The decrease in the number of shares reported herein from the number of shares reported in Amendment No. 2 to Schedule 13D reflects the sale by Argyll Equities, LLC (first disclosed to the Reporting Person on December 21, 2004) of 1,190,000 of the Reporting Person's shares that were pledged as collateral under a collateralized loan agreement between the Reporting Person and Argyll Equities, LLC, as described in Item 6 of this Schedule 13D/A. In his litigation against Argyll, as discussed in Item 6, Mr. Paolino is seeking all possible relief in law and equity. One possible remedy the Court may impose is

ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

Item 6 is hereby amended by adding the following language:

On December 16, 2004, Louis D. Paolino filed a Verified Original Petition, Application for a Restraining Order, and Request for Disclosure in the District Court in the 216th Judicial District for Kendall County, Texas against Argyll Equities, LLC ("Argyll"). Pursuant to this lawsuit, on that same date, Judge William Palmer entered a Temporary Restraining Order against Argyll. This Order enjoined Argyll from the sale of Mace common stock pledged by Mr. Paolino as collateral pursuant to the Loan Agreement between Argyll and Mr. Paolino. The Order further required that Argyll place the pledged shares in the Court's registry until further order by the Court. In the event that Argyll sold the pledged shares before the Court entered the Order, then the Order requires Argyll to provide an accounting of the pledged shares' disposition. Finally, the Order requires that Argyll furnish information to Mr. Paolino within five days of the receipt of the Order including, inter alia, all information necessary for complete disclosures about Argyll under section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules, regulations, and schedules promulgated thereunder. Finally, the Order set a hearing date of December 29, 2004 on Mr. Paolino's Application for a Temporary Injunction.

Edgar Filing: MACE SECURITY INTERNATIONAL INC - Form SC 13D/A

On December 21, 2004, Argyll, through its litigation counsel, first disclosed to Mr. Paolino's counsel that Argyll sold all of the pledged shares. On December 22, 2004, Argyll, through its litigation counsel, disclosed to Mr. Paolino's counsel that Argyll sold the pledged shares in several "traunches," thereby rendering the portion of the Order enjoining the sale of the pledged shares moot. On December 21, 2004, counsel to Mr. Paolino delivered a letter to Argyll's counsel requesting additional information relating to Argyll's sales of the pledged shares, including the date or dates on which the pledged shares were sold or otherwise disposed of, including by way of hedging transactions or other derivative security trades; the price or prices at which the shares were sold and the total amount of funds or other benefits received for any sale, pledge or other transfer or disposition of the Shares by Argyll; the name and business address of all beneficial owners, officers and directors of, and persons with a discretionary authority to execute trades on behalf of, Argyll from April 15, 2004 to present; and the complete criminal history of Argyll or any of its principals or officers, if any, including the date, nature of conviction, name and location of the court and penalty imposed or other disposition of the case. As of the date hereof, Mr. Paolino has not received any of the requested information about such sales by Argyll or the requested information about Argyll.

In his litigation against Argyll, Mr. Paolino is seeking all possible relief in law and equity. One possible remedy the Court may impose is restoring the loan and returning all 1,190,000 of Mr. Paolino's shares as the original collateral.
