Introduction

Specific portions of Philips Annual Report 2006 to Shareholders (the 2006 Annual Report) are incorporated by reference in this report on Form 20-F to the extent noted herein. Philips 2006 Annual Report (except as noted below) is attached hereto as Exhibit 15(b) and is furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission for information only. The 2006 Annual Report is not filed except for such specific portions that are expressly incorporated by reference in this Report on Form 20-F. Furthermore, the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) financial statements and related notes on pages 172 through 217 of the 2006 Annual Report, and the unconsolidated Company financial statements, including the Notes thereto, also prepared on the basis of IFRS, on pages 218 through 223 of the 2006 Annual Report, have been omitted from the version of such Report being furnished as an exhibit to this Report on Form 20-F. The IFRS financial statements and Company statements have been omitted because Philips primary consolidated accounts are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and Philips is not required to include in this Report on Form 20-F the IFRS financial statements and Company statements.

In presenting and discussing the Philips Group s financial position, operating results and cash flows, management uses certain non-US GAAP financial measures such as: comparable growth; earnings before interest, tax and amortization; net operating capital; net debt and cash flow before financing activities. These non-US GAAP financial measures should not be viewed in isolation as alternatives to the equivalent US GAAP measure and should be used in conjunction with the most directly comparable US GAAP measure(s). Unless otherwise indicated in this document, a discussion of the non-US GAAP measures included in this document and a reconciliation of such measures to the most directly comparable US GAAP measure(s) is contained on page 224 and 225 under the heading Reconciliation of non- US GAAP information in the 2006 Annual Report and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward-looking statements

Pursuant to provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Philips is providing the following cautionary statement. This document, including the portions of the Philips 2006 Annual Report to Shareholders incorporated hereby, contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of Philips and certain of the plans and objectives of Philips with respect to these items, in particular, among other statements, certain statements in Item 4 Information on the Company with regard to management objectives, market trends, market standing, product volumes and business risks, the statements in Item 8 Financial Information relating to legal proceedings, the statements in Item 5 Operating and Financial Review and Prospects with regard to Management s current expectations for the short term under the heading Outlook and with regard to trends in results of operations, margins, overall market trends, risk management, exchange rates and statements in Item 11 Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risks relating to risk caused by derivative positions, interest rate fluctuations and other financial exposure are forward-looking in nature.

Forward-looking statements can be identified generally as those containing words such as anticipates , assumes , believes , estimates , expects , should , will , will likely result , forecast , outlook , projects or similar expressions. Forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, levels of consumer and business spending in major economies, changes in consumer tastes and preferences, changes in law, the performance of the financial markets, pension costs, the levels of marketing and promotional expenditures by Philips and its competitors, raw materials and employee costs, changes in exchange and interest rates (in particular changes in the euro and the US dollar), changes in tax rates and future business combinations, acquisitions or dispositions and the rate of technological changes, political and military developments in countries where Philips operates, and industry consolidation. See also Item 3 Key information Risk factors . Market share estimates contained in this report are based on outside sources such as specialized research institutes, industry and dealer panels, in combination with management estimates. Where full-year information regarding 2006 is not yet available to Philips, those statements may also be based on estimates and projections prepared by outside sources or management. Rankings are based on, and references to leading and other measures of market performance refer to, sales unless otherwise indicated.

Cash dividends and distributions paid per Common Share

The following table sets forth in euros the gross dividends and cash distributions paid on the Common Shares in the financial years indicated (from prior-year profit distribution) and such amounts as converted into US dollars and paid to holders of Shares of New York registry:

	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006
In EUR	0.36	0.36	0.36	0.40	0.44
In US $	0.32	0.38	0.44	0.51	0.54

A proposal will be submitted to the 2007 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders to declare a dividend of EUR 0.60 per Common Share, which dependent on the amount of shares purchased in the current share repurchase program, we currently estimate a dividend of approximately EUR 630 million. In 2006, a dividend was paid of EUR 0.44 per common share (EUR 523 million) in respect of the financial year 2005.

Pursuant to article 33 of the Articles of Association of Royal Philips Electronics, and with the approval of the Supervisory Board, the remainder of the income for the financial year 2006 has been retained by way of reserve. The balance sheet in the consolidated financial statements presented in the 2006 Annual Report for the period ended and as at December 31, 2006 in accordance with IFRS, is before the dividend which is subject to shareholder approval after year-end.

The dollar equivalent of this cash distribution to be paid to shareholders in the year 2007 will be calculated at the euro/dollar rate of the official Amsterdam daily fixing rate (transfer rate) on the date fixed and announced for that purpose by the Company, expected to be April 4, 2007. The dollar equivalents of the prior year profit distributions paid to shareholders have been calculated at the euro/dollar rate of the official Amsterdam daily fixing rate (transfer rate) on the date fixed and announced for that purpose by the Company.

Exchange rates US $: EUR

The following two tables set forth, for the periods and dates indicated, certain information concerning the exchange rate for US dollars into euros based on the Noon Buying Rate in New York City for cable transfers in foreign currencies as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (the Noon Buying Rate).

Risk factors

The information on risk factors required by this Item is incorporated by reference herein from pages 86 through 99 under the heading "Risk Management" and note 36 on pages 170 and 171 of the 2006 Annual Report.

It describes some of the risks that could affect Philips' businesses. The risk factors and the cautionary statements contained in the section entitled "Introduction" on page 4 should be considered in connection with any forward-looking statements contained in Philips' Annual Report on Form 20-F. Forward-looking statements can be identified generally as those containing words such as "anticipates", "assumes", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "should", "will", "will likely", "forecast", "outlook", "projects" or similar expressions. From time to time, Philips may also provide oral or written forward-looking statements in other materials Philips releases to the public. The cautionary statements contained in "Introduction" are deemed to apply to these statements.

The risks described are not the only ones that Philips faces. Some risks are not yet known to Philips and certain risks that Philips does not currently believe to be material could later turn out to be material. All of these risks could materially affect Philips' business, its revenues, operating income, net income, net assets and liquidity and capital resources.

Property, plant and equipment

Philips owns and leases manufacturing facilities, research facilities, warehouses and office facilities in numerous countries over the world.

Philips has approximately 130 production sites in 26 countries. Philips believes that its plants are well maintained and, in conjunction with its capital expenditures for new property, plant and equipment, are generally adequate to meet its needs for the foreseeable future. For the net book value of its property, plant and equipment and developments therein, reference is made to note 15 "Property, plant and equipment" on page 145 of the 2006 Annual Report incorporated herein by reference. The geographic allocation of assets employed as shown in the section entitled "Information by sectors and main countries" on pages 121 through 123 of the 2006 Annual Report and incorporated herein by reference, is generally indicative of the location of manufacturing facilities. The headquarters in Amsterdam are leased. The information as shown in note 26, entitled "Contractual Obligations" on page 157 of the 2006 Annual Report, partly related to the rental of buildings, is incorporated herein by reference.

For environmental issues affecting the Company's properties, reference is made to note 27 on pages 157 and 158 of the 2006 Annual Report incorporated herein by reference.

Capital expenditures in progress are generally expected to be financed through internally generated cash flows. For a description of the geographic spread of capital expenditures, reference is made to the section "Information by sectors and main countries" on pages 121 through 123 of the 2006 Annual Report incorporated herein by reference.

For a description of the Company's principal acquisitions and divestitures, reference is made to note 2 on pages 131 through 135 of the 2006 Annual Report incorporated herein by reference.

