Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On June 10, 2015, Scientific Games Corporation (the Company) held its annual meeting of stockholders. At the annual meeting, as detailed below, the Company's stockholders approved an amendment and restatement of the Company's 2003 Incentive Compensation Plan, as previously amended and restated on November 21, 2014 (the 2003 Plan). In connection with our acquisition of Bally Technologies, Inc. (Bally) in November 2014, the Company assumed (i) the Bally 2010 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the Legacy Bally Plan) as a sub-plan of the 2003 Plan and (ii) as described below, a portion of the shares of Bally common stock then reserved and available for issuance under the Legacy Bally Plan (the Legacy Bally Shares), which were then converted into shares of Company common stock and maintained as a separate share pool under the 2003 Plan. Under this amendment and restatement of the 2003 Plan, the Legacy Bally Shares were consolidated with the shares of Company common stock previously reserved and available for issuance under the 2003 Plan. As a result, the shares reserved and available for issuance under the 2003 Plan were combined into a single share pool, with such shares available for equity awards to any employee, non-employee director or other eligible service provider of the Company or its subsidiaries, including Bally.

Based on the shares of Bally common stock reserved and available for issuance under the Legacy Bally Plan at the time of our acquisition of Bally, but giving effect to the acquisition (and applying a customary exchange ratio based on the stock prices of Bally and the Company at the time of the acquisition), we were entitled under applicable NASDAQ Stock Market rules to assume approximately 16 million shares of Bally common stock for future awards to Bally employees. However, in order to manage potential dilution in connection with future equity awards, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors of the Company determined to assume only approximately 4.8 million of such available shares, a substantial reduction from the number of shares of Bally common stock that could have been assumed.

As part of the approval of the amended and restated 2003 Plan, stockholders also re-approved certain material terms of performance-based awards intended to preserve the opportunity to grant awards that could qualify for the performance exception from the limits on the Company's tax deductions for certain compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the amended and restated 2003 Plan, which was attached to the Company's Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A filed on April 30, 2015.

Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

On June 10, 2015, the Company held its annual meeting of stockholders. At the annual meeting, the Company's stockholders: (1) elected all of the Company's nominees for director; (2) approved the amendment and restatement of the 2003 Plan, as described above; and (3) ratified the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent auditor for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2015. The voting results are as follows:
