Ader Group Announces that ISS Recommends IGT Shareholders Vote the GOLD Proxy Card at Upcoming Annual Meeting

ISS Deems Board Change Necessary

NEW YORK, Feb. 20, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- The Ader Group today announced that ISS recommends that shareholders of International Game Technology use the GOLD proxy card to vote at the company's March 5th annual meeting. The Ader Group, which represents ownership of more than 3% of the company's outstanding shares, is seeking to increase shareholder representation and to augment the level of casino gaming industry and financial markets expertise on the Board of Directors. ISS is one of the nation's leading independent proxy voting advisory firms, providing voting recommendations to thousands of pension and mutual funds and other institutional investors.

In its February 19th report, ISS supports the Ader Group's call for change, stating:

"In the company's continuing difficulties in redressing the weakness of its core business segments, the uncertainty about the potential of the online diversification efforts, and the sustained shareholder doubt reflected in IGT's persistent stock underperformance, the dissidents have demonstrated a compelling case for a greater shareholder perspective on the board."

ISS echoed many of the concerns raised by the Ader Group about the company's stock price performance, observing that:

"Even given the stark underperformance of the casino equipment industry generally, IGT has lagged many of its industry peers and competitors over the past 1, 3, and 5 years. Most notably, IGT declined by 11.7% in 2012, compared to a return of 16.7% by the S&P 500 and an increase of 18.2% among its industry peers, demonstrating the dissident's contention that IGT has not participated in the sector or the broader market recovery."

"We appreciate ISS' support, which strongly validates our view that Board change is required in order to revitalize IGT's market share in the Casino Gaming Industry and increase value for all shareholders," stated Jason N. Ader, Managing Member of Ader Investment Management. "The Ader slate is also gratified by the encouragement it has received from various other parties, including public expressions of support from Orange Capital, a significant shareholder, and from Steve Wynn , Chairman and CEO of Wynn Resorts, Limited, a major IGT customer."

Mr. Ader concluded, "We have consistently tried to engage with the Board in a positive manner and if elected, Ray Brooks , Chuck Mathewson and Daniel Silvers are firmly committed to working constructively with IGT's management team and the other board members while independently representing the best interests of all shareholders. We are hopeful that the Board will welcome this latest call for change from an important shareholder constituency, and we urge all of our fellow shareholders to vote their GOLD proxy card today to elect our three highly-qualified director nominees to the Board of IGT."

Shareholders needing assistance in voting their GOLD proxy card may call the Ader Group's proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, toll-free at (877) 825-8621 (banks and brokers may call collect at (212) 750-5833).