1) Restated to present the Semiconductors division as a discontinued operation.

The proceeds of EUR 3.4 billion from the divestments helped to fund two share repurchase programs (under which EUR 1,836 million was used to acquire approximately 84 million shares), as well as two strategic acquisitions. In August 2005, Philips acquired Stentor, a leading provider of medical picture archiving and communications systems. In November 2005, Philips acquired an incremental 47.25% of the shares of Lumileds, bringing the Company's share ownership to 96.5%.

Sales in 2005 increased 4%, on both a nominal and a comparable basis, over 2004. Medical Systems, Domestic Appliances and Personal Care (DAP), Lighting, and Consumer Electronics (CE) achieved nominal sales growth of 8%, 7%, 6%, and 5%, respectively. Sales in Other Activities declined 18% on a nominal basis, primarily as a result of divestments. On a comparable basis, they declined 5%.

Net income in 2005 amounted to EUR 2,868 million, compared to EUR 2,836 million in 2004. The comparability of the income is impacted by several significant transactions in both years as discussed below.

EBIT amounted to EUR 1,472 million in 2005, compared to EUR 1,156 million in 2004.

In 2005, Medical Systems delivered EBIT of EUR 679 million (2004: EUR 35 million). Medical Systems' results were impacted by a loss of EUR 87 million for MedQuist, of which some EUR 50 million related to certain customer accommodation payments. The 2004 EBIT for Medical Systems of EUR 35 million included charges totaling EUR 723 million related to an impairment charge for MedQuist and a settlement related to the Volumetrics litigation.

In 2005, DAP generated EBIT of EUR 358 million (2004: EUR 332 million), benefiting from strong sales growth aided by the launch of a number of new products.

In 2005, CE achieved EBIT of EUR 506 million (2004: EUR 370 million), which included a EUR 136 million gain from the sale and transfer of certain activities within its monitors and flat TV business to TPV Technology. Optical Licenses' earnings, included in CE's 2005 results, declined by EUR 288 million; 70% of the decline related to past-use fees which were exceptionally high in 2004. Excluding Optical Licenses' income, CE's performance improved EUR 424 million, reflecting the benefits of the Business Renewal Program, including prior-year restructuring and the aforementioned TPV gain.

Lighting's EBIT decreased from EUR 593 million in 2004 to EUR 556 million in 2005. The decrease was mainly due to the increased research and development expenditures for new products, lower demand for UHP applications and costs related to the consolidation of Lumileds.

Table of Contents

Other Activities recorded negative EBIT of EUR 156 million, compared to a EUR 366 million profit achieved in 2004. EBIT in 2004 included a EUR 635 million gain from the NAVTEQ IPO.

In 2005, Unallocated generated a negative EBIT of EUR 471 million (2004: negative EUR 540 million). The improvement was attributable to a gain of EUR 116 million due to a release of a provision for retiree medical costs (EUR 187 million was recognized for the total Company), partially offset by higher costs for the Philips global brand campaign of EUR 58 million.

Financial income and expenses amounted to a profit of EUR 108 million in 2005, compared to a profit of EUR 216 million in 2004. The decline was due to lower gains on the sale of securities partly offset by the lower net interest expense due to the higher average cash position of the Company.

Results relating to unconsolidated companies generated a profit of EUR 1,754 million in 2005, as compared to EUR 1,464 million in 2004. The improved results were due to gains recognized on the sale of certain financial holdings, partially offset by an impairment charge recorded with respect to the investment in LG.Philips Displays.

Cash flows from operating activities for 2005 totalled EUR 1,141 million compared to EUR 1,435 million in 2004. An additional cash inflow of EUR 1,687 million was generated in 2005 by investing activities. Overall, these flows resulted in a net cash position (cash and cash equivalents, net of debt) of EUR 806 million at December 31, 2005 compared to a net debt position of EUR 164 million in 2004.

Sales in 2005 grew 4%, on both a nominal and comparable basis, to EUR 25,775 million. The appreciation of the US dollar and other currencies as compared to the euro had a positive net impact of 1% on sales, which was offset by consolidation changes. Comparable sales growth in 2005 was particularly strong at Medical Systems and DAP. The 7% growth at Medical Systems was driven by all businesses except MedQuist and Medical IT. Double-digit growth was visible in Computed Tomography, Ultrasound, X-ray and Cardiac & Monitoring Systems. The 6% growth at DAP was mainly attributable to Food & Beverage and Shaving & Beauty, following a large number of new product launches across all businesses. CE grew nearly 5%, driven by Connected Displays (strong growth in FlatTVs) and Home Entertainment Networks. Optical Licenses sales declined. In the Lighting division, Lighting Electronics and Luminaires were the main drivers of the 4% growth. Other Activities sales declined almost 18% in nominal terms due to the divestment of certain non-strategic activities within the Corporate Investments portfolio.

1) Restated to present the Semiconductors division as a discontinued operation.

Total EBIT increased from 4.6% to 5.7% of sales in 2005 from 2004.

In 2005, Medical Systems' EBIT of EUR 679 million was above 2004. 2004 included impairment charges of EUR 590 million for MedQuist and EUR 133 million for the Volumetrics litigation settlement. The growth in sales in 2005 was not fully reflected in EBIT margins mainly due to increased expenditures in research and development and the loss of EUR 87 million for MedQuist.

In 2005, DAP improved its EBIT primarily as a result of strong sales growth driven by new products. Profitability improved to 16.3% of sales, slightly above both 2004's 16.2% and the division's target of 15%.

The EBIT of CE's operational business, which excludes Optical Licenses, improved significantly in 2005 due to higher sales, the positive impact of its Business Renewal Program, EUR 73 million lower restructuring charges and the EUR 136 million gain on the TPV transaction.

Optical Licenses, which is part of CE, saw income from optical patents decline, from EUR 478 million in 2004 to EUR 190 million in 2005 following an exceptionally strong contribution to income generated by past-use licenses and general settlements in 2004. Current-use license income decreased by EUR 86 million, mainly as a result of lower proceeds from CD and DVD-related programs.

Lighting's EBIT declined from EUR 593 million in 2004 to EUR 556 million, mainly as a result of increased research and development expenditures for new products, lower demand for UHP applications and costs related to the acquisition in November 2005 of a further 47.25% stake in Lumileds. Philips' stake in Lumileds was 96.5% at the end of 2005.

The results of Other Activities in 2005 included improvements at Corporate Technologies (due to the closure of Liquid Crystal on Silicon (LCoS) and the divestment of PolyLED) and the Global Service Units (as a result of gains on real estate transactions). At Corporate Investments, income fell mainly due to the weak operational performance of Assembléon, as well as impairment and restructuring charges. The 2004 EBIT at Other Activities benefited from the initial public offering of NAVTEQ, which resulted in a gain of EUR 635 million.

The Unallocated sector consists mainly of costs of the corporate and regional organizations, pension costs not allocated to the sectors and costs for the global brand campaign. The total loss of Unallocated was reduced by EUR 69 million to a loss of EUR 471 million in 2005.

Pension costs in 2005 for Unallocated were EUR 18 million lower than in 2004 as a result of reduced costs in The Netherlands. Higher expenditures were made for the global brand campaign (EUR 138 million in 2005 compared to EUR 80 million in 2004).

Postretirement benefits costs in Unallocated included EUR 116 million income from a total provision release of EUR 187 million. The latter was triggered by a change in Dutch law relating to the treatment of medical insurance costs.

