Release | Lisbon | 23 January 2013

European Commission's decision of 23.1.2013

It has come to Portugal Telecom SGPS, S.A. (PT) knowledge that the European Commission adopted a decision condemning the company, together with Telefónica, S.A. (Telefónica) for infringement of article 101 of the TFEU, with reference to an alleged non-compete commitment with impact in the Iberian market included in the agreement of 28 July 2010 concerning the acquisition by Telefónica of PT's stake in Brazilian operator Vivo. PT was fined Euro 12,290,000.

The abovementioned decision ends an investigation that began in January 2011 in which the European Commission has had the opportunity to analyse the relationship between both companies since 1996, not having apparently found other reasons worthy of criticism.

With regard to the clause which would contain an alleged indication that both companies would refrain from competing with each other, PT considers appropriate to clarify that: (i) its content was made public on 1 June 2010, even before the signature of the agreement related to Vivo; (ii) it had neither the object of restricting competition between both companies nor the intent of unlawfully restrict such competition; (iii) PT adopted adequate measures to prevent the production of any effects incompatible with competition rules; (iv) such effects were not produced; (v) and, in order to exclude any doubt in this regard, PT has eliminated the referred provision on 4 February 2011.

PT has not yet been formally notified of the decision of the European Commission. Nevertheless, PT believes that the publicly announced fine is unjustified and inappropriate to any possible unworthiness of its conduct.

PT will consider bringing an action for annulment before the Court of Justice of the European Union once it has the opportunity to examine the full content of the decision and its grounds.
