Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On August 15, 2017, Hill International, Inc. (the Company) received a notice from the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) indicating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing requirements under the timely filing criteria established in Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual as a result of its failure to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2017 (the Form 10-Q).

As reported by the Company in its Form 12b-25 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on August 10, 2017, the Company was unable to file the Form 10-Q within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The extension period provided under Rule 12b-25 expired on August 14, 2017. The reason for the delay is that the Company is continuing to compile information regarding, and complete the proper accounting and related tax treatment of, the sale of the Company's Construction Claims Group which was completed during the second quarter of 2017, and to assess the Company's accounting for comprehensive income (loss) in conjunction with the accounting for the sale of the Construction Claims Group. The Company is currently uncertain as to the scope or size of any adjustment that may be required from its assessment of comprehensive income (loss). The Company will not be able to file the Form 10-Q until the compilation, accounting and assessment are completed.

The NYSE informed the Company that, under the NYSE's rules, the Company will have six months from August 15, 2017 to file the Form 10-Q with the SEC. The Company can regain compliance with the NYSE continued listing requirements at any time before that date by filing the Form 10-Q with the SEC. The Company will file the Form 10-Q as soon as practicable. If the Company fails to file the Form 10-Q before the NYSE's compliance deadline, the NYSE may grant, at its sole discretion, an extension of up to six additional months for the Company to regain compliance, depending on the specific circumstances. The letter from the NYSE also notes that the NYSE may nevertheless commence delisting proceedings at any time if it deems that the circumstances warrant.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, and incorporated herein by reference, is a copy of the Company's press release dated August 18, 2017, announcing the receipt of the NYSE notice.