Financial income and expenses

in millions of euros	2004	2005
Interest expenses (net)	(258)	(197)
Sales of securities	440	233
Other	34	72

Net interest expenses were EUR 61 million lower than in 2004, mainly as a result of the higher average cash position of the Company during 2005 compared to 2004.

Income from the sale of securities reported under financial income and expenses contained the following main items:

Table of Contents

in millions of euros	2004	2005
Income from the sale of securities:

Gain on sale of Great Nordic shares		48
Gain on sale of ASML shares	140
Gain on sale of Vivendi Universal shares	300
Total	440	233

The sale of the remaining shares in Atos Origin and Great Nordic, which were accounted for under available-for-sale securities, resulted in gains of EUR 185 million and EUR 48 million respectively. In 2004, the remaining shares in Vivendi Universal and ASML were sold.

Other financial income of EUR 72 million mainly related to a fair value gain on a share option (EUR 53 million) within the convertible bond received in connection with the sale and transfer of certain activities within Philips monitors and entry-level flat TV business to TPV.

Other financial income in 2004 primarily related to the recognition of interest (EUR 46 million) resulting from a favourable resolution of fiscal audits.

Income taxes

Income taxes amounted to EUR 506 million in 2005, compared to EUR 230 million in 2004. Income taxes in 2005 included an amount of EUR 240 million related to the transfer of shares of TSMC to the Company from its fully owned subsidiary Philips Electronics Industries Taiwan. This was partly offset by tax gains of EUR 109 million relating to final agreements on prior-year taxes in various jurisdictions.

The tax burden in 2005 corresponded to an effective tax rate of 32.0% on the pre-tax income, compared to an effective tax rate in 2004 of 16.8%. The effective tax rate in 2005 was affected by tax-exempt items such as a total gain of EUR 233 million from the sale of shares in Atos Origin and Great Nordic, as well as part of the gain from the sale and transfer of certain activities within Philips monitors and entry-level flat TV business to TPV. Non taxable items in 2004 were the gains on the initial public offering of NAVTEQ (EUR 635 million) and the sale of shares of Vivendi Universal and ASML (EUR 440 million) offset by the impairment charges of MedQuist of EUR 590 million.

Results relating to unconsolidated companies

The results from unconsolidated companies increased in 2005 by EUR 290 million to EUR 1,754 million:

in millions of euros	2004 ¹⁾	2005 ¹⁾
Company's participation in income	1,033	513
Results on sales of shares	185	1,545
Gains arising from dilution effects	254	165
Investment impairment and guarantee charges	(8)	(469)
	1,464	1,754

1) Restated to present the Semiconductors division as a discontinued operation.

The Company's participation in the net income of unconsolidated companies declined from EUR 1,033 million in 2004 to EUR 513 million in 2005, primarily as a result of lower results at LG.Philips LCD. In addition, the sale of stakes led to reduced shareholdings in the unconsolidated companies and, consequently, a reduction in Philips' share in their net income.

For LG.Philips LCD, the trend to replace cathode-ray tube (CRT) displays with flat displays was the key driver leading to sales growth of 21% in 2005. As a result of strong price erosion and the reduced shareholding, the Company's share in LG.Philips LCD's operational result was EUR 146 million in 2005, EUR 429 million below 2004.

In 2005, the Company had a share in income and losses of various other companies, primarily TSMC and InterTrust. In 2004, the license agreement between InterTrust Technologies and Microsoft to settle all their outstanding litigation contributed a net gain of EUR 100 million.

Results on the sale of shares in 2005 are primarily attributable to the EUR 753 million gain on the sale of the remaining 33 million shares in NAVTEQ. Additionally, 568 million shares in TSMC (EUR 460 million gain) were sold, reducing the shareholding from 19.0% to 16.4%. Furthermore, in 2005 the Company sold 27.4 million shares in LG.Philips LCD, resulting in a gain of EUR 332 million and a 7.6% reduction in the shareholding from 40.5% to 32.9%.

Gains and losses arising from dilution effects in 2005 were mainly due to a EUR 189 million dilution gain recorded for LG.Philips LCD as a result of the secondary offering of shares in 2005. As a consequence, the Company's shareholding in LG.Philips LCD decreased from 44.6% to 40.5%. This dilution gain increased the book value of Philips' investment in LG.Philips LCD.

In 2005 and 2004, new shares were issued in grants to employees and as a stock dividend. Because Philips only participated in the stock dividend distribution, its shareholding in TSMC was diluted as a result of shares issued to employees. Accordingly, Philips recorded a dilution loss of EUR 24 million in 2005. This dilution loss decreased the book value of Philips' investment in TSMC and was charged to results relating to unconsolidated companies.

On December 21, 2005, Philips announced the write-off of the book value of LG.Philips Displays due to the increased pressure from flat displays on demand and prices for CRTs. The write-off of the remaining book value at the end of November amounted to EUR 126 million for the investment and EUR 290 million for the accumulated currency translation losses related to the investment previously accounted for directly in Philips' stockholders' equity. The impairment charges totaled EUR 416 million and were of a non-cash nature. Philips also fully provided for the existing guarantee of EUR 42 million provided to LG.Philips Displays' banks. All amounts above were reported to Results relating to unconsolidated companies in December 2005.

Minority interests

The share of minority interests in the income of group companies in 2005 increased income by EUR 3 million, compared to a reduction of EUR 22 million in 2004. The main drivers behind the increase were a share in the loss of MedQuist due to its deteriorating results (largely impacted by a charge of some EUR 50 million related to certain customer accommodation payments) as well as the impact of the deconsolidation of NAVTEQ.

Net income

In 2005, net income amounted to EUR 2,868 million (EUR 2.29 per common share - basic), compared to EUR 2,836 million (EUR 2.22 per common share - basic) in 2004.

Total currency-comparable order intake in 2005 was very strong, with 14% growth compared to 2004, and included solid order intake for the new iSite® PACS from Stentor.

In 2005, sales increased compared to 2004, showing nominal growth of 8% and comparable growth of 7%, driven by all businesses except MedQuist and Medical IT (which was partly impacted by the Stentor acquisition due to the revenue delay in anticipation of the new iSite® PACS from Stentor). Double-digit growth was visible in Computed Tomography (due to strong demand for new products such as the Brilliance CT 40- and 64-slice), Ultrasound (due to strong demand for the new products iE33, HD11 and HD3), X-ray and Cardiac & Monitoring Systems. All regions contributed to this sales growth, especially Asia Pacific and Latin America.

EBIT of Medical Systems in 2005 was negatively impacted by higher research and development expenditures (specifically in the areas of molecular medicine and new sensor technologies) and additional costs related to the acquisition of Stentor. Research and development expenditures as a percentage of sales increased from 8.1% in 2004 to 8.3% in 2005.

MedQuist posted a negative EBIT of EUR 87 million in 2005 (2004: profit of EUR 12 million), of which some EUR 50 million was attributable to certain customer accommodation payments.

EBIT in 2004 was negatively impacted by the EUR 590 million impairment charge at MedQuist and the EUR 133 million net litigation settlement for Volumetrics. Adjusted for MedQuist in 2004 and 2005, and Volumetrics in 2004, EBIT of Medical Systems increased by EUR 20 million in 2005.

Cash flow before financing activities decreased by EUR 111 million and was impacted by the acquisition related cash outflow for Stentor of EUR 194 million.

In 2005, full-year sales grew by 7% on a nominal basis, and 6% on a comparable basis from 2004. Nominal sales growth was mainly driven by a 7% increase at Shaving & Beauty (attributable to new SmartTouch/Speed-XL shavers and new hair care products) and a 15% increase at Food & Beverage (driven by Senseo, food appliances and PerfectDraft). Home Environment Care posted 5% growth, driven by the new vacuum cleaner line. In spite of a growing market share in the US, Oral Healthcare sales declined by 1%, mainly due to strong competition in Europe. Research and development expenditures increased in the Consumer Health & Wellness group. In 2005, EBIT amounted to EUR 358 million, or 16.3% of sales, slightly above 2004's level and the division's target of 15%.

Compared to 2004, CE achieved strong sales growth of 5% in 2005 on both a nominal and comparable basis. In value terms, sales exceeded EUR 10 billion. Connected Displays (strong increase in FlatTV) and Home Entertainment Networks (increase in DVD recorders) drove the growth, whereas Optical Licenses and Mobile Infotainment (decrease in mobile phone sales) showed a decline. Excluding Optical Licenses, nominal and comparable sales growth was 8%.

Table of Contents

Compared to 2004, EBIT improved by EUR 136 million to EUR 506 million in 2005, including the EUR 136 million gain related to the TPV transaction. In 2005, restructuring charges were EUR 73 million lower than in 2004. Optical Licenses EBIT of EUR 190 million was EUR 288 million lower than in 2004; of this decline, 70% was due to lower past-use fees, the remainder to lower current-use fees from CD and DVD-related patents. The change in EBIT was affected by Optical Licenses, the TPV gain and restructuring costs. Adjusted for those, EBIT was EUR 247 million in 2005, or 2.4% of sales, an improvement of EUR 215 million compared to 2004.

In 2005, net operating capital ended at EUR 296 million negative (2004: negative EUR 161 million), reflecting the ongoing success of the division's asset-light strategy.

In 2005, nominal sales increased 6% over 2004, with changes in the value of the dollar and dollar-related currencies and the consolidation of Lumileds having a positive impact of 2%. Lumileds was consolidated at the end of November 2005, with only a marginal impact on the division's sales. Comparable sales increased by 4% in 2005. Lamps, Luminaires and Lighting Electronics, with comparable growth of 4%, 6% and 6% respectively, were the main drivers. Nominal growth was 5%, 7% and negative 3% respectively, the latter influenced by the transfer of part of the Lighting Electronics activities to the Automotive, Special Lighting, UHP & LCD Backlighting group. With comparable growth of just 1% (nominal sales growth was 12%), the Automotive, Special Lighting, UHP & LCD Backlighting activities were impacted primarily by lower demand for UHP applications, in particular those related to the rear projection television and front projector markets. In 2005, sales in Asia Pacific and Europe were strong, with nominal growth of 9% and 6% respectively.

EBIT decreased from EUR 593 million in 2004 to EUR 556 million in 2005. The decrease was mainly due to increased research and development expenditures for new products, lower demand for UHP applications and costs related to the consolidation of Lumileds. Restructuring and impairment charges in 2005 amounted to EUR 32 million, compared to EUR 63 million in 2004.

Cash flow before financing activities decreased by EUR 805 million in 2005, mainly due to the cash outflow of EUR 788 million for the Lumileds acquisition.

Corporate Technologies

EBIT of Corporate Technologies in 2005 amounted to a loss of EUR 219 million, compared to a loss of EUR 323 million in 2004. The closure of Liquid Crystal on Silicon (LCoS) activities in the fourth quarter of 2004 and the divestment of PolyLED in the third quarter of 2005 reduced costs by EUR 77 million compared to 2004. The Technology Incubator initiated a number of new products whose development accelerated during 2005, resulting in higher costs. New incubators for healthcare and lifestyle were established.

Corporate Investments

EBIT showed a loss of EUR 58 million in 2005, compared to earnings of EUR 102 million in 2004. This was due to lower earnings at the main businesses as well as restructuring and impairment charges (totaling EUR 28 million) in connection with the repositioning of activities.

Sales of the main businesses Assembléon and Philips Enabling Technologies Group decreased in 2005 by 12% and 17% respectively on both a nominal and comparable basis. Sales and earnings at Assembléon were negatively impacted by quality problems, since resolved, with the introduction of a new system. Sales of Philips Enabling Technologies Group decreased in line with market developments.

In 2005, HTP Automotive, Philips Aerospace and CMS Louviers were successfully divested, resulting in a positive cash flow of EUR 19 million and a transaction loss of EUR 5 million.

Other

The Finance Shared Services, People Services, Purchasing Services, Real Estate Services and IT Services organizations were key contributors to the efficiencies achieved in 2005.

EBIT fell from EUR 587 million in 2004 to EUR 121 million in 2005. The decline is primarily due to the net book gain in 2004 of EUR 635 million relating to the initial public offering of NAVTEQ.

EBIT in 2005 was positively impacted by the result of the Real Estate Service Unit, with various gains on real estate transactions amounting to EUR 122 million. The sale of the Philips Pension Competence Center in 2005 resulted in a gain of EUR 42 million, which was offset by lower EBIT from Optical Storage, which decreased from EUR 68 million in 2004 to EUR 4 million in 2005.

Corporate & Regional Overheads

Corporate and regional overhead costs in 2005 were higher than in 2004, primarily as a result of spending on certain corporate projects in the fields of Human Resources Management, Finance Excellence and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance. In addition, 2004 included some incidental provision releases.

The extension of the global brand campaign activities in 2005 resulted in a corresponding increase in expenditure.

The EUR 16 million costs under pensions/postretirement benefit costs included a gain of EUR 116 million from a total provision release of EUR 187 million. The latter was triggered by a change in Dutch law relating to the treatment of medical insurance costs.

Compared to 2004, Sales in Europe and Africa declined by 2% in 2005, with divestments having a downward effect of 1%. The decline was mainly visible in Other Activities, whereas Medical Systems, DAP and Lighting showed a nominal sales increase of 3%, 6% and 6% respectively.

Sales in North America showed a strong increase of 8% in 2005, both nominally and comparably, and were particularly strong in CE, which benefited from the positive impact of the Business Renewal Program and strong demand for FlatTV and DVD recorders with hard-disk functionality.

Table of Contents

Sales in Asia Pacific increased by 2% in 2005. Growth was visible in all divisions except CE, which benefited from past-use license agreements in 2004. Double-digit growth was visible at Medical Systems and DAP on a nominal basis.

Latin America posted exceptional sales growth of 31% nominal in 2005, attributable in part to the positive effects of currency movements. Excluding these currency effects, the region nevertheless showed strong comparable growth of 19%. All divisions, except Lighting (12% nominal; 5% comparable) and Other Activities (3% nominal decrease; 4% comparable decrease), returned double-digit growth on a nominal and comparable basis. EBIT improved in all regions except Asia Pacific in 2005, as 2004 EBIT in Asia Pacific was positively influenced by past-use license agreements.

Research and development expenditures

In 2005 research and development expenditures totalled EUR 1.6 billion, or 6.2% of sales, compared to 6.5% in 2004. During 2005 and 2004, total expenditure on research and development has remained relatively stable, while sales have shown consistent year-on-year growth. Consequently, research and development expenditure as a percentage of sales has fallen to a low in 2005 of 6.2%.

