financial information permitted pursuant to Item 7 of Form 8-K to be excluded from the Initial Form 8-K and filed by amendment to the Initial Form 8-K no later than 60 days after the date the Initial Form 8-K was required to be filed.

ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

Late in the afternoon of June 1, 2004, Boston Scientific Corporation (the "Registrant") and Scimed Life Systems, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Registrant ("Scimed"), completed the acquisition of Advanced Bionics Corporation, a privately-held company located in Valencia, CA, in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated May 28, 2004, among the Registrant, Scimed, Claude Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Scimed, Advanced Bionics Corporation, Bionics Trust and Alfred E. Mann, Jeffrey H. Greiner, and David MacCullum, collectively in their capacity as the Stockholders' Representatives (the "Agreement").

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Registrant acquired 100 percent of the fully diluted equity of Advanced Bionics Corporation for an initial payment of approximately $740 million in cash, plus earn out payments tied to future performance milestones. The initial purchase price was funded by the issuance of commercial paper.

The acquisition has been structured to include a substantial earnout mechanism. Performance milestones are primarily based on the achievement of net sales, with certain milestone payments also tied to profitability.

The performance milestones are segmented by the four principal technology platforms (cochlear implants, implantable pulse generators, drug pumps and bion microstimulators), each with a 72-month earnout horizon. Base earnout payments on these performance milestones approximate two and a quarter times incremental sales for each annual period. There are also bonus earnout payments available based on the attainment of certain aggregate sales performance targets and a certain gross margin level.

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Advanced Bionics Corporation
Valencia, California

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Advanced Bionics Corporation and its subsidiaries (the "Company") as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Edgar Filing: BOSTON SCIENTIFIC CORP - Form 8-K/A

ADVANCED BIONICS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

1. ORGANIZATION

ORGANIZATION--Advanced Bionics Corporation and subsidiaries (the "Company") was founded by Alfred E. Mann, Chairman and Co-chief Executive Officer, ("Mr. Mann") and was incorporated in Delaware in May 1993. The Company has authorized 80,000,000 shares of common stock and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock.

OPERATIONS--The Company's principal activities consist of research, development, manufacture, marketing and sales of neurostimulation devices, including cochlear implants that restore hearing to the deaf, spinal cord stimulators and other devices that provide therapy for a variety of neurological maladies. The Company's net sales during 2003 and 2002 in the United States were approximately $38.6 and $33.4 million representing 68% and 72% of total company net sales, respectively. The majority of these domestic sales were cochlear implants and related accessories sold to hospitals, clinicians and patients. Foreign sales in 2003 and 2002 were approximately $17.8 and $13.3 million representing 32% and 28%, respectively. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, assets aggregating $10.6 and $6.8 million, respectively, are located outside the United States.

Edgar Filing: BOSTON SCIENTIFIC CORP - Form 8-K/A

BASIS OF PRESENTATION--The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company's operations to date have resulted in operating losses. As shown in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, during the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, the Company incurred net losses of approximately $42.4 and $34.5 million, respectively.

Historically, the Company has raised capital from the private placement of its equity securities and borrowings from its Chairman. The management of the Company believes that its existing cash and marketable securities, along with its ability to raise additional capital and financial support from its Chairman, will be adequate to fund operations for a period of at least one year.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION--The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Advanced Bionics Corporation and its direct and indirect wholly owned subsidiaries, Advanced Bionics S.A.R.L. ("S.A.R.L.") and its subsidiaries and Advanced Bionics NV, Antwerp ("Belgium"). All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. The financial statements of the foreign subsidiaries have been translated using the exchange rate at the end of each period as to balance sheet items and the weighted-average exchange rate during each period as to operating results. S.A.R.L.'s and Belgium's functional currency is the Euro. The cumulative translation adjustment is reflected in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). Currency transaction gains/losses are included in the consolidated statement of operations.

