Barney Fund Boards within 180 days of the entry of the order; if a Citigroup affiliate submits a proposal to serve as transfer agent or sub-transfer agent, an independent monitor must be engaged at the expense of SBFM and CGMI to oversee a competitive bidding process. Under the order, Citigroup also must comply with an amended version of a vendor policy that Citigroup instituted in August 2004. That policy, as amended, among other things, requires that when requested by a Smith Barney Fund Board, CAM will retain at its own expense an independent consulting expert to advise and assist the Board on the selection of certain service providers affiliated with Citigroup.