In 2005, Medical Systems saw an increased research and development spend in the areas of molecular medicine and new sensor technologies, Lighting in LCD backlighting and DAP in Consumer Health & Wellness. Research and development expenditure was also aligned to the healthcare, lifestyle and technology focus areas, including the establishment in late 2005 of two new research incubators for healthcare and lifestyle (breeding grounds for new, innovative product concepts). As a result, the relative amount of research invested in the more traditional areas was reduced.

The largest employment reductions in 2005 occurred at Other Activities (due to divestments and a lower activity level) and at CE (due to the sale and transfer of certain activities within Philips monitors and entry-level flat TV business to TPV). The number of employees increased at Lighting due to the consolidation of Lumileds.

Cash flows from operating activities

In 2005, net cash provided by operating activities amounted to EUR 1,141 million, compared to EUR 1,435 million in 2004, mainly reflecting higher working capital needs, particularly in Medical Systems and Lighting. Inventories as a percentage of sales at the end of 2005 increased to 10.9%, 0.8% above the level of the previous year. During 2005, the lower amount of cash generated from the movement in working capital was driven by a lower increase in payables than in receivables and inventories.

Cash flows from investing activities

Net cash provided by investing activities of EUR 1,687 million in 2005 (2004: EUR 1,322 million) mainly consisted of:

- § Net capital expenditures of EUR 506 million, EUR 119 million below the level of 2004.
- § Acquisitions totalling EUR 1,107 million, mainly the acquisition of the additional 47.25% share in Lumileds which had a cash impact of EUR 788 million. Stentor was acquired for EUR 194 million. In addition, cash payments of EUR 46 million were made for maturing currency hedges.
- § Cash proceeds from divestments of EUR 3,346 million, mainly related to the sale of shares in NAVTEQ (EUR 932 million), TSMC (EUR 770 million), Atos Origin (EUR 554 million), LG.Philips LCD (EUR 938 million) and Great Nordic (EUR 67 million).

As a result of the items mentioned above, cash flows before financing activities were positive EUR 2,828 million in 2005, compared to EUR 2,757 million in 2004.

Cash flows from financing activities

Net cash used for financing activities in 2005 amounted to EUR 2,589 million. The impact of changes in debt was a reduction of EUR 324 million, including EUR 251 million of scheduled bond repayments. Philips' shareholders were paid EUR 504 million in dividend. Additionally, EUR 1,836 million was used to acquire approximately 84 million shares as a part of the Company's share repurchase programs. Offsetting this amounts in part was a cash inflow due to the exercise of stock options for an amount of EUR 75 million.

Net cash used for financing activities in 2004 amounted to EUR 2,145 million. During the year, Philips repaid EUR 1,227 million of maturing bonds and repurchased EUR 300 million of notes that otherwise would have matured on August 30, 2005. Additionally, Philips' shareholders were paid EUR 460 million in dividend. Treasury stock transactions led to a cash outflow of EUR 18 million. Cash outflow for shares acquired (EUR 96 million) was partly offset by cash inflow due to the exercise of stock options (EUR 78 million).

Cash and cash equivalents

In 2005, cash and cash equivalents increased by EUR 944 million to EUR 5,293 million at year-end. Cash proceeds from divestments amounted to EUR 3,346 million, while the share repurchase programs led to a cash outflow of EUR 1,836 million. There were further cash outflows for acquisitions of EUR 1,107 million, including Stentor and Lumileds for a total of EUR 982 million. Currency changes during 2005 increased cash and cash equivalents by EUR 159 million. In 2004, cash and cash equivalents increased by EUR 1,277 million to EUR 4,349 million at year-end. Currency changes during 2004 reduced cash and cash equivalents by EUR 45 million.

Debt position

Total debt outstanding at the end of 2005 was EUR 4,487 million, compared with EUR 4,513 million at the end of 2004.

Changes in debt are as follows:

in millions of euros	2004	2005
New borrowings	258	74
Repayments	(1,925)	(398)
Consolidation and currency effects	304	298
Total changes in debt	(1,363)	(26)

In 2005, total debt decreased by EUR 26 million to EUR 4,487 million. Philips repaid EUR 251 million in scheduled bond repayments. A further EUR 53 million was repaid or converted under convertible personnel debentures and staff savings plans, repayments of bank facilities and capital lease transactions were EUR 78 million and the remaining repayments of EUR 16 million resulted from reductions in other debt. New borrowings of EUR 74 million included EUR 35 million for convertible personnel debentures and staff savings plans, a further EUR 24 million for capital lease transactions with the remaining EUR 15 million split over other types of debt.

In 2004, total debt decreased by EUR 1,363 million to EUR 4,513 million. Philips reduced the outstanding bonds by EUR 1,527 million, due to a EUR 1,227 million repayment of maturing bonds and a EUR 300 million early redemption of a note. Currency effects reduced total debt by EUR 105 million.

Long-term debt as a proportion of the total debt stood at 74% at the end of 2005, compared to 79% at the end of 2004.

Table of ContentsNet debt

The Company had a net cash position (cash and cash equivalents, net of debt) of EUR 806 million at the end of 2005, compared to a net debt position at the end of 2004 of EUR 164 million.

Stockholders' equity

Stockholders' equity increased by EUR 1,806 million to EUR 16,666 million at December 31, 2005. Net income contributed EUR 2,868 million, whereas other comprehensive income had an increasing effect of EUR 1,137 million, mainly due to the positive change of currency translation differences (EUR 1,521 million), partly offset by the effect of the sale of available-for-sale securities (EUR 184 million), a negative change in the deferred result of forward exchange rate contracts (EUR 84 million) and additional minimum pension liabilities (EUR 116 million).

Furthermore, stockholders' equity was reduced by EUR 504 million due to the dividend payment to shareholders in 2005, and by EUR 1,836 million due to the share repurchase programs for capital reduction purposes and the hedging of long term incentive and employee stock purchase programs.

In 2004, stockholders' equity increased by EUR 2,097 million to EUR 14,860 million. The increase was primarily driven by net income of EUR 2,836 million. This was partly offset by decreases of EUR 242 million related to available-for-sale securities, EUR 43 million in negative currency translation differences and the dividend payment of EUR 460 million.

The number of outstanding common shares of Royal Philips Electronics at December 31, 2005 was 1,201 million (2004: 1,282 million).

At the end of 2005, the Group held 43.0 million shares in treasury to cover the future delivery of shares in conjunction with the 69.0 million rights outstanding at year-end 2005 under the Company's long-term incentive plan and convertible personnel debentures. At the end of 2005, the Company held 71.7 million shares for cancellation. Treasury shares are accounted for as a reduction of stockholders' equity.

Liquidity position

The fair value of the Company's listed available-for-sale securities, based on quoted market prices at December 31, 2005, amounted to EUR 113 million, of which EUR 78 million related to JDS Uniphase and EUR 35 million related to D&M Holdings. Philips' shareholding in its main listed unconsolidated companies had a fair value of EUR 11,139 million based on quoted market prices at December 31, 2005, and consisted primarily of the Company's holdings in TSMC, TPV and LG.Philips LCD with values of EUR 6,531 million, EUR 218 million and EUR 4,244 million respectively. The Company has lock-up periods associated with the sale of shares in some of its shareholdings in listed unconsolidated companies. These lock-up periods, with their associated expiry dates, exist for LG.Philips LCD (February 2006), FEI Company (February 2006), TSMC (December 2006) and TPV (September 2008). Furthermore, the LG.Philips LCD shareholders agreement with LG Electronics includes an agreement that both companies will maintain a holding of at least 30% each until July 2007.

