Shareholders Entitled to Vote

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on April 3, 2009, the record date fixed by the Board of Directors, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were 11,297,866 shares of the Company's Common Stock, par value $.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting. Each share is entitled to one vote.

The presence in person or by proxy of owners of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Company's Annual Meeting. Assuming that a quorum is present, the election of four Directors, to hold office for one year will require the vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

For purposes of determining the votes cast with respect to any matter presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting, only those cast "for" are included. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted only for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting. Owners of Common Stock are not entitled to cumulative voting in the election of directors.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING THE AVAILABILITY OF PROXY MATERIALS FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF PHOTONIC PRODUCTS GROUP, INC. TO BE HELD ON MAY 13, 2009. Voting: Revocation of Proxies

A form of proxy is enclosed for use at the Annual Meeting if a shareholder is unable to attend in person. Each proxy may be revoked at any time before it is exercised by giving written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company by filing a later dated proxy with the Secretary at any time prior to its exercise or by voting at the meeting. The presence at the meeting of a stockholder who has given a proxy does not revoke the proxy unless the stockholder files a notice of revocation or votes by written ballot. All shares represented by valid proxies pursuant to this solicitation (and not revoked before they are exercised) will be voted as specified in the form of proxy. If no specification is given, the shares will be voted in favor of the Board's nominees for director described in this Proxy

Costs of Solicitation

The entire cost of soliciting these proxies will be borne by the Company. In following up the original solicitation of proxies by mail, the Company may make arrangements with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of the stock and may reimburse them for their expenses in so doing. Under the 2000 Equity Compensation Program, stock option grants and restricted stock unit grants may be made by the Compensation Committee. Equity-based grants are intended to align the interests of the Company's directors with that of other shareholders. The Company does not require its directors to own stock.

Fees paid to non-employee directors were $500 during fiscal years 2008 and 2007, for each board or committee meeting attended in person, and $250 for each meeting in which they participated via telephone.

In addition, each non-employee director is paid an annual retainer fee, in quarterly installment. For 2008 and 2007, the annual retainer was $15,000 for the Chairman and $10,000 for each of the other outside Directors.

Directors, who are also employees of the Company, do not receive any additional fees for such services.

The table that follows provides information on components of Director Compensation in 2008.

(1)The value of stock option awards and restricted stock unit grants is the value accrued to Company expenses in 2008 and reflected in 2008 net income. Unless otherwise indicated, stock option awards and restricted stock unit grants vest over three years, and accrue proportionally over the three year vesting period.

(2)The value of stock option awards is determined in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), Share-Based Payment (SFAS No. 123(R), for outstanding option awards and include amounts from awards granted prior to 2008. The assumptions used to determine the valuation of the awards are discussed in Note

At fiscal year end, the aggregate number of option awards outstanding for each non-employee director then serving as a director was as follows: John C. Rich, 54,014; Luke P. LaValle, Jr., 9,014; Thomas H. Lenagh, 149,014; and Jan M. Winston, 42,014. No stock option awards were made in 2008.

In 2008, each non-employee director was granted a restricted stock unit award of 2,500 units, with each unit representing a right to receive one share of Common Stock of the Company upon vesting of the award. The grant date fair value of each of these restricted stock unit grants was approximately $10,000. At fiscal year end, none of the 2008 restricted stock unit grants had vested and the aggregate number of grants outstanding for each non-employee director then serving as a director was as follows: John C. Stock options and restricted stock unit grants vest over three years, one-third upon each anniversary of the grant, unless otherwise noted or vesting is accelerated by resolution of the Compensation Committee. The assumptions used in calculating these amounts are set forth in Note 9 to the Company's Financial Statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, which is located on page 38 of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 31, 2009. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The documented ethics policies of the Company restrict certain types of related-party transactions between the Company and its directors, officers, and employees of the Company. Specifically, compensation for services provided by directors, officers, and employees to the Company may not be through any source but the Company. The Company's policies do permit related-parties to participate in financial transactions, limited to financing via debt or equity. In such instances, the Board of Directors has an informal policy of requiring that when financing through a related party, that the terms of such financing, including but not limited to interest rates and fees, are at least equal to or better than the terms obtainable via financing from other sources.

LaValle, Jr., has no material relationship with the Company (other than as director) and is therefore "independent" within the meaning of the current listing standards of the Nasdaq National Market and the requirements of the Sarbanes Oxley Act. In its annual review of director independence, the Board of Directors considers all commercial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting or other business relationships any director may have with the Company. The Board of Directors considers a "material relationship" to be one that impairs or inhibits, or has the potential to impair or inhibit, a director's exercise of critical and disinterested judgment on behalf of the Company and its shareholders. When assessing the "materiality" of a director's relationship with the Company, the Board of Directors considers all relevant facts and circumstances not only from the standpoint of the director in his or her individual capacity, but also from the standpoint of the persons to whom the director is related and organizations with which the director is affiliated.
