AMENDMENT TO OUR COMPANY S ARTICLES

Our Amended Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles") currently authorize the issuance of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $.001 par value, and no shares of preferred stock. On May 31, 2005, our board of directors approved, subject to receiving the approval of a majority of the shareholders of our common stock, an amendment to our Articles to change the name of our company from "Texen Oil & Gas, Inc." to "SNRG Corporation", to increase our authorized shares of common stock to 500,000,000 shares, and authorize the issuance of up to 300,000,000 shares of preferred stock in the capital of our company, for which our board of directors may fix and determine the designations, rights, preferences or other variations of each class or series within each class of the shares of preferred stock.

The general purpose and effect of the amendment to our company's Articles is to change the name of our company to SNRG Corporation, to increase our authorized share capital and authorize the Preferred Shares, which will enhance our company's ability to finance the development and operation of our business.

We have decided that a change of name is appropriate because we are expanding our focus from oil and gas into developing other natural and synthetic resource-oriented projects. The expanded activities of the company are intended to include oil and gas, syn-fuels, chemicals, mining, and recycling.

Our board of directors approved the amendment to our company's Articles to change the name of our company, to increase our authorized share capital and authorize the Preferred Shares so that such shares will be available for issuance for general corporate purposes, including financing activities, without the requirement of further action by our shareholders. Potential uses of the additional authorized shares and Preferred Shares may include public or private offerings, conversions of convertible securities, issuance of options pursuant to employee benefit plans, acquisition transactions and other general corporate purposes. Increasing the authorized number of shares of our common stock and allowing for the ability to issue the Preferred Shares will give us greater flexibility and will allow us to issue such shares in most cases without the expense of delay of seeking shareholder approval. Our company is at all times investigating additional sources of financing which our board of directors believes will be in our best interests and in the best interests of our shareholders. We do not currently have any plans, proposals, agreements or understandings, written or otherwise, for any transaction that would require the issuance of additional shares of common stock or of any Preferred shares. Our common shares carry no pre-emptive rights to purchase additional shares. The adoption of the amendments to our Articles of Incorporation will not of itself cause any changes in our capital accounts.

The amendment to our company's Articles to change the name of our company, to increase our authorized share capital and authorize the Preferred Shares will not have any immediate effect on the rights of existing shareholders. However, our board of directors will have the authority to issue authorized common stock and the Preferred Shares without requiring future shareholders approval of such issuances, except as may be required by applicable law or exchange regulations. To the extent that additional authorized common shares are issued in the future, they will decrease the existing shareholders' percentage equity ownership and, depending upon the price at which they are issued, could be dilutive to the existing shareholders.

The increase in the authorized number of shares of our common stock and the subsequent issuance of such shares could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control of our company without further action by the shareholders. Shares of authorized and unissued common stock could be issued (within limits imposed by applicable law) in one or more transactions. Any such issuance of additional stock could have the effect of diluting the earnings per share and book value per share of outstanding shares of common stock, and such additional shares could be used to dilute the stock ownership or voting rights of a person seeking to obtain control of our company.

Our board of directors may authorize and issue classes of Preferred Shares that have rights that are preferential to our common stock. Such rights may include:

- the payment of dividends in preference and priority to any dividends on our common stock;
- preference to any distributions upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our company;
- voting rights that may rank equally to, or in priority over, our common stock;
- mandatory redemption by the company in certain circumstances, for amounts that may exceed the purchase price of the Preferred Shares;
- conversion provisions for the conversion of the Preferred Shares into common stock;
- pre-emptive or first refusal rights in regards to future issuances of common stock or Preferred Shares by the company; or
- rights that restrict our company from undertaking certain corporate actions without the approval of the holders of the Preferred Shares.

We do not have any provisions in our Articles, by laws, or employment or credit agreements to which we are party that have anti-takeover consequences. We do not currently have any plans to adopt anti-takeover provisions or enter into any arrangements or understandings that would have anti-takeover consequences. In certain circumstances, our management may issue additional shares to resist a third party takeover transaction, even if done at an above market premium and favoured by a majority of independent shareholders.

Shareholder approval for the Amendments to our Articles of Incorporation was obtained by written consent of shareholders owning 50,215,664 shares of our common stock, which represented 50.7% on the record date, June 13, 2005. The change of name, the increase in our authorized capital and the creation of the Preferred Shares will not become effective until not less than twenty (20) days after this Information Statement is first mailed to shareholders of our common stock and until the appropriate filings have been made with the Nevada Secretary of State.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS

Under Nevada law, shareholders of our common stock are not entitled to dissenter's rights of appraisal with respect to our proposed Amendments to our Articles of Incorporation.
