Introduction

On August 29, 2014, HCP, Inc., a Maryland corporation ( HCP ), and Brookdale Senior Living Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Brookdale ), completed the previously announced transactions contemplated by that certain Master Contribution and Transactions Agreement (the Master Agreement ), dated as of April 23, 2014, by and between HCP and Brookdale. At the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Master Agreement (the Closing ), HCP and Brookdale entered into two joint venture transactions and amended the terms of certain existing agreements between HCP and Brookdale and/or certain of their respective affiliates (including Emeritus Corporation, a Washington corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Brookdale ( Emeritus )).

Joint Venture Transactions

Each of the joint ventures contemplated by the Master Agreement uses a RIDEA structure, whereby at the Closing each of HCP and Brookdale invested in an opco joint venture and a propco joint venture. The propco owns most of the applicable communities and will lease such communities to the opco pursuant to long-term leases entered into at the Closing. The opco owns the remainder of the applicable communities not owned by the propco, and at the Closing the opco engaged an affiliate of Brookdale to manage all of the owned and leased communities pursuant to management agreements with 15-year terms subject to certain extension options.

Joint Venture Relating to HCP's and Brookdale's CCRC Entrance Fee Communities. At the Closing, HCP and Brookdale entered into a joint venture with respect to certain continuing care retirement / entrance fee ( CCRC ) communities previously owned by HCP or Brookdale and leased and/or operated by Brookdale. Brookdale owns a 51% ownership interest, and HCP owns a 49% ownership interest, in each of the propco and opco. Pursuant to the terms of the Master Agreement, at the Closing Brookdale contributed to the joint venture eight wholly-owned entities (owning eight CCRC communities subject, in certain cases, to existing debt) and certain purchase options with respect to the HCP Communities (as defined below), and HCP contributed to the joint venture three wholly-owned entities (owning three properties in two CCRC communities (the HCP Communities )). One additional property to be contributed by Brookdale is under construction and will be contributed to the joint venture subject to existing debt, upon the earlier of the first anniversary of the Closing and receipt of the certificate of occupancy for such community. In addition to the 10 CCRC communities, at the Closing Brookdale contributed the rights and obligations of Brookdale under previously executed purchase agreements on four communities (the Purchase Agreements, which were entered into on April 22, 2014 by Brookdale and provide for the acquisition by Brookdale, independent of the joint venture and Merger transactions, of four communities managed by Brookdale for an aggregate purchase price of $323.5 million, including fees associated with the prepayment of certain debt), and HCP contributed $323.5 million in cash for such purchases and the joint venture completed such purchases immediately following the Closing. Each of the 14 communities in the joint venture is managed by an affiliate of Brookdale pursuant to management agreements entered into at the Closing, and Brookdale has agreed to guarantee certain obligations of the manager under the applicable management agreements. Each of the propco and opco is governed by a board of managers consisting of six members, with three representatives each appointed by HCP and Brookdale.

Joint Venture Relating to Certain HCP / Emeritus Communities. At the Closing, HCP and Brookdale entered into a joint venture with respect to certain independent living, assisted living, memory care and/or skilled nursing care communities currently owned by HCP and leased and operated by Emeritus. Brookdale owns a 20% ownership interest, and HCP owns an 80% ownership interest, in each of the propco and opco. Pursuant to the terms of the Master Agreement, at the Closing an HCP affiliate made a loan to Brookdale in the original principal amount of approximately $68 million to fund Brookdale's initial capital contribution to the joint venture. HCP contributed to propco 49 communities. In addition, prior to the Closing, an HCP affiliate made a mezzanine loan to another affiliate of HCP in the principal amount of approximately $628 million that was assumed by propco at the Closing, which loan has a term of seven years, provides for interest at an average annual rate of 11.4% for the first three years, at an annual rate of 5.5% for years four and five, at an annual rate of 5.75% in year six and at an annual rate of 6.0% in year seven, and is secured by a pledge of equity interests in the direct subsidiary of propco. At the Closing, propco leased the communities to opco. Each of the communities in the joint venture is managed by an affiliate of Brookdale, and Brookdale has agreed to guarantee certain obligations of the manager under the applicable management agreements.

Pursuant to the terms of the Master Agreement, Brookdale will pay to HCP a fee related to the lease restructuring in the amount of $34 million, which fee will be payable over a two year period.

Amendments to Existing Agreements (including Triple Net Leases)

At the Closing, HCP and Brookdale amended and restated (i) that certain Master Lease and Security Agreement, dated as of October 31, 2012, by and between Emeritus and certain affiliates of HCP, with respect to 112 communities, and (ii) certain other triple net leases between Emeritus and affiliates of HCP, with respect to 41 communities, together into a single master lease with the communities subject thereto separated into three pools (the Master Lease). The term of the Master Lease is 14 years for the pool 1 communities, 15 years for the pool 2 communities and 16 years for the pool 3 communities, with an average of approximately fifteen years, in each case subject to two extension options of approximately ten years each, and the Master Lease is guaranteed by Brookdale. The Master Lease provides for total base rent in 2014 of $158 million, with lower future rent payments and escalations compared to the existing leases. HCP has agreed to make available up to $100 million for capital expenditures related to the communities during calendar years 2014 through 2017 at an initial lease rate of 7.0%. The Master Lease includes certain customary covenants, with respect to, among other things, capital expenditure requirements, restrictions on the ownership, operation and management of competing communities and transfer restrictions (including restrictions on changes of control of Brookdale). The Master Lease also includes customary events of default and remedies relating thereto. In addition, the Master Lease includes a purchase option in favor of Brookdale for up to ten communities at an aggregate purchase price not to exceed $60 million. The purchase price for any acquisition pursuant to a purchase option will be financed by HCP with mortgage debt.

In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Master Agreement, at the Closing, (i) the parties terminated the purchase option rights granted by HCP to Emeritus pursuant to 49 of the existing Emeritus leases, (ii) the parties agreed to modify the existing term extension hurdle and incentive management fee structure applicable to an existing joint venture between HCP and Brookdale in respect of 20 independent living, assisted living, memory care and/or skilled nursing care communities, subject to obtaining the required lender consent and (iii) HCP released (and/or agreed to release, subject to obtaining the required lender consents) certain deposits and reserves posted by Brookdale and Emeritus and certain of their respective affiliates and held by HCP or its affiliates in connection with existing leases between the parties.