USE OF ESTIMATES--The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS--Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and short-term, highly liquid instruments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and are of an original maturity of three months or less.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES--The Company accounts for marketable securities, which are investment instruments with original maturities of greater than three months, as trading securities in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 115, ACCOUNTING FOR CERTAIN INVESTMENTS IN DEBT AND EQUITY SECURITIES.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK--Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist principally of trade accounts receivable. The concentration of credit risk is generally diversified over a large number of customers, including hospitals, physicians and patients, composing the Company's customer base. The Company monitors credit levels and the financial condition of its customers on a continuing basis to minimize credit risk and believes that adequate provision for credit loss has been made in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

The Company is also subject to concentrations of credit risk with respect to cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities. The Company attempts to minimize such risks by entering into these arrangements with major banks and financial institutions and by investing in high-quality instruments.

INVENTORY--Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined by using the first-in, first-out method.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT--Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated three-to-eight year useful lives of the related assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the estimated lives of the assets or the terms of the leases.

OTHER LONG-TERM ASSETS--Other long-term assets consist primarily of identifiable intellectual property in the form of issued U.S. and foreign patents. These patents were either acquired or are capital costs associated with maintaining and defending the Company's patents. The Company amortizes the costs of these patents over 17 years on a straight-line basis. The Company reviews the recoverability of the carrying value of long-lived intangible assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of such assets may not be recoverable in accordance with the methodology prescribed in SFAS No. 144, ACCOUNTING FOR THE IMPAIRMENT OR DISPOSAL OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS.

REVENUE RECOGNITION--The Company recognizes revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, title transfer has occurred, the price is fixed or readily determinable, and collectibility is probable. Sales are recorded net of sales returns and discounts.

DEFERRED REVENUE--The Company offers several incentive programs that enable customers to earn discounts based on volume purchases or receive new or upgraded products at a future date. Until such time as the discounts are taken, or new or upgraded products are delivered to the customer, the fair value of these programs are accounted for as deferred revenue and are included in current liabilities as accrued liabilities.

PRODUCT WARRANTIES--The Company offers warranties on its products for various periods ranging from one to ten years. The Company accrues for product warranties to pay for service, repair and/or replacement of products based on warranty repair cost and the estimated rate of returns. The Company periodically reviews and adjusts its warranty accrual.

ADVANCED BIONICS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT--Research and development costs are expensed as incurred.

INCOME TAXES--Income taxes are provided for taxes currently payable or refundable and deferred income taxes arising from future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's financial statements or tax returns. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred income tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized.

STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION--At December 31, 2003, the Company has stock-based compensation plans, which are described more fully in Note 9. The Company accounts for employee stock options using the intrinsic value method in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, ACCOUNTING FOR STOCK ISSUED TO EMPLOYEES, and its interpretations, and has adopted the disclosure-only alternative of SFAS No. 123, ACCOUNTING FOR STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION. Stock options issued to consultants are accounted for in accordance with the provisions of Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 96-18, ACCOUNTING FOR EQUITY INSTRUMENTS THAT ARE ISSUED TO OTHER THAN EMPLOYEES FOR ACQUIRING, OR IN CONJUNCTION WITH SELLING, GOODS OR SERVICES.

The Company estimates the fair value of employee stock options at the grant date by using the minimum value method with the following weighted-average assumptions as of December 31:

	2003	2002
Risk-free interest rate	2.97 %	4.67 %
Expected lives	5 years	5 years
Dividends	0.00	0.00

The weighted-average estimated fair value of options granted in 2003 and 2002 was $1.14 and $1.85, respectively.

Had compensation cost been determined under the accounting provisions of SFAS No. 123, the Company's net loss would have been adjusted to the pro forma amounts indicated below (in thousands):

	2003	2002
Net loss - as reported	$(42,443)	$(34,483)

	=====	=====

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS--In December 2003, the FASB issued FIN 46R, CONSOLIDATION OF VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITIES. This pronouncement requires that the assets, liabilities and results of the activity of variable interest entities be consolidated into the financial statements of the company that has controlling financial interest. It also provides the framework for determining whether a variable interest entity should be consolidated based on voting interest or significant financial support provided to it. Application of FIN 46R is required in financial statements of entities that have interests in variable interest entities, or potential variable interest entities commonly referred to as special-purpose entities, for periods ending after December 15, 2003. Application by entities (other than small business issuers) for all other types of entities is required in financial statements for periods ending after March 15, 2004.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2003 AND 2002

Management believes that the adoption of FIN 46R will not have a material impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

RECLASSIFICATIONS--Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2002 financial statements to conform to the 2003 presentation.

3. MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company has classified all marketable securities as trading securities, which requires the securities to be reported at fair value with net realized and unrealized gains and losses included in net loss. The following is a summary of the trading securities classified as current assets as of December 31 (in thousands):

	2003	2002

(subject to adjustment) at the option of Mr. Mann. The holders of the preferred stock are entitled to preferred distributions, in the event the Company is liquidated, dissolved or wound up, of $7.25 per preferred share (approximately $1.0 million in the aggregate).

In January 2002, the Company completed a private placement of shares of the Company's common stock to accredited investors. Under the private placement, the Company issued 8,673,707 shares of common stock, at a purchase price of $9.00 per share, for total proceeds of approximately $78.1 million. In addition, under the private placement, the Company paid Besinor Invest and Finance Corporation ("Besinor"), an affiliate of a director of the Company, 5% of all private placement stock sales that they referred to the Company in common stock valued at $8.55 per share. The total number of shares issued to Besinor was 259,472. Concurrently with the private placement of common stock, Mr. Mann purchased 134,000 shares of Series B convertible preferred stock of the Company for approximately $50.3 million. The total proceeds received from the sale of the common stock and preferred stock was approximately $128.4 million. As of December 31, 2001, the Company had received total proceeds from the sale of preferred and common stock of approximately $122.7 million. All stock was issued during 2002.

The Series B preferred stock is convertible into an aggregate of 5,583,333 shares of common stock of the Company (subject to adjustment) at the option of Mr. Mann or upon the occurrence of certain other events, including the signing of an underwriting agreement with respect to a public offering of the common stock of the Company. The holder of the Series B preferred stock is entitled to preferred distributions in the event the Company is liquidated, dissolved or wound up of $50 per preferred share ($6.7 million in the aggregate).

In October 2002, the Company issued 80,000 shares of Series C convertible preferred stock to Mr. Mann in exchange for 4,285,714 shares of common stock that had been issued to him in July 2001 for the cancellation of a $30 million loan made to the Company. The loan originated in December 2000. The preferred stock is convertible into 4,285,714 shares of common stock (subject to adjustment) at the option of Mr. Mann after July 31, 2003 or upon the occurrence of certain other events, including the signing of an underwriting agreement with respect to a public offering of the common stock of the Company. A value of approximately $8.6 million has been ascribed to the beneficial conversion feature of this preferred stock issuance. The holder of the preferred stock is entitled to preferred distributions in the event the Company is liquidated, dissolved or wound up of $50 per preferred share ($4.0 million in the aggregate).

Subsequent to the liquidation preference as described above on the Series A, B and C preferred stock, any remaining amounts will be distributed to the holders of the common stock until they have received in the aggregate (not per share) an amount equal to the aggregate preferential amount delivered to the holders of the preferred stock, and thereafter the holders of the preferred stock and the common stock share in distributions pro rata based on the number of shares of common stock issuable on conversion of the preferred stock. Holders of the Series A, B and C preferred stock are not entitled to vote on any matters except as required by law.

9. STOCK OPTIONS

During 1994, the Company adopted a qualified stock option plan, which provided that employees, consultants and advisors may be granted options to purchase an aggregate of up to 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The options are granted at fair value for terms of up to ten years and vest in equal annual increments over three to four years.

During 1997, 1999, 2001 and 2003 the Company adopted second, third, fourth and fifth qualified stock option plans, which provided that employees, consultants and advisors may be granted options to purchase an aggregate of up to 1,500,000, 2,500,000, 2,000,000 and 2,000,000 shares, respectively, of the Company's common stock. Stock options are usually granted at the fair value of the Company's common stock at the grant date for terms of up to ten years and vest in equal annual increments over four to five years.

