This Report includes forward-looking statements related to theglobe.com, inc. ("theglobe" or the "Company") that involve risks and uncertainties, including statements relating to our right to receive certain payments from Labigroup Holdings, LLC ("Labigroup") under the agreement reported on in this Report on Form 8-K herein. These forward-looking statements are made in reliance on the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. For further information about these and other factors that could affect theglobe.com's future results and business plans, including theglobe's ability to continue operations as a going concern, please see the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including in particular our Annual Report of Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007. Copies of these filings are available online at <http://www.sec.gov>. Prospective investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of performance. Actual results may differ materially and adversely from management expectations.

Items 1.01.

ENTRY INTO MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On December 20, 2007, the Company, through its subsidiary, Tralliance Corporation ("Tralliance"), entered into a Bulk Registration Co-Marketing Agreement (the "Agreement") with Labigroup, under Tralliance's Bulk Purchasing Program available to entities committing to a minimum purchase of 25,000 ".travel" domain names within one-year. Labigroup is controlled by the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Michael Egan and our remaining directors own a minority interest in Labigroup. Under the Agreement, Labigroup committed to purchase a predetermined minimum number of ".travel" domain names on a bulk basis from an accredited ".travel" registrar of its own choosing and to establish a predetermined minimum number of related ".travel" websites. As consideration for the ".travel" domain names to be purchased under the Agreement, Labigroup agreed to pay certain fixed fees and make other payments, including but not limited to, an ongoing royalty calculated as a % share of its Net Revenue, as defined in the Agreement, to Tralliance. The Agreement has an initial term which expires September 30, 2010, after which it may be renewed for successive periods of two and three years, respectively. Labigroup has paid Tralliance the sum of $262,500 under the Agreement to date.
