(b) Resignation of Director

On August 10, 2016, Dr. M. James Barrett, Ph.D. tendered his resignation from the Board of Directors of Supernus Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Supernus or the Company), effective immediately. Dr. Barrett, currently Partner Emeritus at New Enterprise Associates (NEA), a venture capital firm that focuses on the life sciences and information technology industries, had served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors since 2005 when NEA was the lead investor in Supernus. Dr. Barrett's resignation is consistent with NEA's exit from Supernus late last year, and with his need to devote his energies going forward towards the current board positions he holds in connection with the NEA portfolio of investments. In addition to serving as Chairman of the Board of the Company, Dr. Barrett was Chairman of the Company's Compensation Committee and a member of the Governance and Nominating Committee.

The Company also announced that the Board unanimously elected Charles W. Newhall, III, a current independent director, as Chairman. Mr. Newhall has served as a member of the Company's Board since 2005, and currently serves as Chair of the Governance and Nominating Committee. He started several healthcare information technology companies, including PatientKeeper, TargetRx, and LifeMetrix. He currently serves on the Boards of Interfusion, Neuropace, and Vitae Pharmaceuticals, and as Chairman Emeritus of the Industry Advisory Board for Greenspring Associates. In 1977, Mr. Newhall co-founded NEA from which he retired in 2012. Prior to that, he was a Vice President of T. Rowe Price. Mr. Newhall is a decorated Vietnam veteran and has an MBA from the Harvard Business School.

A copy of the press release regarding the resignation is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