Including the Company's net cash position, listed available-for-sale securities and listed unconsolidated companies, as well as its USD 2.5 billion revolving credit facility, the Company had access to net available liquidity resources of EUR 14,167 million as of December 31, 2005, compared to EUR 12,624 million one year earlier.

Critical accounting policies

The preparation of Philips' financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of our financial statements. The policies that management considers both to be most important to the presentation of Philips' financial condition and results of operations and to make the most significant demands on management's judgments and estimates about matters that are inherently uncertain are discussed below. Management cautions that future events often vary from forecasts and that estimates routinely require adjustment.

A complete description of Philips' accounting policies appears on pages 124 through 129 under the heading "Accounting Policies" of the 2006 Annual Report, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Accounting for pensions and other postretirement benefits

Retirement benefits represent obligations that will be settled in the future and require assumptions to project benefit obligations and fair values of plan assets. Retirement benefit accounting is intended to reflect the recognition of future benefit costs over the employee's approximate service period, based on the terms of the plans and the investment and funding decisions made by the Company. The accounting requires management to make assumptions regarding variables such as discount rate, rate of compensation increase, return on assets, and future healthcare costs. Pension assumptions are set centrally by the management in consultation with its local, regional or country management and locally appointed actuaries at least once a year. If reasonably practical, the Company uses the full yield curve. If not, the Company sets a single point discount rate, which corresponds to the maturity of the pension plan's liabilities. Discount rates are preferably derived from the swap curve, unless the bylaws or plan rules of a particular pension plan and/or the local regulator explicitly permits and Trustees agree to value their pension plan's liabilities against the yield on corporate AA bonds. If the swap curve is not available in a particular market, the discount rate is dependent on the sovereign bond curve. Relevant data regarding various local swap curves, sovereign bond curves and/or corporate AA bonds are sourced from Bloomberg.

Changes in the key assumptions can have a significant impact on the projected benefit obligations, funding requirements and periodic cost incurred. For a discussion of the current funded status and a sensitivity analysis with respect to pension plan assumptions, please refer to note 20 on pages 148 through 152 of the 2006 Annual Report incorporated herein by reference. For a sensitivity analysis with respect to changes in the assumptions used for postretirement benefits other than pensions, please refer to note 21 on pages 153 through 155 of 2006 Annual Report incorporated herein by reference.

Contingent liabilities

Legal proceedings covering a range of matters are pending in various jurisdictions against the Company and its subsidiaries. Due to the uncertainty inherent in litigation, it is often difficult to predict the final outcome. The cases and claims against the Company often raise difficult and complex factual and legal issues which are subject to many uncertainties and complexities, including but not limited to the facts and circumstances of each particular case and claim, the jurisdiction in which each suit is brought and the differences in applicable law. In the normal course of business, management consults with legal counsel and certain other experts on matters related to litigation.

The Company accrues a liability when it is determined that an adverse outcome is probable and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. If either the likelihood of an adverse outcome is only reasonably possible or an estimate is not determinable, the matter is disclosed provided it is material.

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject to environmental laws and regulations. Under these laws, the Company and its subsidiaries may be required to remediate the effects of the release or disposal of certain chemicals on the environment. The methodology for determining the level of liability requires a significant amount of judgment regarding assumptions and estimates. In determining the accrual for losses associated with environmental remediation obligations, such significant judgments relate to the extent and types of hazardous substances at a site, the various technologies that may be used for remediation, the standards of what constitutes acceptable remediation, the relative risk of the environmental condition, the number and financial condition of other potentially responsible parties, and the extent of the Company's and/or its subsidiaries' involvement. The Company utilizes experts in the estimation process. However, these judgments, by their nature, may result in variances between actual losses and estimates.

Accruals for estimated losses from environmental remediation obligations are recognized when information becomes available that allows a reasonable estimate of the liability, or a component (i.e. particular tasks) thereof. The accruals are adjusted as further information becomes available.

Please refer to note 27 of the 2006 Annual Report incorporated herein by reference for a discussion of contingent liabilities.

Accounting for income taxes

As part of the process of preparing consolidated financial statements, the Company is required to estimate income taxes in each of the jurisdictions in which it conducts business. This process involves estimating actual current tax expense and temporary differences between tax and financial reporting. Temporary differences result in deferred tax assets and liabilities, which are included in the consolidated balance sheet. The Company must assess the likelihood that deferred tax assets will be recovered from future taxable income. A valuation allowance is recognized to reduce deferred tax assets if, and to the extent that, it is more likely than not that all or some portion of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. In the event that actual results differ from estimates in future periods, and depending on the tax strategies that the Company may be able to implement, changes to the valuation allowance could be required, which could impact the Company's financial position and net income.

Impairment

Goodwill and indefinite-lived intangibles are not amortized but tested for impairment annually in the second quarter and whenever impairment indicators require so. The Company reviews long-lived assets other than goodwill and indefinite-lived intangibles for impairment when events or circumstances indicate that carrying amounts may not be recoverable.

Assets subject to this review include equity and security investments, intangible assets and tangible fixed assets.

Impairment of equity and security investments results in a charge to income when a loss in the value of an investment is deemed to be other than temporary. Management regularly reviews each equity and security investment for impairment based on the extent to which cost exceeds market value, the duration of decline in market value and the financial condition of the issuer. In determining impairments of intangible assets, tangible fixed assets and goodwill, management must make significant judgments and estimates to determine whether the cash flows generated by those assets are less than their carrying value. Determining cash flows requires the use of judgments and estimates that have been included in the Company's strategic plans and long-range forecasts. The data necessary for the execution of the impairment tests are based on management's estimates of future cash flows, which require estimating revenue growth rates and profit margins. Assets other than goodwill are written down to their fair value when the undiscounted cash flows are less than the carrying value of the assets. The fair value of impaired assets is generally determined by taking into account these estimated cash flows and using a present value technique for discounting these cash flows based on the business specific Weighted Average Cost of Capital (WACC), which ranged between 7.7% and 14.1% in 2006. Goodwill is evaluated annually for impairment at business unit level, and written down to its implied fair value, in the case of impairment. The determination of such implied fair value involves significant judgement and estimates from management. Changes in assumptions and estimates included within the impairment reviews could result in significantly different results than those recorded in the consolidated financial statements.

Valuation allowances for certain assets

The Company records its inventories at cost and provides for the risk of obsolescence using the lower of cost or market principle. The expected future use of inventory is based on estimates about future demand and past experience with similar inventories and their usage.

The risk of uncollectibility of accounts receivable is primarily estimated based on prior experience with, and the past due status of, doubtful debtors, while large accounts are assessed individually based on factors that include ability to pay, bankruptcy and payment history. In addition, debtors in certain countries are subject to a higher collectibility risk, which is taken into account when assessing the overall risk of uncollectibility. Should the outcome differ from the assumptions and estimates, revisions to the estimated valuation allowances would be required.

Warranty costs

The Company provides for warranty costs based on historical trends in product return rates and the expected material and labor costs to provide warranty services. If it were to experience an increase in warranty claims compared with historical experience, or costs of servicing warranty claims were greater than the expectations on which the accrual had been based, income could be adversely affected.

