Item 1.01.

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Separation Agreement and General Release Nancy F. Lanis

On February 23, 2005, Curative Health Services, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (the Company) entered into a Separation Agreement (the Separation Agreement) with Nancy F. Lanis, the Company's Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary. Ms. Lanis serves in her position pursuant to an Employment Agreement, dated June 25, 2001, as amended by the Amendment to the Employment Agreement, dated July 24, 2002, the Acknowledgment of Assignment Agreement, dated June 3, 2003 and the Amendment to and Second Acknowledgment of Assignment of Employment Agreement, dated August 19, 2003 (together, the Employment Agreement). As previously reported on a Form 8-K filed by the Company on December 20, 2004, the Company has decided to consolidate its headquarters and corporate functions in Nashua, New Hampshire. Ms. Lanis has elected not to relocate to New Hampshire and therefore has resigned effective May 31, 2005, and entered into the Separation Agreement and a general release with the Company.

Under the Separation Agreement, Ms. Lanis has agreed that her last day of employment shall be May 31, 2005 and she will resign from any officer positions she currently holds at the Company on that date. The Company granted Ms. Lanis a restricted stock award of 10,000 shares of the Company's common stock as a retention bonus. These restricted shares shall become vested on May 31, 2005, subject to fulfillment of certain conditions. Subject to the execution of the Separation Agreement and general releases (and provided that Ms. Lanis does not revoke and or rescind the releases), the Company has agreed to pay Ms. Lanis, no later than the 16th day following May 31, 2005, a lump sum payment in the gross amount of $250,076.00, subject to applicable payroll withholding. The Company has also agreed to pay Ms. Lanis a lump sum payment in the gross amount of $74,572.00, subject to applicable payroll withholding, no later than June 30, 2005. The Company has also agreed to provide Ms. Lanis, for a twelve-month period beginning June 2005, with welfare benefits (including life and health insurance benefits) of substantially similar design and cost to Ms. Lanis as the benefits available to her prior to May 31, 2005. Furthermore, any unvested stock option awards held by Ms. Lanis which would otherwise vest and become exercisable during the 12 month period after May 31, 2005 shall vest and become exercisable on May 31, 2005. Subject to this accelerated vesting, all other unvested options held by Ms. Lanis shall expire on May 31, 2005. Ms. Lanis has covenanted not to compete with the Company for a period of two years after May 31, 2005, subject to certain exceptions. She will also disclose this non-compete covenant to prospective employers prior to her accepting such employment. Furthermore, for one year after May 31, 2005, she shall not directly or indirectly solicit or hire, or assist any other person in soliciting or hiring, any employee or recruits of the Company who are employees or recruits as of May 31, 2005. Ms. Lanis has also agreed to provide reasonable cooperation with respect to any claims, charges or lawsuits relating to events which transpired during her employment at the Company and to cases which she managed in her capacity as General Counsel of the Company.

GE Amendments

On February 28, 2005, the Company and all of its subsidiaries entered into the Fourth Amendment to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Fourth Amendment) with General Electric Capital Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the GE Capital), effective as of December 31, 2004, to further amend the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated April 23, 2004, as amended (the Credit Agreement). This Fourth Amendment restates the covenants for Total Leverage Ratio (as defined in the Credit Agreement) and Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (as defined in the Credit Agreement).

Furthermore, this Fourth Amendment amends the definition of Applicable Percentage to mean (a) three percent (3%), in the case of a prepayment or reduction on or prior to March 1, 2006, (b) two percent (2%), in the case of a prepayment or reduction after March 1, 2006 but on or prior to March 1, 2007, and (c) one percent (1%), in the case of a prepayment or reduction after March 1, 2007, but on or prior to March 1, 2008. The Company paid GE Capital an amendment fee of $200,000 for executing the Fourth Amendment.

On March 1, 2005, Curative Health Services, Inc. The release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.06

Material Impairments

The Company conducted an annual impairment test related to the carrying value of its goodwill and other intangibles assets. In accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, management concluded on February 24, 2005, that an impairment charge of $134.8 million needed to be taken to reduce the Specialty Infusion segment goodwill and intangibles to their estimated fair value, as of December 31, 2004. This charge resulted primarily from changes in the economics of the Specialty Infusion business, including the much-publicized changes in reimbursement methodology that occurred in the second half of 2004. At this time, the Company does not expect the impairment charge to result in any future cash expenditures.

Item 8.01

Other Events

The Company announced on March 1, 2005, that Mr. Joseph Feshbach stepped down as Chairman of the Board of Directors and Mr. Timothy Maudlin has been appointed Chairman of the Board, effective on February 25, 2005.
