Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02(e) Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously reported, Ray Irani was not re-elected to the Board at the 2013 Annual Stockholders Meeting, and so was not re-elected as Chairman of the Board. Dr. Irani has maintained that the Company effectively terminated him under the terms of his 2008 Employment Agreement, thereby entitling him to a termination payment and other benefits and perquisites under that Agreement. The 2013 Proxy Statement contains a general description of his termination payment and other benefits and perquisites under his Employment Agreement in various circumstances. The Company and Dr. Irani have settled this dispute and resolved all matters relating to his separation. Under the settlement, his employment will terminate and he will receive (i) $14 million, but not the $16.8 million termination payment described in the 2013 Proxy Statement which he claimed, (ii) continuation of his tax preparation and financial planning services and his security services (estimated annual cost of up to $1.3 million) for life, but not the longer list of post-termination lifetime perquisites he claimed, including those listed in the 2013 Proxy Statement (estimated annual cost of $2.2 million) and (iii) certain other benefits. However, he will not receive an individual performance bonus for 2013 under the Executive Incentive Compensation Plan. The settlement also provides for a mutual release of claims and a non-disparagement agreement. Consistent with Company policy for executive officers generally, Dr. Irani is also entitled to certain post-employment benefit and welfare plan payments and equity-based awards described in the 2013 Proxy Statement. The total pre-tax cost of the settlement and such other payments is currently estimated to be approximately $26 million, plus up to $1.3 million in annual costs.

The foregoing summary of the settlement agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the settlement agreement, which is filed with this Report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated into this Item 5.02(e) by reference.
