MTS Announces Subscriber Growth Numbers for June 2004

Moscow, Russian Federation July 7, 2004 Mobile TeleSystems OJSC (MTS - NYSE: MBT), the largest mobile phone operator in Russia and Ukraine, announces that its consolidated subscriber base reached 22.78 million users on June 30, 2004.

During June 2004, MTS consolidated subscriber base on a net basis increased by 1.49 million subscribers, of which 270,000 were added in Moscow and the Moscow region.

Commenting on the results, MTS Vice President, Mikhail Susov, said: The growth rate of mobile communications in Russia is impressive. In particular, growth in the Moscow mobile phone market, which is the most developed and competitive market in Russia, did not slow down this month despite the start of the summer season. MTS was the main driving force behind this growth with, once again, record new additions. Furthermore, the growth rate in neighboring countries, such as Ukraine and Belarus, is exceptionally high.

At the end of June 2004 MTS completed its acquisition of the remaining 50% stake in Primtelefon. As the result of this transaction, MTS consolidated subscriber base grew by more than 215,000 thousand in the Far East and Siberia.
