Makita Corporation applies for the de-listing of its shares from the Euronext Amsterdam Stock Exchange

Makita Corporation, Anjo City, Aichi Prefecture, Japanese securities code number 6586, decided today at a meeting of its Board of Directors to apply to the Euronext Amsterdam Stock Exchange for the de-listing of the Company's shares from Euronext Amsterdam.

The Board of Directors has found that the trading volume of Makita's shares at the Euronext Amsterdam Stock Exchange has been extremely low. According to the trading statistics available, no trading activity at all has been recorded in the recent one year period at least. Therefore it is no longer justified for Makita Corporation to bear the costs and other obligations related to the maintenance of this listing. Makita Corporation believes that the de-listing will have no adverse effect on the shareholders and investors as the shares will continue to be listed on the Tokyo and Nagoya Stock Exchanges as well as on the NASDAQ.

The application for the de-listing from the Euronext Amsterdam Stock Exchange will be made within the next days, and the de-listing is expected to be completed, subject to Euronext Amsterdam's de-listing procedures, by March 2005.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements based on Makita's own projections and estimates. The power tools market, where Makita is mainly active, is subject to the effects of rapid shifts in economic conditions, demand for housing, currency exchange rates, changes in competitiveness, and other factors. Due to the risks and uncertainties involved, actual results could differ substantially from the content of these statements. Therefore, these statements should not be interpreted as representation that such objectives will be achieved.