Intangible assets acquired in business combinations

The Company has acquired several entities in business combinations that have been accounted for by the purchase method, resulting in recognition of substantial amounts of in-process research and development, goodwill and other intangible assets. The amounts assigned to the acquired assets and liabilities are based on assumptions and estimates about their fair values. In making these estimates, management typically consults independent qualified appraisers. A change in assumptions and estimates would change the purchase price allocation, which could affect the amount or timing of charges to the income statement, such as write-offs of in-process research and development and amortization of intangible assets. In-process research and development is written off immediately upon acquisition, whereas intangible assets other than goodwill are amortized over their economic lives.

The Common Shares are held by shareholders worldwide in bearer and registered form. Outside the United States, shares are held primarily in bearer form. As of December 31, 2006, approximately 87% of the total number of outstanding Common Shares were held in bearer form. In the United States shares are held primarily in the form of registered Shares of New York Registry for which Citibank, N.A., 111 Wall Street, New York, New York 10043 is the transfer agent and registrar. As of December 31, 2006, approximately 13% of the total number of outstanding Common Shares were represented by Shares of New York Registry issued in the name of approximately 1,553 holders of record.

Only bearer shares are traded on the stock market of Euronext Amsterdam. Only Shares of New York Registry are traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Bearer shares and registered shares may be exchanged for each other. Since certain shares are held by brokers and other nominees, these numbers may not be representative of the actual number of United States beneficial holders or the number of Shares of New York Registry beneficially held by US residents. For further information on Preference shares, a reference is made to the sections entitled "Stockholders' Equity" on page 160 and "Preference Shares and the Stichting Preferente Aandelen Philips" on page 232 of the 2006 Annual Report, which is incorporated herein by reference. As of December 31, 2006, there were 2,500,000,000 Preference shares authorized, of which none were issued.

Material contracts

For a description of the material provisions of the employment agreements with members of the Board of Management, refer to Item 6: Directors, Senior Management and Employees.

In September 2006, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Kaslion Acquisition B.V. and Philips Semiconductors International B.V. for the sale of the majority stake in Philips Semiconductors division. The Stock Purchase Agreement, dated September 28, 2006 among Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V., NXP B.V. and Kaslion B.V., is filed herewith as Exhibit 4(h).

The terms and conditions of the employment agreements entered into by members of the Board of Management, are filed herewith as Exhibit 4.

Exchange controls

There are currently no limitations, either under the laws of the Netherlands or in the Articles of Association of the Company, to the rights of non-residents to hold or vote Common Shares of the Company. Cash dividends payable in Euros on Netherlands registered shares and bearer shares may be officially transferred from the Netherlands and converted into any other currency without Dutch legal restrictions, except that for statistical purposes such payments and transactions must be reported to the Dutch Central Bank, and furthermore, no payments, including dividend payments, may be made to jurisdictions subject to sanctions adopted by the government of the Netherlands and implementing resolutions of the Security Council of the United Nations.

The Articles of Association of the Company provide that cash distributions on Shares of New York Registry shall be paid in US dollars, converted at the rate of exchange on the stock market of Euronext Amsterdam at the close of business on the day fixed and announced for that purpose by the Board of Management.

Netherlands Taxation

The statements below are only a summary of the present Netherlands tax laws and the Tax Convention of December 18, 1992, as amended by the protocol that entered into force on December 28, 2004, between the United States of America and the Kingdom of the Netherlands (the US Tax Treaty) and are not to be read as extending by implication to matters not specifically referred to herein. As to individual tax consequences, investors in the Common Shares should consult their own tax advisors.

Withholding tax

In general, a distribution to shareholders by a company resident in the Netherlands (such as the Company) is subject to a withholding tax imposed by the Netherlands at a rate of 15%. Stock dividends paid out of the Company's paid-in share premium recognized for Netherlands tax purposes are not subject to the above mentioned withholding tax. Stock dividends paid out of the Company's retained earnings are subject to dividend withholding tax on the nominal value of the shares issued. Pursuant to the provisions of the US Tax Treaty, dividends paid by the Company to a beneficial owner of shares (as defined in Dutch Dividend Tax Act) who is a resident of the United States (as defined in the US Tax Treaty), are generally eligible for the rate of Dutch withholding tax of 15%, unless (i) the beneficial owner of the dividends carries on business in the Netherlands through a permanent establishment, or performs independent personal services in the Netherlands from a fixed base, and the Common Shares form part of the business property of such permanent establishment or pertain to such fixed base, or (ii) the beneficial owner of the dividends is not entitled to the benefits of the US Tax Treaty under the treaty-shopping provisions thereof. Special rules apply to the rate of withholding tax applied to dividends paid to beneficial owners that own 10% or more of the voting power of the Company. Dividends paid to qualifying exempt US pension trusts and qualifying exempt US organizations are exempt from Dutch withholding tax under the US Tax Treaty.

However, for qualifying exempt US organizations no exemption at source upon payment of the dividend can be applied for; such exempt US organizations should apply for a refund of the 15% withholding tax.

Capital gains

Capital gains upon the sale or exchange of Common Shares by a non-resident individual or by a non-resident corporation of the Netherlands are exempt from Dutch income tax, corporation tax or withholding tax, unless (i) such gains are effectively connected with a permanent establishment in the Netherlands of the shareholders' trade or business or (ii) are derived from a direct, indirect or deemed substantial participation in the share capital of a company (such substantial participation not being a business asset).

In general, an individual has a substantial participation if he holds either directly or indirectly and either independently or jointly with his spouse or steady partner, at least 5% of the total issued share capital or particular class of shares of a company. For determining a substantial participation, other shares held by close relatives are taken into account. The same applies to options to buy shares. A deemed substantial participation amongst others exists if (part of) a substantial participation has been disposed of, or is deemed to have been disposed of, on a non-recognition basis.

Under the US Tax Treaty, however, the Netherlands may only tax a capital gain that is derived by an alienator who is an US resident under the US Tax Treaty and is not disqualified from treaty benefits under the treaty-shopping rules from a substantial participation and that is not effectively connected with a permanent establishment in the Netherlands if the alienator has been a resident of the Netherlands at any time during the five-year period preceding the alienation, and owned at the time of alienation either alone or together with his relatives, at least 25% of any class of shares.

Net wealth tax

As of January 1, 2001, the net wealth tax was abolished in the Netherlands.

Estate and gift taxes

No estate, inheritance or gift taxes are imposed by the Netherlands on the transfer of Common Shares if, at the time of the death of the shareholder or the transfer of the Common Shares (as the case may be), such shareholder or transferor is not a resident of the Netherlands, unless such Common Shares are attributable to a permanent establishment or permanent representative of the shareholder in the Netherlands.

Inheritance or gift taxes (as the case may be) are due, however, if such shareholder or transferor:

- (a) has Dutch nationality and has been a resident of the Netherlands at any time during the ten years preceding the time of the death or transfer; or
- (b) has no Dutch nationality but has been a resident of the Netherlands at any time during the twelve months preceding the time of transfer (for Netherlands gift taxes only).

United States Federal Taxation

This section describes the material United States federal income and tax consequences to a U.S. holder (as defined below) of owning Common Shares. It applies only if the Common Shares are held as capital assets for tax purposes.

This section does not apply to a member of a special class of holders subject to special rules, including:

- a dealer in securities,
- a trader in securities that elects to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for securities holdings,
- a tax-exempt organization,
- a life insurance company,
- a person liable for alternative minimum tax,
- a person that actually or constructively owns 10% or more of our voting stock,
- a person that holds Common Shares as part of a straddle or a hedging or conversion transaction, or
- a person whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar.

