The following is a transcript of a conference call held on June 30, 2015 during which Towers Watson & Co. ( Towers Watson ) and Willis Group Holdings plc ( Willis ) announced the signing of a definitive merger agreement providing for the proposed merger of Towers Watson and Willis.

Welcome to the conference call to discuss the merger of equals between Willis Group and Towers Watson. Before we start, I'd like to highlight the following. This conference call shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the Securities laws of any such jurisdiction. No offer of securities shall be made, except by means of a prospectus, meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Willis plans to file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 in connection with the transaction. Willis and Towers Watson plan to file with SEC and mail to the respective shareholders a joint proxy statement prospectus in connection with the transaction. The registration statement and the joint proxy statement prospectus will contain important information about Willis, Towers Watson, the transaction, and related matters.

Investors and security holders are urged to read the registration statement, the joint proxy statement prospectus, and other related documents carefully when they are available. Investors and security holders will be able to obtain free copies of the registration statement, the joint proxy statement prospectus, and other related documents filed with the SEC by Willis and Towers Watson through the website maintained by the SEC at www.SEC.gov, or by visiting the investor relations sections of Willis' or Towers Watson' websites at www.willis.com or www.towerswatson.com.

Regarding forward-looking statements, this document contains forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements regarding expectations, hopes, intentions, or strategies regarding the future are forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements are based on Willis or Towers Watson's management's beliefs, as well as assumptions made by and information currently available to them. Because such statements are based on expectations as to future financial and operating results and are not statements of fact, actual results may differ materially from those projected. Willis and Towers Watson undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

The risks and uncertainties which forward-looking statements are subject to include, but are not limited to, the ability to consummate the proposed transaction, the ability to obtain regulatory and shareholder approvals, and the satisfaction of other conditions to the consummation of the proposed transaction on the proposed terms and schedule, the ability of Willis and Towers Watson to successfully integrate their respective operations and employees, and realize synergies and cost savings at the times and to the extent anticipated, the potential impact of the announcement or consummation of the proposed transaction or relationships, including with employees, suppliers, customers, and competitors, changes in general economic business and political conditions, including changes in the financial markets, significant competition that Willis and Towers Watson face, compliance with extensive government regulation, the combined companies' ability to make acquisitions and its ability to integrate or manage such acquired businesses, and other risks detailed in the statement regarding forward looking information, risk factors, and other sections of Willis and Towers Watson's Form 10-K and other filings with SEC.

Willis and Towers Watson, and their respective directors and executive officers, may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Information regarding the directors and executive officers of Willis, and their direct or indirect interests in the transaction, by security holdings or otherwise, is contained in Willis's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and its proxy statement filed on April 17, 2015, which are filed with the SEC. Information regarding Towers Watson's directors and executive officers, and their direct or indirect interests in the transaction, by security holdings or otherwise, is contained in Towers Watson's Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2014 and its proxy statement filed on October 3, 2014, which are filed with the SEC. A more complete description will be available in the Registration Statement and the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

The directors of Willis accept responsibility for the information contained in this document other than that relating to Towers Watson, the Towers Watson Group and the directors of Towers Watson and members of their immediate families, related trusts and persons connected with them. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the directors of Willis (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this document for which they accept responsibility is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.