As of December 31, 2003, there were 2,986,795 shares available for grant under the plans. Stock option activity is as follows:

10. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

OPERATING LEASES--Minimum fixed payments required under real estate operating leases in effect are as follows as of December 31, 2003 (in thousands):

Year Ending December 31	Related Party	Other	Total
2004	$1,844	$179	$2,023
2005	1,421	134	1,555
2006	1,503	70	1,573
2007	1,586	23	1,609

Rental expense under operating leases amounted to approximately $2.0 and $1.6 million in 2003 and 2002, respectively.

LITIGATION--During July 2002, after preliminary research and discussions with the Food and Drug Administration, the Company recalled all outstanding Clarion products from the market due to concerns that the "positioner" generally used with the device may have had a role in causing meningitis in patients. The Company removed the positioner from the recalled implants and was approved to begin shipping implants in September 2002. The Company is unable to determine the ultimate liability, if any, which may result from this issue; however, the outcome of any litigation related to this issue could have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

The Company is also involved in other routine litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, none of the other routine litigation will have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

LEGAL SETTLEMENTS--During 2003 the Company settled various legal matters totaling $2.7 million. These settlements include employment litigation and a settlement with Quallion LLC, a related party, for the cancellation of finished goods orders made by the Company and research and development activities. The Quallion LLC settlement totals $2.1 million (200,000 shares of common stock in the Company valued at $9.00 per share and $300,000 in cash).

Edgar Filing: BOSTON SCIENTIFIC CORP - Form 8-K/A

In March 2000, the Company entered into an exclusive license and distribution agreement whereby Medical Research Group, Inc. ("MRG"), a related party, granted exclusive distribution and sales rights with respect to certain technology to the Company. The license agreement provides for the Company to pay to MRG 200,000 shares of common stock and $5.0 million in cash to fund research and development activities. During 2001, MRG was sold to Medtronic, Inc. ("Medtronic") and the Company pursued litigation against Medtronic for breach of contract. During 2002, the Company settled this litigation against Medtronic in exchange for $8.0 million and the return of 200,000 shares of common stock in the Company valued at $9.00 per share, for a total legal settlement amount of $9.8 million.

11. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has a related-party payable to Mr. Mann in the amount of approximately $11.0 and $10.9 million at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The amounts outstanding at December 31, 2003 include $10.5 million in principal and approximately $0.5 million in accrued interest, which is being accrued at an annual rate of 1.8%. Amounts outstanding under the related-party payable are due upon demand or convertible to equity in the Company at fair market value.

The Company's sole supplier of batteries for its devices is Quallion LLC, a related party that is substantially owned by Mr. Mann. During 2003 and 2002, the Company purchased products from Quallion LLC totaling approximately $2.1 and $3.6 million, respectively, and has a payable to the related party of approximately $0.2 and $0.06 million as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

The Company conducts a portion of its operations in facilities leased from Mann Biomedical Park LLC and Sylmar Biomedical Park LLC, both of which are related parties owned by Mr. Mann. Total rent expense relating to these operating lease agreements was approximately $2.4 and $2.0 million during 2003 and 2002, respectively.

During 2003, the Company reimbursed Mannco LLC, a related party that is owned by Mr. Mann, for the business use of a non-commercial airplane. The reimbursement for 2003 totaled $0.2 million.

During 1999, the Company and the Alfred E. Mann Foundation ("AEM Foundation") entered into license agreements whereby the AEM Foundation granted the Company licenses with respect to certain cochlear technology. The license agreements provide for the Company to pay royalties at the rate of 3% of net sales (as defined), except that the royalties payable with respect to the licensed cochlear technology decline to 2.5% in the fifth through eighth years and 2% thereafter. The Company accrues the royalty for the use of this technology to the AEM Foundation, based on net sales. Royalty expense was approximately $1.6 and $1.4 million in 2003 and 2002, respectively. The accrued royalty at the end of 2003 and 2002 was approximately $0.7 and $0.3 million, respectively. During 2003, the Company entered into negotiations with the AEM Foundation to amend this agreement in an attempt to reduce its future royalty expenses and improve the overall gross profitability of the Company.