This section is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, its legislative history, existing and proposed regulations, published rulings and court decisions, all as currently in effect, as well as on the US Tax Treaty. These laws are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis.

A U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of Common Shares that is:

- a citizen or resident of the United States,
- a domestic corporation,
- an estate whose income is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source, or
- a trust if a United States court can exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more United States persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

Table of Contents

A US holder should consult their own tax advisor regarding the United States federal, state and local and other tax consequences of owning and disposing of Common Shares in their particular circumstances.

This discussion addresses only United States federal income taxation.

Taxation of Dividends

Under the United States federal income tax laws, the gross amount of any dividend paid out of our current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for United States federal income tax purposes) is subject to United States federal income taxation. For a noncorporate U.S. holder, dividends paid in taxable years beginning after December 31, 2002 and before January 1, 2011 that constitute qualified dividend income will be taxable at a maximum tax rate of 15% provided that the noncorporate US holder holds the Common Shares for more than 60 days during the 121-day period beginning 60 days before the ex-dividend date and meets other holding period requirements. Dividends paid with respect to the Common Shares generally will be qualified dividend income. A US holder must include any Dutch tax withheld from the dividend payment in this gross amount even though it does not in fact receive it. The dividend is taxable to a US holder when it receives the dividend, actually or constructively. The dividend will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally allowed to United States corporations in respect of dividends received from other United States corporations. The amount of the dividend distribution that a US holder must include in its income will be the U.S. dollar value of the Euro payments made, determined at the spot Euro/U.S. dollar rate on the date the dividend distribution is includible in its income, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars. Generally, any gain or loss resulting from currency exchange fluctuations during the period from the date a US holder includes the dividend payment in income to the date as US holder converts the payment into U.S. dollars will be treated as ordinary income or loss and will not be eligible for the special tax rate applicable to qualified dividend income. The gain or loss generally will be income or loss from sources within the United States for foreign tax credit limitation purposes. Distributions in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits, as determined for United States federal income tax purposes, will be treated as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of a US holder's basis in the Common Shares and thereafter as capital gain. Subject to certain limitations, the Dutch tax withheld in accordance with the Treaty and paid over to the Netherlands will be creditable or deductible against a US holder United States federal income tax liability. Special rules apply in determining the foreign tax credit limitation with respect to dividends that are subject to the maximum 15% tax rate. To the extent a refund of the tax withheld is available under Dutch law or under the US Tax Treaty, the amount of tax withheld that is refundable will not be eligible for credit against United States federal income tax liability. Dividends will be income from sources outside the United States, but dividends paid in taxable years beginning before January 1, 2007 generally will be passive or financial services income, and dividends paid in taxable years beginning after December 31, 2006 will, depending on a holder's circumstances, be passive or general income which, in either case, is treated separately from other types of income for purposes of computing the foreign tax credit allowable to the holder.

Taxation of Capital Gains

A U.S. holder that sells or otherwise disposes of Common Shares will recognize capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between the U.S. dollar value of the amount that it realize and its tax basis, determined in U.S. dollars, in its Common Shares. Capital gain of a noncorporate U.S. holder that is recognized on or after May 6, 2003 and in taxable years beginning before January 1, 2011 is generally taxed at a maximum rate of 15% where the holder has a holding period greater than one year. The gain or loss will generally be income or loss from sources within the United States for foreign tax credit limitation purposes.

Item 15. Controls and procedures

The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(b) and 15d-15(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) as of the end of the period covered by the Annual Report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that these disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

Management's report on internal control over financial reporting and the report of independent registered public accounting firm on page 112 and 113 of the 2006 Annual Report are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 16A. Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Company does not have an Audit Committee financial expert as defined under the regulations of the US Securities and Exchange Commission serving on its Audit Committee. The information required by this Item is incorporated herein by reference from page 230 and 231 of the 2006 Annual Report under the heading "The Audit Committee".

Item 16B. Code of Ethics

The Company recognizes that its businesses have responsibilities within the communities in which they operate. The Company has a Financial Code of Ethics which applies to the CEO (the principal executive officer) and CFO (the principal financial and principal accounting officer), and to the heads of the Corporate Control, Corporate Treasury, Corporate Fiscal and Corporate Internal Audit departments of the Company. The Company has published its Financial Code of Ethics within the investor section of its website located at www.philips.com. No changes have been made to the Code of Ethics since its adoption and no waivers have been granted therefrom to the officers mentioned above in 2006.

Item 16C. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

The Company has instituted a comprehensive auditor independence policy that regulates the relation between the Company and its external auditors and is available on the Company's website (www.philips.com). The policy includes rules for the pre-approval by the Audit Committee of all services to be provided by the external auditor. The policy also describes the prohibited services that may never be provided. Proposed services may be pre-approved at the beginning of the year by the Audit Committee (annual pre-approval) or may be pre-approved during the year by the Audit Committee in respect of a particular engagement (specific pre-approval). The annual pre-approval is based on a detailed, itemized list of services to be provided, designed to ensure that there is no management discretion in determining whether a service has been approved and to ensure the Audit Committee is informed of each service it is pre-approving. Unless pre-approval with respect to a specific service has been given at the beginning of the year, each proposed service requires specific pre-approval during the year. Any annually pre-approved services where the fee for the engagement is expected to exceed pre-approved cost levels or budgeted amounts will also require specific pre-approval. The term of any annual pre-approval is 12 months from the date of the pre-approval unless the Audit Committee states otherwise. During 2006, there were no services provided to the Company by the external auditors which were not pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Pursuant to the authorization given at the Company's Annual General Meeting of Shareholders referred to below to purchase shares in the Company, the Company has purchased shares for (i) capital reduction purposes and (ii) delivery under convertible personnel debentures, restricted share programs, employee stock purchase plans and stock options in order to avoid dilution from new issuances. When shares are delivered, they are removed from treasury stock. In 2006, Philips acquired a total of 105,949,305 shares. A total of 35,933,526 shares were held in treasury by the Company at December 31, 2006 (2005: 114,736,942 shares). As of that date, a total of 65,456,296 rights to acquire shares (under convertible personnel debentures, restricted share programs, employee stock purchase plans and stock options) were outstanding (2005:68,994,091).

For information on the share repurchase programs, reference is made to the section on share repurchase program in Other information on page 51 of the 2006 Annual Report and is incorporated herein by reference.

The General Meeting of Shareholders, at their meeting of October 25, 2006 authorized the Board of Management, subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, for a period until April 26, 2008, within the limits of the law and the Articles of Association, to acquire for valuable consideration, on the Amsterdam Stock Exchange or otherwise, shares in the Company, provided the Company does not hold more than 10% of its issued share capital.

Exhibit 15 (b) The Annual Report to Shareholders for 2006 (except for the omitted portions thereof identified below) is furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission for information only. The Annual Report to Shareholders for 2006 is not filed except for such specific portions that are expressly incorporated by reference in this Report on Form 20-F. Furthermore, the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) information, including the financial statements and related notes on pages 172 through 217 of the Annual Report to Shareholders for 2006, and the unconsolidated Company financial statements, including the Notes thereto, also prepared on the basis of IFRS, on pages 218 through 223 of the Annual Report to Shareholders for 2006, have been omitted from the version of such Report being furnished as an exhibit to this Report on Form 20-F. The IFRS information and Company statements have been omitted because Philips' primary consolidated accounts are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and Philips is not required to include in this Report on Form 20-F the IFRS information and Company statements.
