Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 20, 2009, Quidel Corporation (the Company) announced the appointment of Douglas C. Bryant as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and as a member of the Board of Directors, as discussed under Item 5.02 of this current report on Form 8-K. In connection with the appointment of Mr. Bryant, the Company and Mr. Bryant entered into, on January 16, 2009, an employment agreement (the Employment Agreement), a stock option agreement (the Stock Option Agreement), a restricted stock award agreement (the Restricted Stock Agreement) and a change in control agreement (the Agreement Re: Change in Control). In addition, the Company and Mr. Bryant entered into, on January 16, 2009, an indemnification agreement consistent with the Company's form of indemnification agreement for its officers and directors. A copy of the Company's form of indemnification agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company's Form 8-K filed as of August 23, 2005.

The Employment Agreement sets forth the terms of Mr. Bryant's employment with the Company and provides for, among other matters: (i) a minimum base salary of $450,000 per annum, subject to adjustment upward by the Board of Directors or its Compensation Committee; (ii) an annual cash incentive bonus based upon attainment of performance goals set by the Board of Directors or its Compensation Committee with a target of at least 80% of base salary and a maximum opportunity of up to 120% of base salary; (iii) an inducement bonus of $200,000 with a gross up for taxes payable during his first week of employment with a claw-back provision in the event of voluntary termination by Mr. Bryant or termination for cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) within one year of commencement of employment; (iv) non-qualified stock options to purchase up to 700,000 shares of the Company's common stock (the Stock Options), under the terms and conditions of the Stock Option Agreement; and (v) 100,000 shares of restricted stock (the Restricted Stock), under the terms and conditions of the Restricted Stock Agreement, acquired for $0.01 per share. The Stock Options vest 50% percent on the second anniversary of the grant date and 25% annually thereafter and will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock as of the grant date determined in accordance with the Company's 2001 equity incentive plan. The Restricted Stock vests 25% per year on each anniversary of the grant date over four years.

Mr. Bryant is also eligible to receive up to an additional $100,000 payment with a gross up for taxes in connection actual moving costs, brokerage commissions and other expenses of selling Mr. Bryant's existing home in Texas and expenses of purchasing a home in California (other than its purchase price and loan interest and points) in the event such actual expenses are in excess of $200,000 and upon the mutual agreement of Mr. Bryant and the Board or its Compensation Committee (the Excess Relocation Payment). The amount of the Excess Relocation Payment shall be equal to the amount of such actual costs and expenses in excess of $200,000 and is also subject to a claw-back provision in the event of voluntary termination by Mr. Bryant or termination for cause within one year of receipt of the Excess Relocation Payment.

Under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Bryant is an at-will employee, which means that either Mr. Bryant or the Company may terminate his employment at any time for any reason. However, and except in the context of a change in control, if Mr. Bryant's employment with the Company is terminated without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement) and thereafter delivers and does not revoke a general release, he is entitled to a severance payment equal to eighteen (18) months of his then current base salary and payment of insurance premiums for a period of eighteen (18) months following termination. Amounts payable to Mr. Bryant upon a change in control of the Company are generally governed by the Agreement Re: Change in Control described below.

The Agreement Re: Change in Control for Mr. Bryant provides for certain severance benefits to Mr. Bryant in the event of termination of his employment in connection with a change in control of the Company. The severance benefits are payable if employment with the Company is terminated within 30 days prior to or three years following a change in control, unless terminated for cause or the termination is the result of a voluntary resignation (which does not include resignations stemming from a material adverse change in responsibilities, status, reporting relationship, base salary, authority or location of work place) or death or disability. The severance benefits under the Agreement Re: Change in Control generally consist of a lump sum cash payment equal to two (2) times the sum of (i) Mr. Bryant's highest annual salary rate within the three (3) year period ending on the date of termination plus (ii) an amount equal to the annualized average of all bonuses and incentive compensation payments paid to Mr. Bryant during the two (2) year period immediately before the date of termination. In addition, the Agreement Re: Change in Control provides for: payment of $25,000 to help pay the legal fees, tax and accounting fees and other costs associated with transitional matters; continued coverage for two (2) years under the Company's group medical insurance, group dental insurance, and disability insurance programs unless and to the extent Mr. Bryant obtains concurrent coverage through another program in which case the Company's coverage will be terminated or reduced as applicable; and immediate vesting and exercisability of any and all unvested stock options and immediate and automatic lapse of any and all restrictions on any of Mr. Bryant's restricted stock (except to the extent Mr. Bryant and the Company have agreed to otherwise in writing, including either prior to or subsequent to the execution of the Agreement Re: Change in Control).

The descriptions of the Employment Agreement, Stock Option Agreement, Restricted Stock Agreement and the Agreement Re: Change in Control for Mr. Bryant provided above are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of such agreements, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4 and incorporated herein by reference.

On January 5, 2009, the Company announced that Caren L. Mason, the Company's current President, Chief Executive Officer and Director, had notified the Company of her intention to retire effective June 1, 2009. In connection with Ms. Mason's anticipated retirement, the Company and Ms. Mason entered into an agreement (the Retirement Agreement), dated as of January 16, 2009, confirming the parties' understandings as to Ms. Mason's employment prior to her retirement and each party's commitments and obligations on and after her retirement.

Under the Retirement Agreement, Ms. Mason will remain an at-will employee of, and will continue employment with, the Company through her retirement date of June 1, 2009. Ms. Mason's salary will continue at the same level as currently in effect through March 1, 2009, and from March 1, 2009 through her retirement date, she will receive $10,000 per month. Ms. Mason's employee benefits shall continue until June 1, 2009 at the same levels as are currently in effect, provided, however, that she shall not receive any further grants of equity incentive awards nor shall she be eligible to participate in any bonus plans applicable to fiscal year 2009 or any year thereafter. Ms. Mason shall, however, remain eligible to receive a bonus under the Company's existing 2008 cash incentive bonus plan if and to the extent that (i) an allocation is made to Ms. Mason by the Board of Directors or its Compensation Committee, (ii) the relevant performance metrics are achieved, and (iii) Ms. Mason remains employed by the Company through the earlier of (1) the payment date of the 2008 bonus, if any, or (2) June 1, 2009. Ms. Mason's current outstanding equity awards shall, during her continuing employment, continue to vest and be governed in accordance with the applicable equity incentive plan and specific equity award grant documentation. In the event the Company terminates Ms. Mason's employment without cause (as defined in the Retirement Agreement), she will be entitled to all compensation and benefits as though she remained employed through June 1, 2009.

The description of the Retirement Agreement provided above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Retirement Agreement attached as Exhibit 10.5 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
