Part III - Narrative

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q,10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The principal cause of our failure to timely file our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended May 31, 2011, is the additional time required by the independent appraisal firm, Marshall & Stevens, to complete an appraisal of the company's assets, in particular, its intellectual property as required by the company's auditors and for the auditors to complete its review of same. Until this report was finalized, the auditors were unable to complete their audit in an accurate and thorough manner without incurring unreasonable effort and expense in order to meet the August 29, 2011 deadline. For these reasons, the Company has chosen to file this extension and the Form 10-K will be filed within the permissible extension period on or before September 14, 2011.
