PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant is unable to file the Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2007 within the prescribed period for the following reasons:

- Cyanotech Corporation has not yet filed its Form 10-K for the period ended March 31, 2007 because of accounting issues concerning valuation of fixed assets. These issues may be resolved this week and the Form 10-K filed promptly thereafter. The Company can then, in reasonably short order, complete changes in 1st Quarter fiscal year 2008 figures occasioned by the final changes in Form 10-K. The Company will then be able to file Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2007 subject to any unforeseen events in the Company's preparation, or its independent registered public accountant's review, of Form 10-Q.
- The events discussed above, coupled with the delay until early July 2007 in the hiring of the Company's new Controller of Inventory and Cost Accounting, resulted in delays closing the Company's books and dealing with relevant audit and disclosure matters with respect to the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2007.

These matters could not be resolved by the required filing date without unreasonable effort and expense.

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

See Note to Part IV (3) Below

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Explanation of the anticipated change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year which will be reflected by the earnings statement to be included in Cyanotech Corporation's Form 10-Q for the year ended June 30, 2007.

Cyanotech Corporation does not expect its results of operations for the period ended June 30, 2007 to be significantly different than results reported for the corresponding period for the comparable fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2006. However, as of the date of this filing the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 is still being reviewed by the Company and its independent registered public accountants. Such review, as well as other unforeseen events, could cause the answer to Part IV(3) to change. However, at the time of this filing the Company does not expect such change, nor can it reasonably predict such change or the magnitude or direction of such change.
