The Shell Transport and Trading Company, p.l.c.

On 30 March 2005 Royal Dutch Petroleum Company and The Shell Transport and Trading Company (the Registrants) filed the 2004 Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended 31 December 2004 (the 2004 20-F) with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

The Registrants are furnishing this Report on Form 6-K to correct the following numerical information:

In the 2004 column of the table entitled "Crude oil and natural gas liquids production" on page 7 of the 2004 20-F, the number 120, representing such production for Canada, is hereby replaced with the number 40 to remove oil sands production data incorrectly included in the amount presented. As a result of this correction, the number 185, representing the subtotal of such production for the "Other Western Hemisphere" region for the year 2004, the number 2,253, representing the total of such production for the year 2004, and number 113, representing the metric equivalent of such total for the year 2004, are hereby replaced with the numbers 105, 2,173 and 109, respectively.

In the table entitled "Proved developed and undeveloped reserves" on page G58 of the 2004 20-F, the number 209 was incorrectly shown as a Minority Interest's share of proved reserves of Group companies in Europe at 31 December, 2004, so that the number 2,770, representing the total Minority Interests' share of proved reserves of Group companies At December 31 in the 2004 20-F was also incorrect. These numbers are hereby replaced with the numbers 0 and 2,561 respectively. As a result of this correction, in the table entitled "Standardised measure of discounted future cash flows" on page G60 of the 2004 20-F, the numbers 285 and 2,128, representing the Minority interests in 2004 in Europe and in total are hereby replaced with the numbers 0, and 1,842 respectively.

This filing supercedes a prior filing of the same date that contains an error in presenting the corrections.

Disclaimer statement This announcement contains forward-looking statements, that are subject to risk factors associated with the oil, gas, power, chemicals and renewables business. It is believed that the expectations reflected in these statements are reasonable, but may be affected by a variety of variables which could cause actual results, trends or reserves replacement to differ materially, including, but not limited to: price fluctuations, actual demand, currency fluctuations, drilling and production results, reserve estimates, loss of market, industry competition, environmental risks, physical risk, risks associated with the identification of suitable potential acquisition properties and targets and the successful negotiation and consummation of transactions, the risk of doing business in developing countries, legislative, fiscal and regulatory developments including potential litigation and regulatory effects arising from recategorisation of reserves, economic and financial market conditions in various countries and regions, political risks, project delay or advancement, approvals and cost estimates.

Please refer to the Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2004 for a description of certain important factors, risks and uncertainties that may affect the Registrants' businesses. Neither of the Registrants undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any of these forward-looking statements, whether to reflect new information, future events or otherwise.

Cautionary Note to US Investors:

The United States Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) permits oil and gas companies, in their filings with the SEC, to disclose only proved reserves that a company has demonstrated by actual production or conclusive formation tests to be economically and legally producible under existing economic and operating conditions. We use certain terms in this presentation, such as expected producible resources and amount of reserves we expect to produce, that the SEC's guidelines strictly prohibit us from including in filings with the SEC.
