Item 8.01 Other Events

On April 9, 2010, Boots & Coots, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Boots & Coots”), Halliburton Company, a Delaware corporation (“Halliburton”), and Gradient, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Halliburton (“Merger Sub”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Boots & Coots will merge with and into Merger Sub, with Merger Sub surviving as a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Halliburton (the “Merger”). The Merger Agreement and the Merger have been approved by the boards of directors of Boots & Coots and Halliburton. Under the Merger Agreement, Boots & Coots stockholders will receive consideration valued at approximately $3.00 per share for each share of Boots & Coots common stock, par value $0.00001 per share, comprised of $1.73 in cash and $1.27 in shares of Halliburton common stock, par value $2.50 per share, subject to adjustment to achieve the intended tax consequences of the merger and subject to an election feature. The Merger is subject to certain closing conditions, including expiration or early termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976.

On April 16, 2010, David Contreras filed a purported class action lawsuit in the District Court of Harris County, Texas against Boots & Coots, current members of Boots & Coots’ Board of Directors, including its Chief Executive Officer (the “Individual Defendants”), Halliburton and Merger Sub (the “Contreras Suit”). On April 16, 2010 Edgar L. Van Cott and J. David Schoepf filed a purported class action lawsuit in the District Court of Harris County, Texas against Boots & Coots, the Individual Defendants, Halliburton and Merger Sub (the “Van Cott Suit” and together with the Contreras Suit, the “Class Actions”). The Class Actions, each brought by a purported stockholder of Boots & Coots, seek certification of a class of all holders of Boots & Coots’ common stock and allege, among other things, (1) the Individual Defendants have breached and continue to breach their fiduciary duties to the plaintiffs and members of the proposed class, (2) the Merger is unfair to the public stockholders of Boots & Coots as it underestimates the true value of Boots & Coots, (3) the Individual Defendants are pursuing a course of conduct that does not maximize the value of Boots & Coots, and (4) Boots & Coots and Halliburton aided and abetted the breaches of duties by the Individual Defendants. The petitions associated with the Class Actions seek, among other things, an injunction prohibiting consummation of the Merger, attorneys’ fees and expenses and, in the case of the Van Cott Suit, rescission or damages in the event the Merger is consummated.

Boots & Coots expects that additional similar lawsuits relating to the Merger may be filed. In addition, the petitions associated with the Class Actions (as well as any additional similar lawsuits) may be amended from time to time in the future. If additional similar lawsuits are filed or the petitions referenced above are amended, Boots & Coots does not intend to announce the filing of any similar suits or amendments to the current petitions associated with the pending actions unless they contain allegations that are substantially distinct from those made in the pending actions.
