

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement;

See item 2.03 below.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation;

On September 27, 2013, General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company") entered into agreements with Keltic Financial Partners II LP ("Keltic") that will provide the Company with long term financing through a six million dollar ($6,000,000) secured revolving note (the "Note").

The Note has a term of three years and has no amortization prior to maturity. The interest rate for the Note is fluctuating rate that, when annualized, is equal to the greatest of (A) the Prime Rate plus three and one quarter percent (3.25%), (B) the LIBOR Rate plus six and one quarter percent (6.25%), and (C) six and one half percent (6.50%), interest is paid on a monthly basis. Loan advances pursuant to the Note are based on the accounts receivable balance and other assets. Upon execution of the Note, approximately three million fifty thousand dollars ($3,050,000) was advanced for the full repayment of debt owed to Wells Fargo and fees from Wells Fargo related to the early termination of their debt agreement. At the time of close, there was approximately nine hundred thousand ($900,000) of availability under the new Note in excess of amounts paid to extinguish the debt and fees with Wells Fargo. The Company expects to incur certain cash expense and commitment fees related to obtaining the agreement of approximately $170,000, which has been paid prior to the closing of the Note or will be paid over the next six months.

The Note is secured by all of the Company's property and assets, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, and whether now owned or hereafter acquired, or in which it now has or at any time in the future may acquire any right, title or interests.

The Company will use the proceeds from the Note to (i) repay in its entirety the debt to Wells Fargo (ii) provide additional working capital and (iii) invest in sales and marketing efforts to fuel the growth of the business.
