Copa Holdings' Consolidated Traffic for March Grows 21.2%

PANAMA CITY, April 8, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Beginning with this traffic release, Copa Holdings will no longer report ASM, RPM and Load Factor on a monthly basis separately for Copa Airlines and Copa Airlines Colombia. Instead, Copa Holdings will present this information on a consolidated basis and for domestic and international service, which management believes is more reflective of the performance of the company with respect to market demand. This is the result of Copa Airlines Colombia's transition from solely domestic service to a mix that includes a significant proportion of international service.

Copa Holdings, S.A. (NYSE: CPA), today released preliminary passenger traffic statistics for March 2011:
