Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Settlement Agreement with North Carolina Attorney General

On December 3, 2012, Duke Energy Corporation ( "Duke Energy" or the "Company" ) reached an agreement (the "Settlement Agreement" ) with the North Carolina Attorney General ( "AG" ) regarding the investigation initiated by the AG following the merger between the Company and Progress Energy, Inc. (the "AG's Investigation" ).

The Company and AG's office desire to resolve all matters and issues involved in the AG's Investigation without further litigation and expense and to move forward in a positive manner. The Company expressly denies that it engaged in any illegalities or improper acts, and the AG's acceptance of the Settlement Agreement should not be construed as, or deemed to be, approval of any of the Company's conduct. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the Settling Parties agreed to the following terms.

- The AG will not object to the settlement agreement by and among the Company, the North Carolina Utilities Commission ( "NCUC" ) Staff and the North Carolina Public Staff (the "NCUC Settlement Agreement" ), previously entered into by such parties and orally approved by the NCUC.
- The Company and AG agree that the AG preserves all of his procedural rights to make any argument or objections in all rate cases filed by the Company after the date of the Settlement Agreement. In addition, the AG abstains from any consideration of Paragraphs F and H of the NCUC Settlement Agreement.
- The Company will comply with all applicable provisions in Chapter 62 and the NCUC's applicable rules and regulations pertaining to the provision of truthful and complete information to the Commission.
- The Regulatory Policy and Operations Committee ( "RPOC" ) of the Board of Directors of the Company, or the Chair of the RPOC, will meet with the AG on a periodic basis at his request.
- The Company, at no cost to customers, will retain an independent entity to conduct a survey of all of the Company's North Carolina customers to determine their level of satisfaction with their electric utility service and solicit from them how service could be improved. The Company will provide the AG's office with a report detailing and summarizing the results of that survey, along with any actions the Company plans to take in response to the survey.
- The Company, at no cost to customers, will retain an independent entity to conduct a survey of its employees, seeking feedback from such employees regarding merger integration and post-merger operations of the Company. The Company will provide the AG's office with a report detailing and summarizing the results of that survey, along with any actions the Company plans to take in response to the survey.

- The Company will designate a specific point of contact within the Company as the liaison with the AG's office, in order to meet periodically with the AG's office and facilitate communication of consumer-related information to the AG's office.
- The Company will pay $250,000 to the AG's office for attorneys' fees and otherwise defraying the costs of the AG's Investigation.
- The Company will not seek to include or charge the Company's North Carolina customers for any of the attorneys' fees or other costs or expenses the Company incurred as a result of the AG's Investigation.
- The AG's office will discontinue further activity in its Investigation against the Company and any individuals acting on behalf of the Company.

The foregoing description of the Settlement Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.