During 1999, the Company and the AEM Foundation also entered into license agreements whereby the AEM Foundation granted the Company licenses with respect to certain neurostimulation ("bion(R)") technology. The agreements provide the Company the exclusive and/or worldwide rights to the use of certain patents owned by the AEM Foundation. The agreements require royalty payments, to the AEM Foundation, of 3% of net sales from sales related to the agreements. There have been no sales from the sale of the licensed products since inception of the agreements. The agreements also contain certain termination rights on the part of the AEM Foundation if the Company does not reach certain developmental and revenue targets by certain dates. As of December 31, 2003, the Company does not expect to meet all of these targets. During 2003, the Company entered into negotiations with the AEM Foundation to amend the agreements.

12. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

The Company has a defined contribution retirement plan, which is available to substantially all full-time employees of the Company. In 2003 and 2002, the Company made contributions of approximately $0.4 and $0.4 million, respectively.

As of December 31, 2003, the Company had net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards for federal and state income tax purposes of approximately $122.1 and $20.7 million, respectively. For state income tax purposes, the Company amortizes certain research and development expenses over a fixed period of time, thereby minimizing their NOL carryforwards, which have brief carryforward periods. These NOL carryforwards expire through 2023 as to federal and 2004 as to state. The components of deferred income tax assets are as follows as of December 31 (in thousands):

14. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

SALE OF COMPANY--On March 19, 2004, the Company entered into a non-binding agreement to sell the Company.

EQUITY TRANSACTIONS--On March 22, 2004, Mr. Mann converted all of his holdings in the Company's Series A, B and C preferred stock to common stock. The effect of this transaction increased the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock by 15,519,047 shares and eliminated all issued and outstanding shares of the Company's preferred stock.

ACQUISITIONS--On February 1, 2004, the Company acquired from its Japanese distributor, Getz Bros. Co., Ltd. ("Getz"), the right to market and sell its cochlear products in Japan. Prior to acquiring these rights the Company established an incorporated wholly owned subsidiary in Japan, Bionics Japan Co., Ltd. ("Nihon Bionics").

1. ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

ORGANIZATION

Advanced Bionics Corporation and subsidiaries (the "Company") was founded by Alfred E. Mann, Chairman and Co-chief Executive Officer ("Mr. Mann") and was incorporated in Delaware in May 1993. The Company has authorized 80,000,000 shares of common stock and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock.

BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

The Company's principal activities consist of research, development, manufacture, marketing and sales of neurostimulation devices including cochlear implants that restore hearing to the deaf, spinal cord stimulators and other devices that provide therapy for a variety of neurological maladies.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The condensed consolidated financial information presented herein is unaudited. Advanced Bionics Corporation is responsible for the unaudited financial statements included in this document. The financial statements include all normal recurring adjustments that are considered necessary for the fair presentation of the financial position and operating results. Operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2004. The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and notes thereto do not include all disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and should be read in conjunction with Advanced Bionics Corporation's annual audited financial statements for 2003.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant accounting estimates used include depreciation, amortization and stock compensation expense. Management believes that it exercised reasonableness in deriving these amounts. Advanced Bionics is subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ from estimated results, such as changes in the healthcare environment, competition, foreign exchange and legislation.

3. COMPREHENSIVE LOSS

The following table sets forth the Company's comprehensive loss for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003 (in thousands):

also includes allegations of misappropriation of trade secrets and tortious interference with a contract. The suit was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas and seeks monetary and injunctive relief. The Company has answered, denying the allegations of the complaint. On June 25, 2004, a motion to dismiss and request for transfer of venue to California was filed.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On April 14, 2004, the Company acquired MRP-A, LLC, a related party substantially owned by Mr. Mann, engaged in the research and development of an implantable, programmable pump for the treatment of chronic pain for 2.3 million shares of the Company's common stock.

On June 1, 2004, Boston Scientific Corporation acquired 100 percent of the fully diluted equity of the Company for an initial payment of approximately $740 million in cash, plus earn out payments tied to future performance milestones.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

On June 1, 2004, Boston Scientific Corporation completed its acquisition of Advanced Bionics Corporation for an initial payment of approximately $740 million in cash, plus earn out payments tied to future performance milestones (Advanced Bionics Acquisition). The initial purchase price was funded by the issuance of commercial paper.

