Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously announced, on December 12, 2016, the boards of Teledyne Technologies Incorporated (“Teledyne”) and e2v technologies plc (“e2v”) announced that they had reached agreement on the terms of a recommended cash offer by Teledyne (the “Offer”), through a wholly-owned subsidiary, for the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of e2v (the “Acquisition”). In connection with the Acquisition, the Company entered into the financing arrangements described in this Item 1.01.

Third Amendment to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement

On March 17, 2017, Teledyne entered into an amendment (the “Amendment”) to its Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of March 1, 2013, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of December 4, 2015 and that certain Second Amendment to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of January 17, 2017 (the “Credit Agreement”).

The Amendment (i) increases the aggregate amount of priority indebtedness (as defined in the Credit Agreement) that may be incurred by subsidiaries of Teledyne from 15% of consolidated net worth (as defined in the Credit Agreement) to 20% of consolidated net worth and (ii) updates the definition for the audited financial statements of Teledyne that is used in certain representations in, and other provisions of, the Credit Agreement, to refer to Teledyne’s audited financial statements for its fiscal year ended January 1, 2017.

Term Loan Credit Agreement

On March 17, 2017, Teledyne and its subsidiary, Teledyne Netherlands B.V., as borrowers, entered into a Term Loan Credit Agreement with the several banks and other financial institutions from time to time parties thereto as lenders, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, sole lead arranger and sole book manager (the “Term Loan Credit Agreement”). Pursuant to the Term Loan Credit Agreement, the lenders thereunder have committed to make unsecured term loans in an aggregate principal amount of up to $100 million. Teledyne Brown Engineering, Inc., Teledyne Instruments, Inc., Teledyne Scientific & Imaging, LLC and Teledyne LeCroy, Inc., each of which is a subsidiary of Teledyne and a guarantor of the indebtedness under the Credit Agreement and certain other indebtedness of Teledyne, are also guarantors of the loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement. Teledyne is also a guarantor for any loans made under the Term Loan Credit Agreement to Teledyne Netherlands B.V.

Loans made under the Term Loan Credit Agreement mature on October 30, 2019. Interest accrues on the loans made under the Term Loan Credit Agreement at variable rates which are, at the borrower’s option, tied to either a eurocurrency rate (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement), determined with reference to the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus an applicable margin, or a base rate (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) determined with reference to the highest of the federal funds rate plus 50 bps, Bank of America, N.A.’s prime rate and the eurocurrency rate plus 100 bps, in each case, plus an applicable margin. Eurocurrency rate-based loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement have interest periods of one, two, three or six months, as selected by the borrower. The applicable margin used in determining the interest on both eurocurrency rate loans and base rate loans are subject to change based on Teledyne’s consolidated leverage ratio as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement.

The commitments of the lenders to fund term loans under the Term Loan Credit Agreement are subject to customary “certain funds” provisions consistent with the United Kingdom City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (the “Code”), and remain in effect until the earlier of, among other things: (i) June 11, 2017; or (ii) the date on which the scheme of arrangement or, if applicable, the takeover offer under the Code with respect to the Acquisition has become effective, wholly unconditional or has lapsed or been terminated or withdrawn.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement contains customary representations and covenants that are substantially similar to the representations and covenants set forth in the Credit Agreement.

Similar to the events of default under the Credit Agreement, the events of default under the Term Loan Credit Agreement include but are not limited to (i) a default in the payment of principal of the loans or, following a period of 5 business days, of interest, fees and other amounts; (ii) a breach of certain of Teledyne’s covenants or, following the expiration of a period of 30 days following knowledge or notice thereof, any other covenants, under the Term Loan Credit Agreement; (iii) a breach of any representations under the Term Loan Credit Agreement, (iv) any payment default or any other event of default giving the holder thereof the right to accelerate the maturity of indebtedness of, or swap termination amount from, Teledyne or any subsidiary if the total amount of such indebtedness or swap termination amount exceeds $50 million; (v) events of bankruptcy, insolvency or liquidation involving Teledyne or any of Teledyne’s subsidiaries; (vi) the occurrence of a final judgment in amount in excess of $50 million, net of insurance coverage, or that would have a material adverse effect (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) rendered against Teledyne or any of Teledyne’s subsidiaries, in each case, that is not vacated, satisfied or stayed within 30 days; (vii) the failure to maintain funding standards in ERISA-based plans and certain other liabilities related to ERISA based plans that result in a material adverse effect on Teledyne; (viii) the Term Loan Credit Agreement or any related agreement ceases to be in effect or is contested by any borrower or guarantor; or (ix) a change of control (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) occurs.

In the ordinary course of their respective businesses, certain of the lenders and the other parties to the Term Loan Credit Agreement and their respective affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in commercial banking, investment banking, financial advisory or other services with Teledyne and its affiliates for which they have in the past and/or may in the future receive customary compensation and expense reimbursement.

The descriptions set forth above are qualified in their entirety by the Amendment and the Term Loan Credit Agreement, copies of which are filed as exhibits to this report and are incorporated by reference herein.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

As of March 20, 2017, each of the anti-trust and regulatory conditions to the Acquisition have now been satisfied or waived. A court hearing to approve the scheme of arrangement implementing the Acquisition has been scheduled for March 27, 2017, and it is expected that the scheme of arrangement will become effective on March 28, 2017.
