SECTION 5 - CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR PRINCIPAL OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF PRINCIPAL OFFICERS.

On October 22, 2004, we received a written resignation from Joseph Testa, member of the board of directors. Mr. Testa was appointed to the board of directors on September 8, 2004 and was a member of the compensation and audit committee. Mr. Testa's resignation letter dated October 22, 2004 did not state a reason for his resignation. Subsequent to Mr. Testa's resignation, on October 29, 2004, he provided us with a letter detailing his alleged reasons for resignation. We have attached a copy of this letter as an Exhibit to this Form 8-K/A. We strongly disagree with Mr. Testa's assertions. We believe his six-week tenure as a member of the Board of Directors could not have afforded him the opportunity to reach such conclusions. In addition, Mr. Testa failed to provide any written notice of his supposed concerns to the Board, management of the Company or anyone else while he was a member of the Board.

Mr. Testa raised certain concerns about the selection process of our auditors. This selection was approved by a majority of the members of the audit committee. Furthermore, subsequent to Mr. Testa's resignation, the audit committee unanimously ratified the appointment of the auditors. The review process to select our new auditors lasted approximately three months, during which time we interviewed three candidates on numerous occasions. Mr. Testa even had a chance to interview with the new auditor prior to appointment, in which he gave us his approval on the auditors' qualifications and the consent to announce the appointment of the new auditor on October 14, 2004. Management provided the audit committee with a final recommendation among the two final candidates, which the audit committee took under consideration before providing approval for the engagement of the new auditors. The Company believes such process complies in all respects with the audit committee charter.

Mr. Testa further alleges that our registration statement was not reviewed by our directors prior to filing. This is clearly false in light of the fact that one director was actively involved in the filing process and a majority of our directors approved the filing, as evidenced by their signatures.

The Company's Board of Directors welcomes the input and contribution of all members. The Board seeks at all times to comply with all applicable rules and regulations. However, the Board has carefully reviewed all of Mr. Testa's allegations and finds them to be unfounded because of his very brief tenure on the board and his actual knowledge of events.