The aggregate Advanced Bionics Acquisition purchase price was allocated on a preliminary basis to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values at the date of acquisition. The excess of purchase price over the fair value of net tangible assets acquired was allocated to specific intangible asset categories as follows:

(in millions)

Core technology	$	326
Developed technology		26
Customer related intangible assets		10
Purchased research and development		50
Goodwill		406

During the second quarter of 2004, the Company recorded a $50 million charge to account for purchased research and development acquired. The valuation of purchased research and development was based upon an analysis of those projects that had not reached technological feasibility and had no alternative future use. The valuation considered expected future cash flows and was discounted for risks and uncertainties related to target markets and completion of products.

In addition, the Company recorded a deferred tax asset of $35 million and a deferred tax liability of $134 million. The deferred tax asset is primarily attributable to net operating loss carryforwards. The deferred tax liability mainly relates to the tax impact of amortization that is attributable to the identified intangible assets acquired in the acquisition. The remaining net tangible assets acquired were not significant.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial information is based on the historical consolidated financial statements of Boston Scientific and the historical consolidated financial statements of Advanced Bionics Corporation under the assumptions and adjustments set forth in the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial information. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of operations for the twelve months ended December 31, 2003 and the three months ended March 31, 2004 give effect to the transaction as if it had occurred on January 1, 2003. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2004 gives effect to the transaction as if it had occurred on that date.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial information may not be indicative of the results that actually would have occurred if the Advanced Bionics Acquisition had been in effect on the dates indicated or which may be obtained in the future. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial information should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements of Boston Scientific and the historical consolidated financial statements of Advanced Bionics Corporation and the notes accompanying these statements.

BOSTON SCIENTIFIC CORPORATION AND ADVANCED BIONICS CORPORATION

NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information has been prepared to reflect the Advanced Bionics Acquisition accounted for under the purchase method of accounting and excludes any benefits from synergies that may result from the Advanced Bionics Acquisition. The condensed statements of operations for the twelve months ended December 31, 2003 and the three months ended March 31, 2004 give effect to the transaction as if it had occurred on January 1, 2003. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2004 gives effect to the transaction as if it had occurred on that date.

The Company's best estimate of future contingent consideration (undiscounted) that it may be required to make associated with its acquisition of Advanced Bionics is approximately $2.0 billion. The estimated cumulative revenue level associated with its best estimate is approximately $4.5 billion during the period from 2004 through 2013. These payments, when and if made, will be allocated to goodwill.

The following is a description of pro forma adjustments reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of operations:

- i. Represents the reclassification of Advanced Bionics Corporation's royalties to conform with Boston Scientific's presentation.
- ii. Represents the amortization of intangible assets obtained as part of the Advanced Bionics Acquisition. The amortization is based on the preliminary allocation to specific intangible asset categories using estimated useful lives associated with these specific intangible asset categories. The intangible assets are amortized using the straight-line method over their useful lives as follows: developed technology, 5 years; core technology, 20 years; customer related intangible assets, 15 years.
- iii. The objective of the pro forma financial information is to provide information about the continuing impact of the Advanced Bionics Acquisition by showing how it might have affected historical operating results if the acquisition was consummated at the beginning of the most recent fiscal year. As such, the $50 million charge for purchased research and development that was a direct result of the transaction is excluded from the unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of operations.

- iv. Represents the estimated increase in interest expense from the commercial paper issued in connection with the Advanced Bionics Acquisition. The estimated increase in interest expense assumes the commercial paper issued in connection with the Advanced Bionics Acquisition remained outstanding during the periods presented.
- v. Represents the estimated tax effect of the pro forma adjustments based on the statutory rates in effect during the respective periods and the tax benefit for the losses incurred by Advanced Bionics during the respective periods.

The following is a description of pro forma adjustments reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed balance sheet:

- a. Represents the preliminary purchase price allocation to give effect to the transaction as though it had occurred on the balance sheet date.
- b. Represents commercial paper issued to fund the initial purchase price of the Advanced Bionics Acquisition.
- c. Represents the elimination of stockholders' equity in Advanced Bionics Corporation.
- d. Represents the elimination of the accumulated deficit associated with Advanced Bionics Corporation and the impact of recording $50 million of purchased research and development.
