Item 8.01 Other Events

The Company has been involved in litigation with Kurt Paul Grossman and Ann Grossman since November 23, 2003. (Grossman v. NMxS.com, Inc., Orange County, California, Superior Court Case # 03CC14074). The Grossmans had sued the Company for Breach of Contract on a Promissory Note.

Edgar Filing: NMXS COM INC - Form 8-K

At the trial court level, we filed a motion to Quash Service of Summons For Lack of Personal Jurisdiction and to Vacate Default. We argued that California did not have jurisdiction over the Company, that the method of service was improper, and that any Entry of Default should be set aside. The trial court decided in our favor, and ruled that NMxS.com, Inc. did not have sufficient contacts with California to warrant the exercise of personal jurisdiction, the service of summons and complaint was properly quashed, and the entry of default was appropriately vacated.

Mr. Grossman appealed on the issue of the quashing of service on jurisdictional grounds. After the case was fully briefed to the Appellate Court, the Appellate Court affirmed the decision of the trial court, in favor of NMxS.com, Inc., finding that there was no jurisdiction in California for this matter. The Appellate Court also stated that the Company "shall recover its costs on appeal." Because of the Appellate Court's ruling, the Grossman action is no longer pending against NMxS.com, Inc.
