The Company's press release and other communications from time to time may include certain non-GAAP financial measures. A "non-GAAP financial measure" is defined as a numerical measure of a company's financial performance, financial position or cash flows that excludes (or includes) amounts that are included in (or excluded from) the most directly comparable measure calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP in the Company's financial statements.

Non-GAAP financial measures utilized by the Company include presentations of revenues, operating expenses, operating income, other income and deductions, net income, earnings per share and other GAAP measures of operating performance that exclude or include the effect of litigation settlements, accounting or regulatory changes, the restructuring of selected operations, certain merger activities and other similar events. The Company's management believes these non-GAAP financial measures provide useful information to investors by removing the effect of variances in GAAP reported results of operations that are not indicative of fundamental changes in the earnings capacity of the Company's operations. Management also believes that the presentation of the non-GAAP financial measure is consistent with its past practice, as well as industry practice in general, and will enable investors and analysts to compare current non-GAAP measures with non-GAAP measures presented in prior periods. The non-GAAP financial measures used by the Company should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for measures of performance prepared in accordance with GAAP.

PERFORMANCE SUMMARY

Wholesale electric gross margin improved 21.3 percent or $4.2 million during the first quarter compared to the same period in 2003, primarily due to additional sales under long-term contract, improved short-term prices and sales volumes, and lower cost of generation at the company's coal-fired generating plants.

Edgar Filing: PNM RESOURCES INC - Form 8-K

Growth in the utility service territory was up 3.5 percent, while generating costs at the company's San Juan plant fell 10 percent. These positives combined to more than offset a 4 percent reduction in retail electric rates implemented in 2003. The Company also benefited from a normal winter season in 2004 compared to 2003. As a result, retail electric gross margin was $2.4 million higher in the latest quarter compared to the first quarter of 2003.

Gas gross margin was $5.4 million higher than in the comparable period in 2003, primarily because of load growth and increased sales volumes due to colder temperatures in New Mexico during the 2004 period. The first three months of 2003 were unusually warm in New Mexico.

Interest charges were reduced by $4.4 million, primarily due to refinancing of long-term debt and lower short-term interest rates.

OTHER RECENT SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENTS AFFECTING PNM RESOURCES:

- o On April 16, PNM entered into a 15-year agreement to transport natural gas to fuel two power plants operated by the City of Farmington, N.M. The company estimates the contract will produce about $550,000 in annual revenues.
- o On March 10, Moody's Investors Service upgraded the rating on debt securities of PNM Resources to Baa2 with a stable outlook.
- o On February 27, Standard & Poor's raised the PNM Resources corporate credit rating to 'BBB,' with a stable outlook from BBB-. In addition, PNM's commercial paper program is now rated by both agencies.

- o On February 17, the PNM Resources Board of Directors approved a 4.3 percent increase in the common stock dividend.
