Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 16, 2006, InnoVA Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) completed the purchase of all of the assets of CoroWare, Inc. (“CoroWare”) pursuant to a certain Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”) the Company and CoroWare entered into with CoroWare Technologies, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, dated as of May 12, 2006. Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company purchased, and CoroWare sold, all of its assets including, without limitation, all hardware, software, employee relations, customer contacts in the military and homeland security markets, contacts with Microsoft, Inc. and all other customers, and all other tangible and intangible assets including all developed software (the “Assets”), and the Company agreed to assume certain liabilities; however, the amount of assumed liabilities shall not be greater than $100,000 more than the amount of certain accounts receivable and cash assets purchased. Additionally, the Company agreed to assume certain bank credit card debt in an amount up to $98,168.33.

The Company paid a purchase price for the Assets equal to: (i) $450,000 in cash, of which $100,000 is guaranteed and $350,000 is contingent based upon the financial results of CoroWare Technologies, Inc. for the one year following May 16, 2006; (ii) $1,200,000 million in the restricted shares of common stock of the Company (30,000,000 shares), of which 5,000,000 shares were delivered to CoroWare at the closing and the remaining 25,000,000 shares are contingent based upon the financial results of CoroWare Technologies, Inc. for the three years following May 16, 2006 , and (iii) options to purchase 12,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock, exercisable at a price equal to $0.018 per share, allocated to employees of CoroWare. Of the 25,000,000 shares of contingent common stock, 12,500,000 shares are being held in escrow to be released at such time as a certain legal proceeding brought by Manor Systems, LLC against CoroWare and Lloyd Spencer, the President of CoroWare, is settled. The amount of contingent cash paid to CoroWare will be reduced by the amount of assumed liabilities, and the amount of contingent shares paid to CoroWare will be reduced by the amount of all bank credit card debt assumed.

The Company claims an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”), for the issuance of the securities pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder since, among other things, the transaction did not involve a public offering, CoroWare is an accredited investor and/or qualified institutional buyer, CoroWare had access to information about the Company, CoroWare took the securities for investment and not resale, and the Company took appropriate measures to restrict the transfer of the securities.

In addition, on May 16, 2006 the Company entered into Executive Employment Agreements with Lloyd Spencer and David Hyams, under which the Company will employ Messrs. Spencer and Hyams as executives of CoroWare Technologies, Inc. for a period of 5 years commencing May 16, 2006 which will be automatically renewed for successive 1 year periods until written notice not to renew is delivered by either the Company or Messrs. Spencer or Hyams. Messrs. Spencer and Hyams will each be paid a monthly salary of $12,500. During the term of their employment and for a period thereafter, Messrs. Spencer and Hyams will be subject to confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation provisions, subject to standard exceptions.

Further, on May 16, 2006 the Company entered into employment agreements with certain other key employees of CoroWare as required under the Agreement.
