Subject: Broadcom's Revised Proposal

Today we issued a press release confirming that Broadcom submitted a revised and unsolicited proposal to acquire Qualcomm for $60.00 per share in cash and $22.00 per share in Broadcom stock. Qualcomm's Board will evaluate the revised proposal with its financial and legal advisors to determine what action is in the best interests of all Qualcomm stockholders.

As you know, in November, our Board unanimously rejected Broadcom's initial proposal and, shortly thereafter, Broadcom nominated a slate of candidates to replace Qualcomm's existing Board at our 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, launching what is commonly known as a proxy fight.

As a result, you have likely begun to receive frequent direct communications, including home mailings and phone calls, soliciting your vote ahead of our Annual Meeting. If you have any questions about the voting process, please visit www.qcomvalue.com. This website also includes the presentation that outlines our path to move Qualcomm forward and conveys why we firmly believe stockholders should re-elect our Board.

Given the public nature of these events, you will likely continue to see public communications and media attention on Qualcomm. If you receive questions from the media, customers or vendors, please direct those inquiries to our Corporate Communications department (Clare Conley, cconley@qti.qualcomm.com).

I urge you to remain focused and to not get distracted by media coverage regarding the Annual Meeting. As I stated at last week's Employee Meeting, thanks to the efforts of all employees, we are seeing strong momentum with our business. Today's news will have no effect on your day-to-day responsibilities and we should continue to remain focused as a company on our priorities and roadmap.

We will keep you informed of any new developments.

Steve
