Tiger X Medical, Inc. (the "Company") completed the sale of its Reconstructive Division assets and Spine Division assets in the 2011 second quarter. The Company has now determined that the income tax expense associated with this gain amounted to $560,000 and the gain should have been recorded net of this income tax impact in the Company's consolidated statements of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011. The impact of this matter is a reduction to the gain on sale of the discontinued operations of $560,000, as well as a corresponding increase of $560,000 to the accounts payable and accrued expenses, and accumulated deficit as of June 30, 2011. As a result, the Company intends to restate the financial statements for the three and six months ended June 30, 2011. Because of the timing of this process, the Company is unable to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2011 with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 14, 2011, the prescribed due date, and needs additional time to complete the required information in the Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2011. The Registrant expects to timely file its Form 10-Q within the prescribed five day extension period. The delay could not be cured without unreasonable effort or expense.
