Peace Arch Entertainment Strengthens Senior Distribution Team Adding Industry Veteran Mary Herne As Executive Vice President

COMPANY'S RAPID PRODUCTION AND ACQUISITION GROWTH

SOLIDIFIES GLOBAL DISTRIBUTION OPPORTUNITIES

Toronto September 29, 2006 -- Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX:PAE - News) (TSX:PAE.TO - News) today announced that highly respected film and television industry distribution executive Mary Herne has joined the company as Executive Vice President, International Television and Home Entertainment. Herne will be responsible for all sales and marketing of the company's original and acquired content to international television licensees and DVD distributors. She will also contribute to Peace Arch's strategic planning and to the acquisition of individual programming and potential franchise properties.

The Company also announced that it has hired Suzanne Barron as Senior Vice President, International Television and Home Entertainment, further bolstering Peace Arch's rapidly growing sales and marketing team. Barron's primary focus will be international home video distribution. Both Barron and Herne will be based in Peace Arch's Los Angeles office.

Peace Arch Entertainment President John Flock says, "Mary Herne's dedication, relationships and experience in the international television industry augments our already strong feature film sales operation and strengthens our growing worldwide distribution capabilities. During the last year we substantially increased our production and acquisitions of both feature films and long-form television programming, with major event series such as The Tudors soon coming to market. Combined with our booming feature film sales business under the leadership of Penny Wolf, the potential for revenue and profit from our international television and DVD sales operations looks to be outstanding, and Mary Herne is the ideal person to lead those businesses for us."

Mary Herne joins Peace Arch from the Venice, California-based independent feature film production and distribution company Myriad Pictures, where she served as senior vice president of domestic and international television sales since 2002. Herne's previous experience includes eight years with Playboy Entertainment Group where she served as senior vice president of international distribution and development from 1992-2000. Prior to that, Herne was managing director at Public Television International, a division of WQED in New York City.

Before joining Peace Arch, Suzanne Barron served as Vice President of International Sales at Playboy Entertainment Group for six years, prior to which she was Vice President of Sales and Marketing, International Home Video at MGM for three years.
